Dr. Tilden, formerly chemist of the National Museum, says that Guitau, President Garfield's assassin, was drunk when hanged, the doctors having given him a big dose of brandy to keep him from collapsing. The assassin's body was taken to the boiler room of the museum, where it was boiled until the flesh came off, and the bones were then bleached. The skeleton will probably be placed among the museum's exhibits some day.

TESTIMONIAL.

Dear Sir,—As there seems to be another endeavor on the part of some persons to drive Dr. Baynes into a corner and from the Island, I think it time for his friends to again come to his rescue and publish the benefits he has conferred upon them, so that others may know where to apply for like benefits. My case was of long standing, the result of a weak circulation, and baffled the combined skill of half a dozen Island doctors. I am pleased to bear testimony that if it had not been for the skill Dr. Baynes showed I would to-day be helpless. Before applying to him I was unable to sew or attend to my household duties. After the first week's treatment I saw a change and have steadily improved, till now I can perform my duties as well as ever. Yours, etc.,

H. W. C. GALBRAITH.

SCROFULA AND SALT RHEUM.

Dear Mr. Eagar.

I have much pleasure in giving you a record of the effect produced by the use of your PHOSPHOLEINE. The following cases have come under my particular attention while visiting the sick and poor: A case of Hereditary Scrofula.—The patient had tried most of the blood purifying remedies and Sarsaparillas in use, but for the past 19 years obtained no relief. After taking three bottles of your PHOSPHOLEINE his flesh became smooth and healthy, and he is now completely cured. A case of severe cough in the last stages of Consumption: The cough was eased, and the patient regained flesh and strength. This case is past curing, and the patient was pronounced so by physicians; but had she obtained of your medicine sooner, would no doubt have been cured. A case in which patient had given up the use of alcohol: The craving was cured, and the patient was regaining health and strength. A case of loss of flesh, great weakness, and indisposition for exertion of any kind, has been restored to health and strength by using your PHOSPHOLEINE. I have also recommended it to many who have been suffering from Dyspepsia, loss of strength and flesh, and in every case it has effected a cure. I have derived much benefit from the use of it myself. I remain yours, &c.,
