THE new 24 hour clock was placed in the Canadian Pacific Railway Company's office, Montreal, last week.

WE understand that it is the intention of the ladies of St. Joseph's Convent to hold another bazaar this year in aid of their schools, on the Exhibition days of October next.

A COLORED convict named William Baylis, of Windsor, Ont., dropped dead in the Kingston penitentiary on the 24th, while walking to the warden's office to be released on the ground of ill health.

THE next sitting of the County Court of Queen's County will be held at Charlottetown on Tuesday, the 24th day of August next. Last day for issuing summonses for said Court, Saturday, the 14th August, 1886.

IT is rumored that further honors are shortly to be conferred by the Pope on Canadian Catholic clergy, and that amongst these the title of Monsigneur will be offered to Rev. Father Sloan, of the Basilica, Ottawa.

WE are informed that there was no truth whatever in the rumor afloat yesterday with reference to the sale of Hon. L. C. Owen's property, and regret the insertion of the paragraph stating that a sale had been effected.

ON Caledonia night (Tuesday next) the Roller Rink will possess attractions of more than usual interest. A keen contest is to come off between one of our best bicyclists and a champion roller skater. Skating before the race.

THE meeting of the Cathedral congregation, called in St. Patrick's Hall on Sunday evening, for making further arrangements in the matter of the new Cathedral, was, after the transaction of some business, adjourned until further notice.

AN Ottawa despatch says: Mr. George Perkins has been awarded the contract for building certain breakwaters in the Straits of Northumberland for the improvement of the water communication between New Brunswick and Prince Edward Island.

BRODIE, the crank, who jumped from the Brooklyn Bridge, on the afternoon of the 23rd, was brought before the judge in the Tombs Court Monday and charged with attempting to commit suicide. He was bailed in $6,000 to appear again on Wednesday.

A RECENT Ottawa despatch says that an Italian named Seraglas, undergoing imprisonment for a murder committed near Cornwall, has been released on the order of the Minister of Justice, recent testimony proving his innocence. He was sentenced to be hanged but the sentence was commuted.

THE steamer Worcester, Capt. Allen, left for Boston on Monday evening at six o'clock, with a cargo of general merchandise and the following passengers:—Annie Arbing, Daniel McDonald, John Beaton, Miss Fairclough, Mrs T F Pleadwell, Johanna Murphy, Frank Dixon, Mr. D. S. Walker, Fannie McEachern.

THE passenger rates from Montreal to Vancouver have been reduced to the following figures:—Second-class, limited to nine days, $50; first-class, limited, $65; first-class, return tourist, limited to 30 days, $110; first-class, return tourist, limited to 60 days, $120; first-class tourist return limited to 90 days, $130.

ON Sabbath 25th inst., Rev. A. H. Lavers administered the ordinance of baptism to eight candidates at Long Creek. It was a delightful summer afternoon and the administration of the solemn rite in the silver waters of the Creek, filled to its verdant borders, was one of the most beautiful scenes. A very large assemblage of attentive spectators witnessed the service.

A DORCHESTER, N. B. despatch says that Daniel J. Gillis, was sentenced by the Chief Justice to ten years in the Dorchester penitentiary with hard labor, on the charge of feloniously shooting at Constable Bulmer. On the charge of escaping from jail he was sentenced to two years in the Dorchester penitentiary, the time to commence at the expiration of the ten year's sentence.

SAYS the Woodstock Sentinel: Ephraim Howe, an employe of Forepaugh's circus, entered Seaborn's restaurant, on Sunday evening, and had a lunch. He was considerable under the influence of liquor, and after partaking of his luncheon, for some reason sprang out of the open window, falling to the plank sidewalk, a distance of some 15 feet. Result: both wrists broken, a severe jaw wound, a cut lip and bruised face generally.

APPLETON'S American Encyclopædia occupies a happy medium between Chambers's Encylopædia and the Encyclopædia Britannica. Chambers's, while reliable so far as it goes, is necessarily somewhat sketchy; and the Encyclopædia Britannica contains many treatises which, however excellent, are too elaborate for the average reader. In Appleton's both extremes are avoided, as the claims of conciseness and fulness have been duly considered. The articles have been prepared by specialists, and may be regarded as reliable and fully abreast of the times. I have had occasion to consult this Encyclopædia (including the supplementary annual volumes), and can confidently recommend it as a most valuable work.—Rev. John Currie, D. D., Prof. of Oriental language in the Presbyterian College, Halifax, N. S.

THE Most Rev. J. J. Lynch, Archbishop of Toronto, is expected to arrive here in a few days. Mgr. Lynch made his first visit to the Island last year, when he came to be present at Bishop McIntyre's Silver Jubilee celebration, and was so favorably impressed that he returns to spend a few weeks with us, feeling convinced that a short conge can be much more advantageously spent here than in any other part of the Dominion. Mgr. Lynch is the senior Bishop of the Canadian Episcopate, and as such was named by the Pope to perform the ceremony of Cardinal Taschereau's investiture at Quebec on Tuesday last. During his stay on the Island His Grace will be the guest of Owen Connolly, Esq., Dundas Esplanade, whose beautiful residence and grounds running down to the water's edge afford a seclusion and tranquility more than country like.

THE Canadian bank statement for June shows an increase in public deposits over the previous month of about $400,000; in notes in circulation, $399,862, and the total liabilities to have increased $1,958,249. Loans and discounts to the public have diminished $377,000. The assets have increased $294,941.

I HAVE been a subscriber to Appleton's Annual Cyclopedia for several years—from the beginning—and find it to be one of the most inexpensive means of keeping informed upon the latest general developments and statistics in all departments of human knowledge.—A. H. MACKAY, B. A., B. Sc., F. S. Sc., London, Prin. Pictou Academy.

I HAVE for some years past, in the capacities of journalist and librarian, been compelled to resort very frequently to Encyclopedias for information; and, speaking from experience, I have no hesitation in placing APPLETON'S AMERICAN CYCLOPEDIA, in point of general usefulness, far ahead of all others.—WM. HOUSTOM, Librarian of Ontario Parliament.

SAYS the North Sydney Herald:—Some of the lobster packers on the shores of Cape Breton report a great scarcity of bait. On the southern shore lobsters are plentiful and large, while on the northern shore they are reported small. The reports of the scarcity of the locusta tribe in the P. E. Island and New Brunswick waters has caused the price to advance in the American markets fifty cents a case. The close season commences on the 1st August, when packers will have to close down until next spring.

ADVICE TO MOTHERS.—Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup should always be used when children are cutting teeth. It relieves the little sufferer at once; it produces natural, quiet sleep by relieving the child from pain: and the little shrub awakes as "bright as a button." It is very pleasant to taste. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain, regulates the bowels, and is the best known remedy for diarrhœa, whether arising from teething or other causes. Twenty-five cents a bottle. Be sure and ask for Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup, and take no other kind. feb 4 eod wk

THE market to-day was well attended and sales were brisk at the following prices:—Beef (small) 7 to 10 cts per lb. do per qtr 4 to 7 cts; mutton, 5 to 8 cts; pork (small) 6 to 8 cts; lamb, 35 to 60 cts per qtr; ham per lb, 13 to 14c; fowls, 50 cts. pair; butter (fresh) 16 to 18; do (tub) 14 to 16 cts; eggs, per dozen, 10 to 11 cts: cabbage plants, 10 cents per 100; tomato plants, 10 cents per dozen; black currants, 12 cts per quart; cherries, 10 to 12 cts per quart; red currants, 10 to 12 cts per quart; green beans, 4 cts per quart; peas, 10 cts per quart; raspberries, 16 to 18 cents.; gooseberries, 15 to 16c; black currants, 12 to 14c; flour per 100 lbs, $2.25 to $2.75; oatmeal, do, $2.30 to $2.50; oats, 34 cts; hay per 100, 50 to 55 cts; potatoes, 18 to 20c; veal, 3 to 7 cts per lb; radish per bunch, 6 cents; lobsters, 4 to 8 cts each; rhubarb, 3 to 4 cents per lb; codfish, 25 to 65 cents; mackerel, 5 to 8 cents; pigs $2.50 to $5.00 per pair.

ONE of the most remarkable religious manias of which there is any record, has broken out in Cincinnati. A number of people, who are said to be above the average in intelligence, believe that Mrs. John B. Martin, of Walnut Hills, is Christ manifest in the flesh, and that her sister, Mrs. John F. Brook, is the Holy Ghost. The followers of these two women, who are fanatics on the subject, meet at Mrs. Brook's house and worship them both. The women exert some powerful influence over their followers, several of whom have thrown up lucrative positions to serve the female Saviour of mankind. Accounting for the fact that Christ should manifest himself in a female, they say that in heaven there are no sexes, and the Saviour is as liable to appear in a woman as in a man. The movement has been going on for upwards of a year, but was not generally known owing to the fact that the two women seclude themselves, and will not be seen by any one who is not a worshipper. Exposure to public ridicule will, it is thought, bring these cranks to their senses.
