RIOT AT POLLS
RAWALPINDI, Pakistan, (AP)—Ten villagers were killed and many others were injured as rival supporters clashed during a local election campaign in the village of Kirpa, police announced Monday. Sticks, swords, rifles and even a hand grenade were used in the rioting which started with a scuffle around a polling booth.

HE LEARNED FAST
DETROIT, (CP)—Ronald Jolly, aged 7, decided Monday he was old enough to drive his dad's car. A few minutes and two blocks later, he decided he wasn't. The boy found a hidden key, started the car and managed to make one left turn before he ran into the rear of a parked truck. His dad was away at the ball game.
