Committee Named To Seek New Rector For New London

KENSINGTON — The annual meeting of New London Parish was held in St. Mark's Hall, Kensington Tuesday evening, with a good representation from the congregations of St. Thomas', New London; St. Stephen's, Burlington and St. Mark's.

The rector, Rev. Ronald Parsons, presided and opened the meeting with prayer. The minutes were read by the secretary, Wayne Harrington. Mrs. Horace Bryenton gave a detailed report of repairs and redecorating in the rectory, and Mr. Parsons thanked the rectory committee, the parish wardens and the Laymen's Association for the improvements made in the house.

Donald Caseley read the financial report and it was briefly discussed. Mrs. J. G. Townsend reported on the book, "The Parish of New London" by Rev. T. R. Millman. Copies have been selling through the year, and copies are still available.

William Pidgeon of St. Thomas' was elected parish warden to succeed Everett Sudsbury whose term had expired. New members were elected to the parish vestry which consists of the wardens of each church plus Everett Sudsbury and Brenton Cole of St. Stephen's, Clayton Mill of St. Mark's, and Robert Jollimore of St. Thomas'.

Delegates appointed to synod were Mr. and Mrs. John Pillman, substitute Mrs. E. Profitt. Mrs. Cecil Mill and Mrs. Gordon Cooke were re-elected to the rectory committee, and Mrs. John Moase was appointed to replace Mrs. Horace Bryenton.

The treasurer, Mrs. Donald Caseley, was re-elected. Gordon Cooke was appointed auditor.

Mr. Parsons announced that he had resigned from his duties as rector of this parish, to take effect in April.

A committee was named to confer with the bishops of the diocese for the appointment of a new rector. Members of the committee are Mr. and Mrs. John Pillman, William Pidgeon, Keith Harrington and James Jollimore.

A vote of thanks was extended to the rector.

House May Open In Feb.

There was speculation in government circles yesterday that the Legislature may open this year as early as the last of February.

While Premier Walter R. Shaw indicated recently that the House would open "early in March," some cabinet ministers are thinking in terms of late February.

Generally the House opens on a Thursday for the Speech from the Throne and adjourns for the weekend until Monday.

If this pattern is followed, the opening date may be Feb. 28 or March 7.

The treasury board is expected to begin sittings early next week to consider departmental estimates for the 1963-64 fiscal year.

Fire Chief Re-elected At Alberton

ALBERTON — Stephen Burke was reelected chief of Alberton fire department at the annual meeting Thursday night. Deputy Chief Herbert Leavitt and secretary-treasurer, Dean Carpenter were also re-elected.

Fire Chief Burke expressed satisfaction with a well just completed at the site for the new firehall. Drilled to a depth of 200 feet, the six-inch well produced 150 gallons a minute for eight hours and 130 per minute for an additional 12 hours.

Out of town fires and the payment, or lack of it, of an annual fee for rural protection was discussed.

The secretary showed colored slides showing fire protection equipment in various Ontario towns and rural areas. Following the meeting lunch was served.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL... ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

Sunday	Monday	Tuesday	Wednesday	Thursday	Friday	Saturday
Joshua 24:14-18	Joshua 24:19-25	I Samuel 2:18-26	Daniel 1:3-14	Luke 1:15-21	Luke 2:21-35	Titus 2:6-14

Our neighbor has a firm opinion about children and pets: "When a boy is old enough to assume responsibility for the care of a dog, it's time enough for him to have one."

But our Davey is growing up with his dog — his frolicking playmate today, his faithful friend and protector tomorrow.

Our neighbor has an opinion also about children and God: "When my son is able to weigh the claims of religion with a mature mind he can decide for himself whether he wants to go to Church."

What heritage would men have of Truth and Right and Freedom if each generation had not imparted its blessings to the next? It is the faith of our fathers which is ours to cherish, and to teach our children.

Let them grow up with that Christian Faith and it will have its rightful place in their lives.

Mighty Deeds of Jesus

ILLUSTRATED SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

By Alfred J. Buescher

Scripture—Mark 4:35—5:43.

At the end of His day of teaching from a boat, Christ and His disciples set out in the boat for the eastern shore of the Sea of Galilee. A storm arises and the frightened disciples waken Him; He stills the storm with a word, but rebukes them for lacking faith in Him.—Mark 4:35-41.

At the other shore a wild, demon-ridden madman who lives in the cemetery rushes toward Him. The demons within, who are legion, recognize Him. Christ orders them out of the man, whereby they enter into a flock of swine nearby and rush headlong into the sea.—Mark 5:1-20.

Back on the other side of the sea, Jesus is besought by a leading Jew named Jairus to rescue his daughter from the point of death. When Jesus arrives at Jairus' house He is met by mourners, for the girl has died. Dismissing them, He brings the girl back to life.—Mark 5:21-24, 35-43.

On His way to Jairus' house, Christ feels His garment touched. By this touch He has healed a woman ill for 12 years with a bleeding disease which had made her a social outcast, for the disease was considered retribution for sins.—Mark 5:25-34.

MEMORY VERSE:—"He went about doing good and healing all that were oppressed by the devil, for God was with him", —Acts 10:38.

MIGHTY DEEDS ARE RECORDED

Miracles Show Divine Power

(Editor's note: The following material relating to tomorrow's Sunday School lesson with scriptural references to Mark 4:35 - 5:43 is based on copyrighted outlines produced by the Division of Christian Education, National Council of Churches in the U.S. and is used by permission.)

By N. SPEER JONES

In this brief Biblical section, Mark records successive events in Christ's early ministry which illustrate His divine power to conquer the widest range of human troubles and fears. We have here four mighty deeds, or miracles, by which man is saved from (1) nature, from (2) physical illness and social ostracism, from (3) his own worst self and (4) from even death itself.

The deliverance from nature occurs in the famous stilling of the tempest (Mark 4:35-41). This takes place at the end of the day in which he has been teaching the multitude from a small boat.

The eastern shore of the Sea of Galilee is rimmed with hills, between which run some deep gulleys. The wind, coming across the plateau of eastern Palestine, is forced down these ravines, where considerable wind velocity builds up. It thus hits the water, below sea level, unevenly and this wind turbulence can create quite sudden and violent storms.

We should point out here the great naturalness of detail for which Mark is known, and which marks the narrative of Christ as history rather than fancy. Christ is tired after His day of teaching, and is "in the stern, asleep on the cushion," despite the storm.

After He quiets the storm, we catch the note of rebuke in His voice, for the disciples, in their plea for aid, had seemed to presume that it was His duty (rather than His grace) to take care of them, and further, that He was neglecting this duty. We may appeal to the Lord, but we certainly may not complain or reprove if our prayers do not seem to be answered.

This rebuke is the first in a series (see Mark 7:18, 8:17-21, 32, 33; 9:19) occasioned by lack of faith or understanding among the disciples.

In the healing of the bleeding woman, (Mark 5:25-34) we see a woman who has suffered for 12 years not only from physical discomfort but from social ostracism. In those days— and even in some societies today — such a disease was believed to be a consequence of sinful ways, and to render her unclean, and unfit for any social relationships. So she had endured 12 years of loneliness and guilt feelings. This explains why she approached Jesus so furtively.

Just as this woman had spent 12 years in misery, so the past 12 years of Jairus' life had been happy, blessed with the daughter who lies so ill. The raising of this daughter after her death is the first of five resurrections in the Gospel narratives. (The second is Christ's raising of the son of the widow of Nain (Luke 7:11-17); the third, His raising of Lazarus (John 11); the fourth, the resurrection of Christ Himself, and the fifth, the raising, after Christ's resurrection, of "many bodies of the saints that had fallen asleep" (Matthew 27:52,53).

The Jews, like other eastern peoples, hired professional mourners, Christ dispels them, partly, perhaps, to keep the father's faith from being shaken, and partly to prevent the little girl's dismay when she awoke. Notice that even most of the apostles were excluded from this miracle.

With the demoniac of Gadara, we come to an incident represented in the most graphic terms — a madman who inflicts wounds on himself, who dwells in morbidity, who is unhumbled and unsubdued, and who is afflicted with a legion of unclean spirits. The Biblical picture is graphic, as is the excorcism; yet, do we not all tremble on the verge of just such madness? Whenever we not focus our sights on God, such demons can enter in, making us our worst selves and destroying our effectiveness as Christians.

OBITUARY

Inserted by friends and relatives as a tribute to the deceased.

PETER A. MacDOUGALL

Friends and relatives on Prince Edward Island were saddened at the death in Fairbanks, Alaska, on December 7, 1962, of Peter A. MacDougall. Peter was born at Blooming Point, P.E.I. on November 3, 1902. There he spent the years of his childhood and boyhood beloved and admired by young and old. He received his early education in his district school and later in Charlottetown. He first went to Alaska in the spring of 1926.

On November 30, 1933, he married Dora Werner and settled in Fairbanks. Peter was looked upon by all his associates as the shining example of one whose Christian principles ever were the guiding forces of his every act. He was a man among men, a man whose character was that of the truly great.

One year ago he underwent surgery in Seattle, Washington, after which he enjoyed comparatively good health until a recurrence of his illness in the fall of 1962. He was a patient Christian sufferer in St. Joseph's Hospital, Fairbanks, where his hospital bed was his desk whence his example still radiated his way of life of showing people how to live and how to die. During the trying time of his illness Fr. Murphy had been his frequent visitor bringing consolation and inspiration.

His funeral was held from Immaculate Conception Church on Tuesday, December 11th, where Requiem Mass was celebrated by his pastor, Reverend Father Murphy, who also conducted the services at the grave. The church, filled to capacity, was a fitting indication of the esteem in which Peter was held. The members of Fairbanks Exploration Co., attended the funeral in a body.

The pallbearers were: Audrea Anderson, Barton King, Fredrick Weymiller, Frank Young, Bill Shaeffer, and James Baumberger.

He leaves to mourn, besides his sorrowing wife, two sons Ronald and Robert; also the following brothers and sisters, J.B., San Diego, California, Stephen, Blooming Point, Mary (Mrs. R.L. MacDonald), Blooming Point, Catherine, Cambridge, Massachusetts and Sister John Baptist, Superior Kinkora Convent, Four brothers, J.J. Victor, Donald and Leo predeceased him.

May he rest in peace.

Bible School Gets $11,000

The United Baptist Bible Training School, Moncton, N.B., has received $11,076 from the estate of David R. McRae of Campbellton, N.B. This is the largest gift in the School's history, even larger than last fall's gift of $10,000 which had been the largest to that time.

That larger gifts are being received at this time in the life of the 13-year-old school is indicative of the fact that, having passed through a time of growth, the school is now emerging from a period of consolidation as more of a real, permanent Bible school with an assured future of further development.

Recommendations passed at the recent Convention of Maritime United Baptists in Wolfville, N.S., included the setting up of three-year Bible School courses in addition to the high school and shorter lay training courses. Such three-year Bible school courses lead to certain church-related vocations or two years' credit at certain accredited colleges.
