

MAKES PEOPLE WELL

Paine's Celery Compound
the Chosen Medicine of All Classes in our Dominion.

The reputation of Paine's Celery Compound extends from day to day. Those who stand in need of the healing and recuperative powers of nature's health restorer are advised to use it by those who have been made well and strong. In the house, on the street, and where people congregate, Paine's Celery Compound is ever recommended and kindly words spoken in its favor. In this way the popularity of the great medicine is made enduring, and its immense sales stir the envy of the ordinary patent medicine proprietor and the jealous minded doctor.

The wealthiest families of the land, the best and most observant people in our cities and towns, and the common sense people in our agricultural districts, place Paine's Celery Compound far above all other known remedies.

The past and present history of Paine's Celery Compound is one grand continued story of sick people made well—of fathers, mothers, sons and daughters restored to perfect health.

Competent medical authorities declare that Paine's Celery Compound is the one great medicine for rundown and physically weak people. When the vital forces are low and the nervous organism shattered, then it is that the marvellous medicine manifests its wondrous healing virtues. Weakness, depression, tired feeling, languor, digestive troubles, headache, rheumatism and neuralgia are quickly banished owing to the nourishment that Paine's Celery Compound imparts to brain nerves and tissue. It is the great everyday home medicine for all classes of our population.

HIS NARROW ESCAPE

How Dodd's Kidney Pills Saved Mr. C. S. Griggs.

HAMILTON, Jan., 30.—A startling story is told by Mr. C. S. Griggs, carpenter, living at 151 Queen Street South. Reputable citizens vouch for the strict truth of every detail.

Mr. Griggs endured the most agonizing pains for eight years. He was a victim of Bright's disease, and the best doctors could not help him.

Finally he tried Dodd's Kidney Pills. Three boxes cured him. To-day he is sound and well in every way.

It is wonderful how many Hamilton people have been cured of Bright's Disease by Dodd's Kidney Pills. They have never been known to fail in a single case.

Dr. Chase Cures Catarrh after Operations Fail.

Toronto, March 16th, 1897. My boy aged fourteen, has been a sufferer from Catarrh, and lately we submitted him to an operation at the Central Hospital. Since then we have resorted to Dr. Chase's Catarrh Cure, and one box of this medicine has made a prompt and complete cure.

Sir Herbert Murray, the retiring governor of Newfoundland, who is to be succeeded by Sir Henry Edward McCullum, late governor and commander in chief of the British colony of Lagos, West Africa, has sailed for England. Owing to the unfriendly relations he sustained in consequence of his methods towards both political parties in the island, there was no popular demonstration of regret at his departure.

Chronic Eczema Cured.

One of the most chronic cases of Eczema ever cured is the case of Miss Gracie Ella Alton, of Hartland, N. B. On a sworn statement Mr. Alton says: I hereby certify that my daughter Gracie Ella was cured of Eczema of long standing by using four boxes of Dr. Chase's Ointment. William Thistle, druggist, of Hartland, also certifies that he sold four boxes of Dr. Chase's Ointment which cured Gracie Ella.

IT'S NOT MY WAY.

"It's not my way."
How often is this heard.
"It's not my way, to speak the kindly word,
I feel enough, but 'tis not well to speak,
To tell my loving out it seems so weak."

"It's not my way."
How often hearts have broken
Because the loving word has been unspoken,
Because the smile we looked for was a frown,
The hand that should uplift, but held us down.

"It's not my way"
To speak the word that craving love requires,
To voice approval, foster vain desires,
Hearts often faint and fall out by the way,
Because to speak is not your way.

"It's not my way."
Ah, well, when death shall come
And touch the best loved lips and make them dumb
Sad will it be for you if grim regrets,
And stern remorse upon your heartstrings set

Their fingers firm,
Because it is their way to torture and to wring,
Then you'll remember every little thing,
The smile you did not give, the word unspoken,
Which might have gilded life and kept a heart unbroken.

Aye, then you will remember!
And in blood sweat and agony will say,
"Would it had been my way
To love, approve and tell it out, so meet,
For it was you that made my life complete."

DEALING WITH LUMBERMEN.

Peccoliar Tricks Indulged In by Both Buyer and Seller.

There is an old retired merchant in Detroit who delights in recalling his experiences when an active man running a general store in one of the north ern cities of the lower peninsula.

"I used to reap a harvest when the men were coming out of the woods," he relates. "They were not up in styles, and about any old thing would suit them provided the color was right and the fit even passable. But there were tricksters among them, and I had to have my wits about me in order to keep even with them.

"How much is that hat?" asked a strapping six footer, who arrived from camp one day with a pocketful of money.

"Two fifty," I replied.
"Then he informed me that he always had the crowns of his hats punched full of holes in order to keep his head cool and his hair from coming out. I soon had this attended to, and then he asked what the hat was worth. 'Two fifty,' I responded in surprise, but he laughed at me for asking such a price for damaged goods. He had me, and got his hat for $1, while the jolly crowd with him had a laugh at my expense. He wanted to look at some 'fiddles,' and after pricing one at $10 concluded to take it.

"Where's the bow?" he asked, as I was doing up the package.

"You only bought the fiddle," I laughed. The others saw the point and laughed too. The giant tried to blot me, but I kept good humor, and got even on the hat by charging him $1.50 for the bow. I not only got even, but the others were so pleased with my 'Yankee trick' that they spent plenty of money with me."—Detroit Free Press.

Mice of All Colors.

The National Mouse Club of England recently held an exhibition where several hundred mice competed for gold medals, champion cups and various other prizes. These little creatures are not the ordinary everyday mice which scare the cook and drive the mistress of the house to take refuge on a chair. They are well bred mice that expected to be petted and caressed and treated as tenderly as a pet cat or dog.

An Easy Way Out.

At a school inspection some of the boys found a difficulty in the correct placing of the letters "i" and "e" in such words as "believe," "receive," etc.

When the inspector said blandly, "My boys, I will give you an infallible rule, one I invariably use myself," the pupils were all attention, and even the master pricked up his ears.

The inspector continued: "It is simply this: Write the 'i' and 'e' exactly alike and put the dot in the middle over them."—Liverpool Mercury.

Both Sides.

Papa—You saw that big boy whipping the little one, and you didn't interfere. Suppose you had been that little boy?

Bobbie—I did think of that and was going to part 'em, but then I happened to think s'pose I was the big boy? So I left 'em alone.—London Fun.

Too Great a Risk.

"James, if anybody inquires for me today, tell them I am not in."

"Yes, sir."
"There might possibly be one who would not have a bill," muttered the young man, "but I'll not risk it."
