DEATH NOTICE

MRS. JOHN C. MACDONALD. Relatives and friends were saddened to learn of the death of Mrs. John C. MacDonald in her seventy-sixth year at the home of her sister-in-law Mrs. Annabella Docherty, Kingston.

The late Sadie (Docherty) MacDonald was born in Edinburgh, the daughter of the late John and Mary Ann Docherty.

She and her husband made their home at Point Prim and were engaged in farming until her husband predeceased her seven years ago.

After her husband's death she resided with her sister Mrs. Jack MacPherson. Now having for five years until her death passed away, this she moved to the home of her sister-in-law where she was tenderly cared for by her niece Marie for two years.

Although stricken with a stroke that left her partially paralyzed and blind she was never known to complain and this gentle disposition made the task of caring for her more a pleasure than a chore. She bore her illness with great courage and cheerfulness up until the time of her death.

Her Christian principles and steadfast faith were evident in her every day life. Possessed of a kind, friendly and hospitable manner she endeavored herself to both young and old, ever ready and willing to lend a helping hand to those in need.

One sister and five brothers predeceased her Anne (Mrs. Jack MacPherson), Daniel, Alex, Kenneth, George and Jack.

The largely attended funeral was held on May 28th from Clyde River Presbyterian Church.

The service was conducted by Rev. George Kilien, assisted by Rev. R.A. Patterson. The hymns sung were, "The Lord's My Shepherd" and "Forever With the Lord." A solo "Beyond the Sunset" was beautifully rendered by Cameron MacPherson, Pinette.

Pall bearers were: John Gallant, Lloyd MacKinnon, Harry Campbell and Hector MacLeod. Flower bearers were: Kenneth Scott, Wayne MacKinnon, Layton Docherty, Allan Willis, Sheldon MacKinnon, all nephews of the deceased and one cousin Wendell Campbell.

Beautiful floral tributes bore silent testimony of the esteem in which the deceased was held. Interment was in Clyde River cemetery.

Following are the floral tributes: Annabella and family, Annie and Anna McEwen, Earl, Jean and family, Verna Docherty and family, Kate Docherty and girls, Harry, Wilfred, Vera Campbell and family, Marjorie, John A., Jeanette and Waldron MacKinnon, A. H. Cameron, Jean and Stan Godfrey and family, George, Earl and family, John MacEachern.

MATHESON - In memory of Mrs. James L. Matheson of Appleton Road, who passed away on August 29th, 1957.

In tears we saw you sinking, We watched you fade away, Our hearts were almost broken, You fought so hard to stay, But when we saw you sleeping, We could not wish you back, To suffer that again.

Lovingly remembered by Wife and family.

ROSE - In loving memory of Preston Rose, who lost his life five years ago today, on August 20, 1959.

Just a prayer from we who loved you, Just a memory fond and true, Just to say how much we miss you, Because we thought the world of you, Fondly remembered, Gordon, Phyllis.
