DEATH NOTICE

MRS. J. PETER GREENAN On August 30th, 1959, after a lingering illness the soul of Mrs. Peter Greenan winged its way Heavenward to meet a just reward from a merciful Saviour whom she had served so devotedly in this world.

In her 81st year, she was born in South Melville, daughter of the late Thomas Malone and Mary Anne McGuigan. Eldest in a family of thirteen children, she was predeceased by three brothers, Joseph, Alphonse and Thomas, also two sisters, (Katie) Mrs. John Whelan, and Dorothy, who died in early girlhood.

She leaves to mourn her passing her sorrowing husband, two step-daughters, Mrs. J. Ivan Desveraux (Vonnie), Spencer, Mass., and Mrs. F. Lyman Dunsford (Dorothy) of Charlottetown, also three step-sons, James E., and Ronald J. of Charlottetown and J. Fred, of West Devon, a fact which was a good omen in her sorrow they felt in her passing. She also leaves one sister, Reta, Haverhill, Mass., and six brothers, John F., Jerome and Patrick, Haverhill, Mass., Ephraim, Morell, Philip, St. Peter's, and Anthony, Kelly's Cross.

Possessed of strong Christian principles, her home life and family were the centre of her duties, although she was a kind friend to any of her neighbours in time of any necessity, all of whom deplore her death.

In early life she went to the U.S.A. and remained there a number of years finally returning to the Island where she met and married Peter Greenan of Brae. Some years later they and family moved to South Melville and later to Charlottetown.

Before her departure from South Melville she extended her charity in giving a home to a boy from St. Vincent's Orphanage, Louis Fitzpatrick, now grown to manhood and residing in Halifax, who paid her periodical visits and showed his gratitude in coming to attend her funeral.

She died peacefully, well prepared by her good pastor, Rev. Father Roche, and Rev. Claire MacDonald, both of St. Dunstan's Basilica parish, to meet her Heavenly Judge. In her case it was: "Well done good and faithful servant."

Her funeral took place September 2nd, to St. Dunstan's Basilica where Requiem Mass was sung by Rev. Claire MacDonald who also conducted the service at the grave. Rev. James Smith, P.P., Kelly's Cross was present in the sanctuary.

The pall bearers were: Peter Toole, Elmer Dunsford, Joseph Flood, Frank J. Flood, Charles Menaghian and Emmett McQuaid; interment was in the Catholic cemetery.
