

Leafs And Habs Win NHL Games Saturday Night

TORONTO, Dec. 23 — (CP) — Boston Bruins, who should have been sitting ducks for Toronto Maple Leafs, extended the second-place National Hockey League club to the limit Saturday before dropping a close 3-2 decision.

The Bruins arrived just two hours before game time after a day-long train ride and tossed a chill into a crowd of 12,472 with a 2-1 second-period lead before the Leafs untangled themselves and sewed up the game with a two-goal effort within 3 1-2 minutes.

The travel-weary Bruins outskated and outplayed the Leafs for most of the first two periods. It was Turk Broda night at the Gardens and the proceedings were almost spoiled by Lynn Patrick's crew.

MONTREAL 5, CHICAGO 1
MONTREAL, Dec. 23 — (CP) — Defenceman Doug Harvey's two goals paced Montreal Canadiens to a 5-1 victory Saturday over Chicago Black Hawks before a crowd of 13,326 National Hockey League fans.

It was a wide-open game and Canadiens held a margin of the play throughout, breaking loose with three goals in the middle period.

Elmer Lach, Johnny McCormack and Bert Olmstead scored the other Montreal goals. Jimmy Peters counted for the Hawks, gobbling up a weirdly-directed pass by Montreal's Bud McPherson and blasting a shot past goalie Gerry McNeil. Canadiens were a man short at the time.
