

NEWS of the WORLD in PICTURES

If Canadian Kennel club has its way, nose-printing will officially be added to methods of identifying dogs. The method will be used, it is hoped, to identify purebreds. It is thought that this method will prove more foolproof than tattooing. El Zorro, two-pound Chihuahua, rests on paw of 150-pound Great Dane.

Already winner of nine scholarships and 94 medals for piano, singing and sight reading, Audrey Fletcher, 15, Toronto, added to her laurels by capturing the open-class award at Brantford, Ont., music festival. She holds Holding trophy.

Addressing a mass meeting of Chrysler strikers, UAW president Walter Reuther said, "If we have to sell our international headquarters building to stay on strike, that's what we'll do." Some 10,000 strikers attended the Detroit meeting.

PRACTICE MAKES PAR — Getting ready for the 1950 Master's Golf Tournament in Augusta, Ga., Slammin' Sammy Snead gets off a long drive in a practice round. Snead is pre-tourney favorite. Watching are (left to right) Byron Nelson, Johnny Bulla and Herman Barron.

Lockhart W. Trinnell, 55, who in 1939 retired from the Toronto police force after 25 years' service, will "get back into harness" as police chief of Pickering township, May 1. The former Toronto police force detective and founder of the first Toronto arson squad said: "It's time, too, I feel I can be of service to the township and am all set to roll up my sleeves and go to work." He was selected by Pickering town council from 45 applicants submitted to fill the vacancy left by Chief John Irvine.

Owen Lattimore (centre), accused by Sen. Joseph McCarthy of being a "top spy", talks to reporters as he stops over in Rome, Italy. Lattimore, in Afghanistan on a United Nations mission, is heading for Washington where he will answer McCarthy's charges, which he calls "pure hokum."

Spring has come to the Garden City of Ontario, St. Catharines, as shown by Suzanne Ward, four, who picks a crocus that burst into flower during recent warm weather.

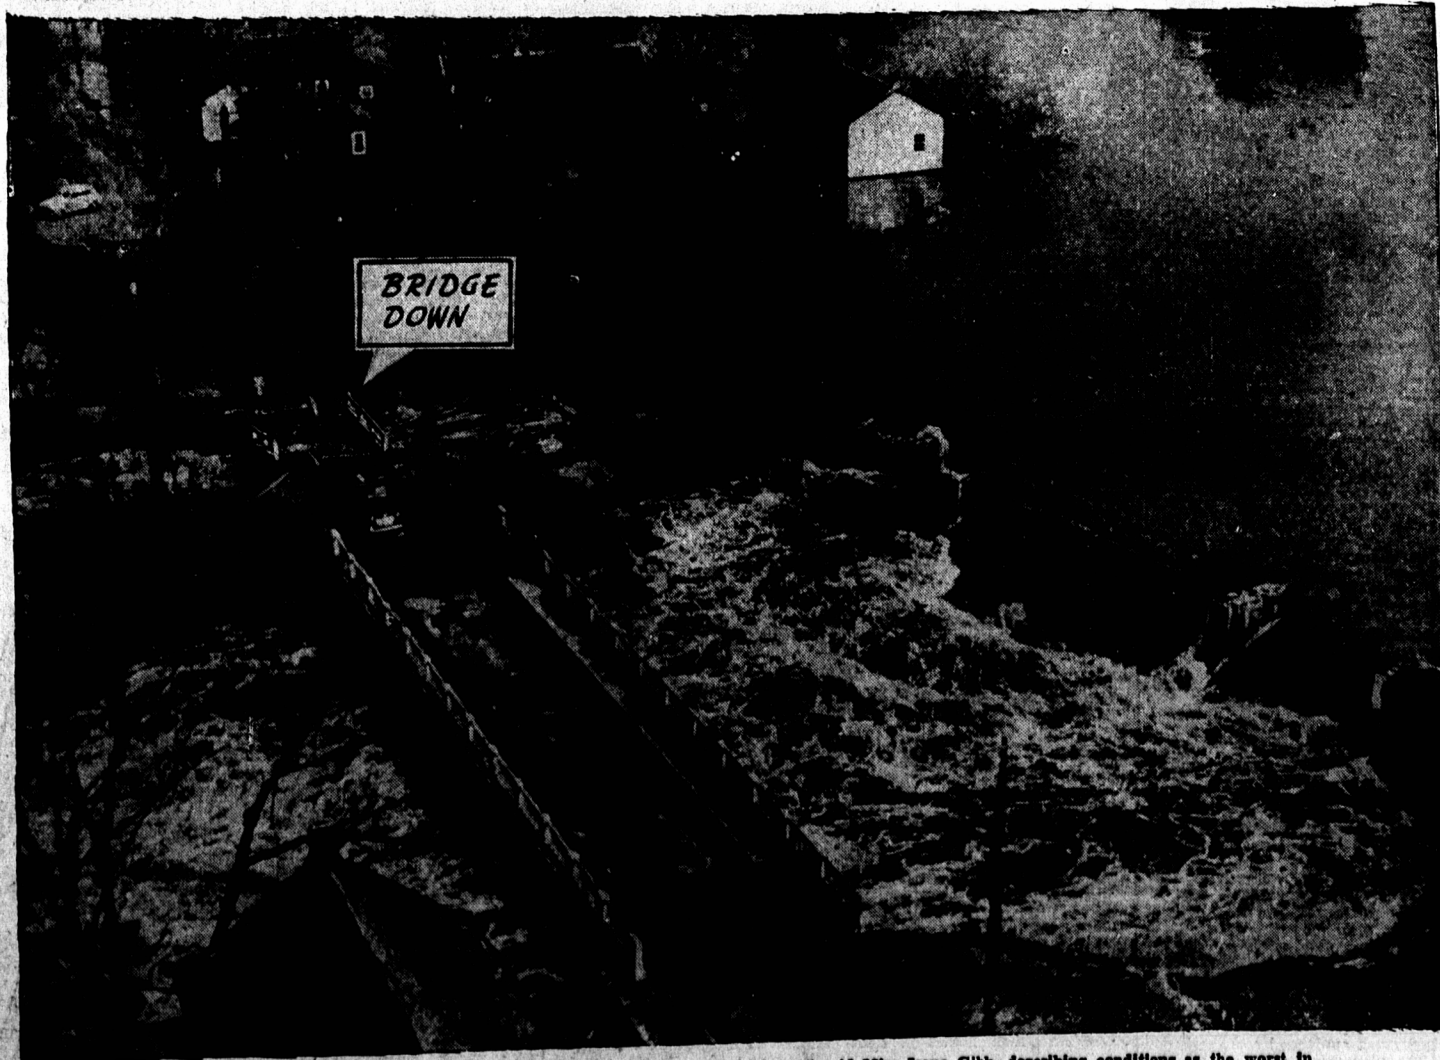

Eire's new ambassador to Canada is Sean Murphy shown with his wife and four daughters upon their arrival in Ottawa. At rear, Katherine, 17, Nessa, 15, Sioban, 12; front, Mr. and Mrs. Murphy, Trina, 5, and family pet, "Rolly," French poodle.

JOHN J. McCLOY
John J. McCloy, U.S. high commissioner for Germany, recently sounded the call to Western Europe to accept Western Germany as a full partner in the campaign to stop Russia. McCloy recently returned from high level consultations in Washington. His words obviously were approved by President Truman and U. S. Secretary of State Dean Acheson. They followed other recent appeals by Britain's Winston Churchill and France's Gen. Charles de Gaulle to their own governments.

"APE-Y BIRTHDAY TO YOU . . ."—Bushman, the famous gorilla at Chicago's Lincoln Park Zoo, wasn't too much impressed with his 22nd birthday cake. Bushman was honored by the Chicago Press Photographers Association, which called him "the most photographed animal of all time."

Flooding waters of the Credit river have washed out the highway bridge, shown here, and given the 100 pupils of the village school at Glen Williams, Ont., an unexpected holiday. "When the floods carried out the bridge, planks had to be used so pedestrians could reach the highway," said Miss Irene Gibb, describing conditions as the worst in years. "It means that any emergency case would have to be carried out to highway before they could be sent to any hospital."

Men are dynamiting mouth of Etobicoke creek to clear channel of tightly-packed ice floes which backed up the water and spilled it into the streets. Here ice and spray are sent high into air by blast.

THINGS ARE GETTING HOT—Red-hunting Sen. Joseph McCarthy of Wisconsin, seems to be feeling the heat during the controversy over alleged Communists in the State Department. President Truman's blast that McCarthy is "the Kremlin's greatest asset in this country" didn't cool things.