The Assault at Richmond Station.

FOLLOWING is the remainder of the evidence taken at the trial of the four men charged with assaulting the train hands at Richmond Station on the night of the 16th October, inst:—

THURSDAY Oct. 25.
GABRIEL MCKINNON, (sworn)—To Mr. Hodgson—I was a passenger on the train from Summerside to Richmond on the night of the 16th. I saw the row at the station. I saw Victorinus McPhee, Joseph Allen McPhee and Dugald Macdonald strike Traill. John McAttee was in the crowd. He was boxing the brakeman. I saw Felix Macdonald make a kick at one of the brakemen. I saw Traill down on the platform once. I heard nothing said about the row since it took place.

To Mr. Peters—I was arrested and gave my own bail. Mr. Hodgson agreed that I should be released on bail. He said he would take my face for it. I was not left off on condition that I turn Queen's evidence. I do not expect to be tried on this charge because I was not in the row. I had something to drink at Summerside. I saw Frank Traill getting badly beaten at the station. I did not go to his assistance. I saw Joseph Allen McPhee strike Traill with his fist. There was a crowd around Traill at the time. I did not see McPhee do anything after striking the blow. I won't swear anything against Cornelius Macdonald. I saw Dugald Macdonald strike Traill. He was in the row when I came up first.

JOSEPH ARSENAULT, (sworn)—To Mr. Hodgson—I was at Richmond station when the train arrived on the night of the 16th October. I know Joseph Allen McPhee, John McAttee, Dugald Macdonald and Cornelius Macdonald. I saw the scuffle between McPhee and Traill. While McPhee was doing this Traill was being beaten. I saw Victorinus McPhee strike Traill at the end of the station. Dugald Macdonald was among the crowd. I do not know what he was doing.

To Mr. Peters—With the exception of Victorinus McPhee I did not see any one strike the brakeman. When I say that these men were at the station during the row I do not mean to say that they were all engaged in it. The moon was up but the night was not very bright. If I did not see a person before that night I would not undertake to swear to his identity now. I met Cornelius Macdonald going from the station before the row began, and I did not see him during the disturbance. I was not there when McAttee was put out of the train. I stayed till the row was over and when I went home Cornelius Macdonald was there. He and I board together at Richmond. So far as I can see Cornelius was clear of the row.

PETER CAMPBELL, (sworn)—To Mr. Hodgson—I was standing near Arsenault's shop waiting for the train to come in. After the train came in I heard there was a row and I went over to the station. I saw one man down and several about and on top of him. One of the men had light pants. I think it was Victorinus McPhee. I do not remember seeing Cornelius Macdonald there. To tell the honest truth I saw the row, but do not know a soul that was there.

GEORGE SMITH, (sworn)—To Mr. Hodgson—I was at Richmond Station and saw the scuffle. I saw Dugald Macdonald with a hold of Traill the brakeman. Traill was down and Dugald had him by the collar. I am not certain about seeing Joseph Allen McPhee there. I cannot remember seeing Victorinus McPhee there either.

To Mr. Peters—There were so many persons there that it was difficult to tell who were in the row and who were not.

HUGH GRAHAM, (sworn)—To Mr. Hodgson—I saw the latter part of the row at the station on the night of the 16th. I saw the clinch behind the station. One of the men, I think it was the brakeman, was down. I saw several kicks made at the brakeman, but I was not near enough to see who were making them. I saw the brakeman run across the track with a man after him. The man caught him and kicked him. I have no idea who chased and kicked the brakeman. It was not Joseph Allen McPhee.

To Mr. Peters—I saw Cornelius Macdonald leave the station before the row began, and did not see him till over an hour after the row was over. He did not appear to be drunk when I saw him at the station.

SANTINUS CAMERON, (sworn)—To Mr. Hodgson—I saw the scuffle at the station. I heard some one say it was McAttee and the brakeman that were fighting. I afterwards saw McAttee in the crowd. He was not fighting.

To Mr. Peters—I did not see Cornelius Macdonald at all.
Court adjourned.

FRIDAY, Oct. 26.
Court opened at 11 a. m.

A. A. RYAN, (sworn)—To Mr. Hodgson—I was the conductor of the train from Summerside on Exhibition Day. The four prisoners—McAttee, McPhee and the two Macdonalds—were on the train. Before we left Summerside McAttee was disorderly and the others were trying to keep him quiet. I threatened to arrest McAttee, but the others told me if I left him then there would look after him. When we left Wallington I and another man started to collect the tickets. My assistant had some words with Cornelius Macdonald about his ticket. I did not see the row at all. Cornelius Macdonald spoke to me in the car the day he was arrested. He said he had no ill-will toward the train hands; that he assisted Traill to take McAttee off the train on the evening of the row.

To Mr. Peters—I have known Cornelius Macdonald for several years. So far as I can see he has always been civil to myself and the train hands. While speaking with Cornelius Macdonald on the train about the row last Tuesday he asked me if it was not a fact that he had always given me and the train hands a lift when we wanted one, and I said he had. It is a fact that he has. I told Cornelius I had nothing against him.

Mr. Peters here explained what he intended proving for the defence, and submitted the following evidence:—
CORNELIUS MACDONALD, (sworn)—To Mr. Peters—I live at Lot 10, and generally follow milling for a living. I came from Summerside on the evening of the 16th, in the same train with the other prisoners. I was in the car with Dugald Macdonald and reached Richmond. I was perfectly sober in the train. Later on in the evening I drank some liquor and got sick. Two of my brothers were in the train. One was going to O'Leary and the other to Coleman. I saw Traill come up to McAttee and catch him by the coat when the train got to Richmond. I then saw Felix Macdonald go up and take hold of McAttee and help Traill get him out. I swear positively that it was Felix Macdonald and not me that assisted Traill to get McAttee off the train.

I passed through to another car, and spoke to one of my brothers. I then got off the train and saw Joseph Allen McPhee standing on the platform. I exchanged a few words with him and walked home. There was no row then. I did not see the row at all. There was a crowd about the middle of the platform when I got off. Traill is mistaken in his identification of me. I met Arsenault when I was going home, also young Graham. I did not tell Conductor Ryan I had helped Traill take McAttee off the train. I told him Felix had helped Traill, though.

To Mr. Hodgson—They put McAttee off the train before I left it. From the time I left the car to speak to my brother till I left the train would be about a minute and a half. I broke but one flask in the car. I saw no one with his coat off on the train or on the station platform. I saw nothing of the row; but heard there had been one next day. McAttee told me the brakeman and some of the passengers had a few words. Joseph Allen McPhee told me he had hauled a man off one of the brakemen.

JOSEPH ALLEN MCPHEE, (sworn)—To Mr. Peters—I was a passenger on the train from Summerside on exhibition day. I live at Richmond and am a hostler by trade. I have lived at Richmond about 14 years. I was sober that evening, having drunk but one glass before dinner and nothing after. I had no disturbance with any person before getting off the train. I got out at the same place as Cornelius Macdonald. I looked back and saw McAttee, Felix Macdonald and the brakeman coming out of the car. They appeared to be in a hold. Cornelius Macdonald was not one of the three. Cornelius and I spoke a few words after getting out of the car, and then he started off homeward, as I supposed. I did not see Cornelius at the station again that evening. I supposed he was sober when I saw him. After Cornelius went away, I went down to where the gathering was and saw there was a row in progress. I did not know who was getting beaten. I pushed and shoved through the crowd to see what was going on, and a man put up his arms and made a box at me. I stopped the blow and struck the man who attacked me. I don't know who the man was. The crowd gathered around then and I stood back expecting the man would meet me again, but he did not. After the crowd scattered I saw one man run across the railroad track with another after him. I ran after them, and just before I reached the second person he had knocked the first down and kicked him. I caught the assailant around the body and said, "Don't kill the man." He answered, "Yes, murder the —." I held the man till the other got clear. The man who got clear was one of the train hands. The man I held was Felix Macdonald, brother to Dugald Macdonald. I know none of the others engaged in the row. I know nothing about McAttee's movements. I saw no kicks made but the one made by Felix Macdonald at the railway crossing.

To Mr. Hodgson—I don't know who it was that attempted to strike me. He was the only man that I struck. I never pulled Traill back when Barlow was trying to get him off the platform. I did not see a blow struck with the exception of what I struck myself.

JOHN MCATTEE, (sworn)—To Mr. Peters—I live at Richmond and am a tailor by trade. I was a passenger on the train from Summerside on the 16th. I had a little more liquor in me than I ought to have had. I had some trouble and was put off the train by Traill and Felix Macdonald. Cornelius Macdonald had nothing to do with putting me off. My wife and Mary Jane McPhee took me home that evening. The train had not left when we started for home. I heard the conversation on the train between Conductor Ryan and Cornelius Macdonald. I do not remember hearing Cornelius tell Ryan that he had helped Traill take me (McAttee) off the train on the evening of the row.

BRUCE BARLOW, (re-called)—To Mr. Peters—I am not positive that Joseph Allen McPhee was one of the men I saw haul Traill off the platform; nor am I positive that Joseph Allen McPhee was one of those who pulled Traill from me. I believe it was Joseph Allen McPhee that called out "Choke the —."

To the Magistrate—Joseph Allen McPhee was in the crowd. By the springs and jumps of him I thought he was in the fight.

To Mr. Hodgson—I thought Joseph Allen McPhee had hold of Traill, because he was close enough to him to do so.

To the Magistrate—Victorinus McPhee and Dugald Macdonald had hold of Traill. I think Joseph Allen McPhee went into the row to fight.

Mr. Peters said that in the cases of Cornelius Macdonald and Joseph Allen McPhee he had no more evidence to offer, and was prepared to let the cases rest as at present. In the cases of John McAttee and Dugald Macdonald he had some additional evidence, and asked for a postponement until Tuesday.

The Magistrate said he would like to have time to look into the evidence and adjourned the Court till 2.15.

In the afternoon, after Messrs. Peters and Hodgson had addressed the Court, His Honor reviewed the evidence. In the case of Cornelius Macdonald, he thought the evidence was not sufficient for conviction, and therefore ordered that he be discharged from custody. With reference to McPhee, the evidence was to the effect that he was mixed up in the row in its early stage, and that he was guilty of assault. He sentenced him to imprisonment in the common jail for one month with hard labor.

Dugald Macdonald and John McAttee were remanded till Tuesday next.

Cough medicines, Ayer's Cherry Pectoral is in greater demand than ever. No preparation for Throat and Lung Troubles is so prompt in its effects, so agreeable to the taste, and so widely known, as this. It is the family medicine in thousands of households.

"I have suffered for years from a bronchial trouble that, whenever I take cold or am exposed to inclement weather, shows itself by a very annoying tickling sensation in the throat and by difficulty in breathing. I have tried a great many remedies, but none does so well as Ayer's Cherry Pectoral which always gives prompt relief in return of my old complaint."—Ernest A. Hepler, Inspector of Public Roads, Parish Terre Bonne, La.

"I consider Ayer's Cherry Pectoral a most important remedy

For Home Use.

I have tested its curative power, in my family, many times during the past thirty years, and have never known it to fail. It will relieve the most serious affections of the throat and lungs, whether in children or adults."—Mrs. E. G. Egerly, Council Bluffs, Iowa.

"Twenty years ago I was troubled with a disease of the lungs. Doctors afforded me no relief and considered my case hopeless. I then began to use Ayer's Cherry Pectoral, and before I had finished one bottle, found relief. I continued to take this medicine until a cure was effected. I believe that Ayer's Cherry Pectoral saved my life."—Samuel Griggs, Waukegan, Ill.

"Six years ago I contracted a severe cold, which settled on my lungs and soon developed all the alarming symptoms of Consumption. I had a cough, night sweats, bleeding of the lungs, pains in chest and sides, and was so prostrated as to be confined to my bed most of the time. After trying various prescriptions, without benefit, my physician finally determined to give me Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. I took it, and the effect was magical. I seemed to rally from the first dose of this medicine, and, after using only three bottles, am as well and sound as ever."—Rodney Johnson, Springfield, Ill.
