Confederation Centre Praised During Study

Problems associated with the cultural upsurge in Canada are the basis of a study by Archie F. Key of the Canadian Museums Association, in Charlottetown on the first leg of a nationwide survey for the association.

Four major problems, for which Mr. Key and his wife, Marjorie, are attempting to find solutions, are the financing of art galleries; the shortage of trained staff; supplying of galleries; and co-ordination of museum activities for Canada's Centennial Year.

Mr. Key said Confederation

Three Persons Charged Of Disorderly, Drunk Charges

Three persons charged with being drunk and disorderly were fined in city police court Saturday. Magistrate A. J. Haslam, Q.C.

Raymond Wakelin, Charlottetown, was fined $30 and costs or 15 days; and Francis Cudmore, New Westshore and John Sterling Gass, Cornwall, were each fined $25 and costs or 10 days.

The case of Leslie Alfred Atteck, Charlottetown, charged with assault of Bart Brink, R.C.N., was adjourned to Dec. 10. Mr. Brink suffered a broken jaw, broken ankle, slight concussion and loss of four teeth.

Also adjourned to Dec. 10 was the case of Malcolm J. MacMillan, Parkdale, charged with driving a motor vehicle with defective brakes.

The firm of Allison MacLeod, Charlottetown, was fined $10 and costs for allowing a person to use dealers plates for private use.

Forrest Carlyle Fall was fined $10 and costs for failing to return his driver's licence at the request of the Motor Vehicle Department.

Two persons were each fined $20 and costs or 30 days for illegal possession of liquor, and one person was fined $20 and costs or 10 days for being drunk and incapable.

There is apparently little or no dispute that the Phantom is a more powerful and all-around better aircraft than any of the others under consideration.

But defence department authorities argue that the intended role - close support for the army, land-based or carrier-based - both can be carried out by a much cheaper plane. They say it is folly to spend an enormous amount on a strike plane unless it is intended to carry nuclear warheads.

Production of the Phantom would spread more work through the aircraft industry than if a cheaper plane were acquired.

Thus the crux of the cabinet's discussion is believed to be a choice between economic and defence policy.

Commission Report Likely By Next Week

The Royal Commission on the financing of higher education in the province will likely present its report to the government by the end of this week, commission chairman Rev. Dr. J.S. Bonnell said recently.

Dr. Bonnell, who arrived in the province from New York City Wednesday, is meeting with other members of the commission here before his return to New York.

Since the end of September, he has been on a lecturing and preaching mission, and has served as supply minister for Riverside Church, New York City.

Other members of the commission are Dr. J.A. MacMillan and Dr. Norman MacKenzie, past president of the University of British Columbia.

Fire Department Answers 27 Calls

ALBERTON - Alberton firemen responded to 27 calls so far this year it was learned at the regular meeting of the department in the fire hall recently.

Eighteen were in the town and nine outside with the total property loss estimated at $24,000. Fire Chief Herbert Leavitt said.

Appreciation was expressed in the local telephone operators for their co-operation over the years.

Unauthorized persons have caused the fire departments in Tisbury, Alberton and O'Leary to make unnecessary trips to fires outside their areas where little could be done when they arrived, and the secretary, Dean Carpenter, was asked to notify Tisbury and O'Leary of the responsibility to calls from a fire chief or a person authorized by the chief to call for outside assistance.

It was decided to hold a firemen's banquet on the date of the annual meeting. The banquet will be a short outline on the work of the provincial fire safety council by the fire chief the meeting adjourned followed by lunch.

New Minister From England Has Charge Here

SUMMERSIDE - Rev. Frederick Lloyd will take his pastorate in the Princeton Unitarian Church of the United Church this week.

Mr. Lloyd, who emigrated this month from England, served until recently as minister of the Methodist Church in Bedford, England. He is married and the father of two children. His family is accompanying him to this country and they will take up residence in the manse, Central St.

Wednesday evening of this week the Presbytery of Prince Edward Island will hold a service of introduction for Mr. Lloyd in the Princeton United Church, Summerside. The chairman of the Presbytery, Rev. Isaac L. Walls of Cornwall, will conduct the service, assisted by Rev. L.M. Murray of Kensington and Rev. Dr. C.R. Webber of Trinity United Church, Summerside. Rev. John G.E. Ball of Trinity United Church, Charlottetown, will preach the sermon.

A reception following the service will give members and friends of the congregation the opportunity to meet Mr. Lloyd. Mr. Lloyd will be stated presbytery supply of the charge until the end of June 1965.

Issue Horror Posters

The department's campaign includes posters showing dead bodies and wrecked cars in former Christmas accidents.

But Prime Minister Harold Wilson had to defend Transport Minister Thomas Stewart in the House of Commons Tuesday from attacks by two of his own Labour members over the campaign.

The members said Stewart gave the impression it was safe for a driver to follow a "rule of three" - that is, quite all right for motorists to drive after taking three small whiskeys, three half-pints of beer or one-third of a bottle of wine.

PARK IS PROJECT ST THOMAS, Ont. (CP) - A centennial park, named for wartime Ontario Premier Mitchell F. Hepburn, is the project for this city. The park also will have a sculpture group commissioned from former St. Thomas resident, Rebecca Siler. The sculpture will depict a bull, a glaucous and a singer. Hepburn died near here in 1953.
