THE DAILY EXAMINER.

JUNE 7, 1895.

NOTES AND COMMENTS.

—Congratulations to the young ladies who came out ahead in the Prince of Wales College examinations!

—In this Province, last year 1,200,000 letters and 165,000 post cards were sent through the post office, or about twelve each for every man, woman and child.

—Sir John Macdonald needs no monument. His monuments, the results of his labors, are seen in every part of Canada. But on the principle that "to him that has shall be given," an artistic memorial of him, in the form of a splendid statue, was yesterday unveiled in Montreal by the Governor-General. Hon. George E. Foster delivered the oration.

—Mr. Charlton, M. P., having suggested a change in the Wilson tariff of the United States in respect to the item of lumber, which was originally favorable to Canada, has been dubbed "the honorable member for Michigan." If the Grit party should gain power, Mr. Charlton will be a prominent member of the Government of Canada. Think of it, all ye who hate treachery.

—It is strange to hear that the Auditor-General is protesting against the economy of the Government. That doughty official has memorialized the House of Commons and complained that the Government does not give him money enough to advance in sufficiently large promotions to higher rank and higher pay the members of his staff of twenty-four officials. He also complains that his allowance for extra clerks has been reduced, and generally that the appropriation for his office is on too narrow a scale. Mr. McDougall appeals to Parliament, claiming that no faithful auditor-general can expect justice from a government, seeing that he must continually be objecting to departmental expenditures. He wants a committee appointed to look into the matter. Cutting down expenditures is the duty and care of the Auditor-General; but he does not care to have the rule of economy applied to himself and his clerks.

—The Ottawa Free Press says: "Mr. St. Louis has "secrets" which, if irritated, he may use to the great detriment of the Government." Upon this the Montreal Gazette remarks that "Liberal papers say this sort of thing in connection with almost every Government prosecution of an alleged public wrong-doer. It is evidently supposed to have some effect in convincing the country that the Government is deep in whatever villainy is going; but it is rather thin. The Government has successfully resisted in the civil courts one claim of Mr. St. Louis in connection with this bridge work. It is proceeding against him for the recovery of a large sum of money in another civil action. Having failed in one criminal prosecution against him, it has instituted another. If all this does not sufficiently irritate Mr. St. Louis into telling the alleged "secrets," it would be difficult to conceive anything that would. The Government is evidently not afraid of the process."

WEDDING BELLS.

On Wednesday evening, June 5th, Bonshaw Presbyterian Church was the scene of a very pretty wedding, when Mr. J. Beecher Crosby, "The Mills," Bonshaw, and Miss Annie Laurie, youngest daughter of the late Alex. Robertson, Esq., were married. The ceremony was performed at 8.30 p. m. by the Rev. J. F. McCurdy, pastor. The church decorations were very beautiful, including a large floral bell of white lilac and apple blossoms, under which the young couple made their vows. The bride was charmingly gowned in white cloth and satin, with train and veil, and bouquet of white lilacs, and was given away by her brother, James A. Robertson. After the marriage Mr. and Mrs. Crosby, amid the congratulations and good wishes of all, supplemented by showers of rice, drove to their new home, a charming residence just outside the village. The popularity of the couple was fully attested not only by the crowds who came to the church, but by the many handsome and valuable presents sent by friends both at home and abroad. Miss Robertson has always been quietly an efficient worker, both in church and Sunday school, and the success attending this part of the congregation has, in a great measure, been due to her efforts and those of her lamented sister, whose memory will ever be green in her native place. The congregation is to be congratulated that in her new sphere of life Mrs. Crosby remains among them.

We extend hearty congratulations to them both, hoping for them a bright and happy future, and that they may always be able to "halve one another's sorrows and double their joys."

NEWS NOTES.

New York's Greek church is not a very large affair, but by the selection of ushers of rare judgment they always manage to make room for the name of the pastor, Rev. Agatholores A. Pappageorgeopolis.

Harold Frederick cables from London to the New York Times: There is a confident renewal now of predictions that the Government is about to fall this time immediately after the House of Commons re-assembles Monday week. Lord Rosebery has been showing himself about Westminster in a dolorous and pallid sort of way, but now he is off again for ten days on a further ocean cruise, and such of his followers as saw him about are not sorry for his absence. He produces the melancholy impression of a man who has been mentally and physically withered by some premature and irrevocable blight. His old alertness of wits and demeanor has entirely gone; he stares almost vacantly at times; now forgets what he is saying and then depresses those about him wherever he goes. Even those who are tied to him frankly abandon the idea that he has a future. They have turned their eyes now to Herbert Asquith and, indeed the whole Liberal party is holding down to the notion that he is now the man. It is not an entirely welcome prospect, for with all his exceptional Parliamentary and platform ability, he leaves hearers cold and gives his followers the feeling that he is very keenly alive to his own personal advantages, but apparently he is the only match for Balfour all the same.

SOUSA'S BAND.—Moncton to-morrow afternoon. Take in the cheap excursion to go and hear it. You will not be disappointed.

To purify, vitalize and enrich the blood, and give nerve, bodily and digestive strength, take Hood's Sarsaparilla.

Here is a snap in Curtain Ends. Two hundred and fifty ends from our wholesale department, suitable for lambre quins or half blinds, at 25 cents an end. Call early.—W. A. Weeks & Co. jun4 3i
