Try Again.

I was weeping, sadly weeping,
When lo! a little child
To my side came shyly creeping,
And in my face she smiled.

At that moment I was feeling
My life was all a wreck,
When two little arms came stealing
And fastened round my neck.

Then, as I struggled to be calm,
And strove in vain to speak,
She looked at me with some alarm,
And softly kissed my cheek.

"Be quiet" she said, "lie very still,
Then I will sing to you,
Like my mamma when I was ill,
So often used to do."

And then she nestled on my breast,
As if to soothe each pang;
Her tiny hand on mine she pressed,
Awhile her song she sang.

"Oh! If at first you don't succeed,
Try, try, and try again!"—
It seemed as if the child could read
Despair was all my pain.

When "try again!" came ringing out
Encouragement it bore,
It cleared away my fear and doubt,
And gave me hope once more.

I blessed the little child, who brought
Me comfort on that day,
For peace within my heart was wrought,
Despair had passed away.
—Maud Maddick.

I am of the opinion, and very strongly, that we ought to hail every opportunity to give something for the advancement of religion, for charity, for the missionary effort of the Church, as a means of grace, a way of increasing our generosity, and of repaving our natural selfishness. Instead of suffering in ourselves any impatience with the collection-box, we ought to hail it with love and joy, remembering the blessings of the Lord on her who crept meekly to the treasury and dropped in her two mites.—Margaret E. Sangster.

The man of affluence is not in fact more happy than the possessor of a bare competence, unless in addition to his wealth, the end of his life be fortunate. We often see misery dwelling in the midst of splendour, whilst real happiness is found in humbler stations.—Sel.

The true Christian is like the sun, which pursues his noiseless track and everywhere leaves the effects of his beams in blessing upon the world around him.—Luther.

Hope Thou in God.

Oh soul by fire and tempest tried,
By shattering of thy tower,
Amid the ruins sitting down
As one despoiled of power,
Hope thou in God and hope will come,
In faith's submissive hour.

The Lord Jehovah ever reigns!
When troubles round thee swarm
Beneath the shadow of His hand
He'll shield thy trembling form.
Hope thou in God! His whispered word
Can still the wildest storm.
—Thomas Mackellar.

Onward.

Higher, higher will we climb
Up the mount of Glory,
That our names may live through time
In our country's story:
Happy, when their welfare calls,
He who conquers, he who falls.

Deeper, deeper, let us toil
In the mines of knowledge;
Nature's wealth and learning's oil
Win from school and college;
Delve we there for richer gems
Than the stars of diadems,

Onward, onward, may we press
Through the path of duty;
Virtue is true happiness,
Excellence true beauty,
Minds are of celestial birth;
Make we, then, a heaven of earth.
—James Montgomery.

ONLY FOUR BOXES

of Dodd's Kidney Pills Were Needed to Cure Mr. Willis.

Woodstock, Ont., Apr. 3.—There are many Woodstock people who owe their good health, and others who are indebted for their lives, to Dodd's Kidney Pills.

Among the former is Mr. Nasa Willis, 205 Dundas Street, who has recently made his story public.

"For several years," says Mr. Willis, "I have suffered from Kidney Troubles, pain in the small of my back, etc. I got slight relief from some of the various medicines I used. My son, who was cured by Dodd's Kidney Pills, urged me to try them. I did so. I used four boxes and can safely say I am cured."

The start—The moralist—Man proposes and—The married—Yes, and that's where the trouble begins.

Chronic Eczema Cured.

One of the most chronic cases of Eczema ever cured is the case of Miss Gracie Ella Alton, of Hartland, N. B. On a sworn statement Mr. Alton says: "I hereby certify that my daughter Gracie Ella was cured of Eczema of long standing by using four boxes of Dr. Chase's Ointment, William Thistle, druggist, of Hartland also certifies that he sold four boxes of Dr. Chase's Ointment which cured Gracie Ella."

"They say marriage is a failure."
"There's a great difference."
"Why?"
"In marriage the wife takes the husband's name, and in a failure the husband takes the wife's name."

"Ah," he cried, kneeling at her feet, "say you will marry me, and I will be your devoted slave for life."
"Arise, Henry," she answered, "you will not do. That was what my first husband said, and before we had got fairly out of the church he began telling me how he wanted me to wear my hair."

Minard's Liniment Cures Dandruff.

More stories are being invented about Dreyfus. Here is the latest: The Libre Parole asks if it is true that, on the day of President Faure's death, the German Emperor intervened in favor of Dreyfus and against Esterhazy, and brought pressure to bear upon the President. The Prince of Monaco acted, it says, as the Emperor's intermediary, and the Prince afterwards stated openly that he had left M. Faure in an indescribable state of alarm.
