Efficient Management Gets Credit For Improved Financial Position

SUMMERSIDE BUREAU OF THE GUARDIAN
Efficient management was credited with an improved financial position of Prince County Hospital at its annual meeting last night where the financial statement indicated excess of expenses over income, while amounting to $42,000, was almost $11,000 less than for the previous year.

An interesting indication of the extension of hospital services at Summerside in the past 40 years was recalled in a reference by a lady attending the meeting who compared the approximate yearly hospital revenue of $4,000 at that time, with last year's gross income of $400,000.

General, the Duke of Connaught. After some objection to this choice of a name for the building the meeting agreed to leave the matter to the incoming board of trustees.

The annual report of President Judge Walter E. Darby who presided at the meeting, noted that last year more than 4,750 x-ray procedures were performed.

During the year, he said, 1,319 major and minor operations were performed compared with 1,115 the previous year.

The laboratory department last year made more than 23,000 tests. In this same period 711 children were born in the hospital.

HOME REPLACED
He said the former nurses home has been replaced by the most up to date nursing training school presided over by Miss M. L. Collicutt, assisted by Miss Helen Ralph and Mrs. Donald MacKay. Classes range from 15 to 20 with 14 graduates this spring, and 20 new students started training last fall. President Darby also paid tribute to the general medical, surgical, and nursing staffs for their outstanding service to the hospital and public.

Expenditures, he noted, had reached a cost of $446,557 for food, drugs, nursing, maintenance, and the expanding costs of diagnostic and treatment services.

"If you eliminate depreciation charges of $44,130 from the expenditures of 1958 the net would be $402,427 as against revenues of $424,395, or a surplus of $21,968. This is of course a very welcome change from the series of substantial deficits occurring during the previous years which nearly forced us to close our doors," said President Darby.

He pointed out, however, that this was only achieved with the assistance of approximately $20,000 donated through the Century Club and membership drives.

Mr. Allison Proffitt will be the speaker at the three services. Rev. Angus Brown, Minister.
