IN MEMORIAM

In loving memory of my Dear Husband, Preston J. Sentner, who departed this life April 19th. 1961.

My thoughts go back, they know the way,
They need no road or guide;
To that sad day for me,—
The one on which you died.
So I try to smile despite my tears,
And raise a grateful heart
To God, who plans a home for us,
Where loved ones never part.
Lovingly remembered by His Wife, Sadie.

OBITUARY

Inserted by friends and relatives as a tribute to the deceased.

ALLAN HERMAN

In the passing of Allan Herman MacDougall of Lower Newton at the Prince Edward Island on February 25th, 1962, a link with the past has been severed. He was in his eighty fourth year and had lived all his life in his native district with the exception of six months when he was a boy of 18 he worked on the Government boat Nulmare. Farming was for him however and in that he was happy.

He was the son of the Late Mr. and Mrs. Angus MacDougall and was one of their family of nine, 5 girls and 4 boys. He was their eldest son and he possessed a most genial personality. He loved children and during his long life saw many grow to manhood and womanhood with their friendship. During the last few years his moving about became difficult and when his friends wanted to see him a visit to his home was necessary, his firm handclasp and sincere words of welcome was the greeting each one received. He leaves to mourn besides his wife the former Catherine MacLean of Orwell Cove two sisters, Winnie, Mrs. Hector MacLeod, Edmonton and Bessie Mrs. A.E. Smith, Charlottetown and one brother Harry A. also of Charlottetown also several nieces and nephews. His funeral was held on February 28th from the old Belfast Church and was very largely attended, Rev. Donald Nicholson was the officiating clergyman. The church choir led in singing the Old Hymns and two special numbers were sung. A solo by Mr. Lloyd Martin and the Belfast quartet rendered the other number. Both these selections were his favourites. Mr. Ridson Gillis was the undertaker. The casket was covered and flanked with lovely flowers bearing testimony of respect to the older citizen of Belfast who has gone on.

CARD OF THANKS

Mrs. Herman MacDougall and Herman's Sisters and Brother wish to extend at this time their special thanks to all those good friends and neighbours who sent sympathy cards and letters, beautiful floral rememberances and in many ways the real christian spirit was shown in "What can I do to help". The Service by Mizpah Masonic Lodge which was held at the home the night before the funeral was a beautiful tribute. All of which is sincerely appreciated.
