PLANE DOWN IN JAPAN
TOKYO (Reuters) — A United States Air Force transport plane with a crew of four crashed into the inland Sea of Japan Friday, far east air force headquarters reported. There were no survivors. The plane was on a training flight.

LITTLE SANDS

The gathering of the flowers reminded me also of hos God gathered his children Home. He has made a place ready for each from various walks and times of life as well as the different tribes and races are all His sayeth the Lord. These few thoughts about the wild flowers about us, may help others to see God all around about us. Each has its own costume and peculiarities and each one in its own dress—not trying to imitate other flowers but just being themselves. If the daisy tried to wear the yellow petals of the buttercup—what chaos, but they in themselves show obedience to God's laws. So may we each strive to be ourselves, even with our own peculiarities and differences and obey

ENTERTAINS W. M. S. — Mrs. Raymond Dewar was hostess to the members of the Women's Missionary Society of the Baptist Church, Montague, Friday evening. There were eleven members and five visitors present. The president, Miss Freda Apt, presided. The correspondence and the minutes of the last meeting were read by Mrs. Spencer Llewellyn and other business transacted. The theme of the devotional study was "Ready To Pay The Price." An interesting and instructive report of the missionary district association meeting, held at East Point, was given by Mrs. David Wright. Letters were read from missionaries in Bolivia, dealing with the work carried on abroad, and a poem entitled "On With The Message" was read by Miss Bourke. The hymns sung were "The Light Of The World Is Jesus", and "Jesus Calls Us". The meeting closed with the Mizpah benediction. Delicious refreshments were served by the hostess, assisted by several ladies.

ACME LODGE MEETS — Miss Florrie Beaton presided at the regular meeting of Acme Rebekah Lodge, Montague, Thursday evening, and a large number of officers and members were present. During the business session arrangements were finalized for celebrating the forty-second anniversary of the lodge on July 26th. The Noble Grand expressed the wish that all members would respond to roll call either by their presence at the meeting or by letter. At the close of the meeting, a delicious treat of strawberry shortcake ice cream and tea was served by Mrs. Marie Dewar. She was assisted in serving by Mrs. Frances Shaw and Mrs. Violet MacDonald.
