MEMORANDA.
THREE SCHOONERS WRECKED - MEN DROWNED - A telegram received on Saturday by Mr. H. W. Johnston of the Marine and Fisheries Department, states that three schooners, "L'Esperance," Capt. Bourgoyne, from Halifax for the Magdalen Islands, is stranded at Chimney Corner, C. B., and will be a total wreck. Five of the crew were lost, and but very little of the cargo has been saved. The schr. "Active" while on the same voyage with a general cargo, went ashore at Margaree. The crew and cargo were saved. Another trader, whose name is unknown, is a wreck at Broad Cove. The crew were all lost and the cargo was only partly saved. The despatch also says that it is reported that another schooner, stranded at Mars Head, but there are no particulars. - He, Paper.
The Summerside Journal says - The Adeline, owned by Mr. Major Clarke, of this town, was lost in the last snow storm. We have not been able to ascertain the quarter of the straits where the sad event happened, but we learn from a telegraphic despatch that all the crew, and the vessel, were drowned. Mr. Daniel Campbell of Cape Traverse, was captain, and his father Mr. Neil Campbell of the same place was one of the hands on board at the time of the disaster. The body of one of the crew, D. McGinnis, has been found and buried. The whole crew belonged, we hear, to Cape Traverse. As there was no insurance on the Adeline, her loss falls wholly on the owner.
THE GALE AT ARCHAET - There was a hurricane from South East to West at Archaet, C. B., on the 16th and 17th inst. The schr. G. W. Lytle, of South P. E. I., received considerable damage to her bottom, and broke windlass, stanchion, and stern and stern-post. The schr. Megonia, lying at Mr. Isadore LeBlanc's wharf, broke from her moorings and put her jibboom through Mr. Maximian Forest's store. The brig. Catherine is ashore at Archaet West. - He, Chron.
We hear that a vessel named Chatham, No. 4, with green bottom, was picked up on the North Shore, near St. Peter's Bay, on Monday. There was no ballast or cargo aboard, and she appears to have turned completely over as some of the mast hoops are jammed under the rigging aloft on the mainmast. A stove and a homespun jacket with horn buttons on it were found in the vessel.
The new brigette Clava, launched in P. E. Island in September, was wrecked at Crow Island, Cape Canso, on the night of the 21st inst. She was on the voyage from Liverpool, C. B., to P. E. Island, with ballast and is probably a total loss. - He, Chron.
Schr. Ellen, 48 tons, of Cardigan, P. E. I., from Georgetown for Pictou, in ballast, is ashore at Cardigan. Not insured. It is expected she will be got off.
By telegram to Peake Bros. & Co., S. S. Prince Edward arrived at New Orleans, on the 24th inst., making the run in 11 days from Pictou.
Schr. Minnie Cronan, Fraser, of Halifax, is ashore at Tracadia, N. S. She was bound from that port to this Island.
Barquentine (Gen. Bowers), M. Tano, of Charlottetown, for Plymouth or orders, with 26,000 bushels of oats, by Peake Bros. & Co.
Brig Olga cleared on the 23rd inst., for Penarth for orders, with 20,500 bushels of oats by Peake Bros. & Co.
Barque Moseley cleared on the 25th inst., for Plymouth for orders, with 30,000 bushels of oats by Peake Bros. & Co.
Brig Lonic cleared on the 27th inst., for Queenstown for orders, with 20,000 bushels of oats by Peake Bros. & Co.
The Ship Duncan is reported to be again aground in the Straits of Canso. - Herald.

MEMORANDA.
THREE SCHOONERS WRECKED - MEN DROWNED - A telegram received on Saturday by Mr. H. W. Johnston of the Marine and Fisheries Department, states that three schooners, "L'Esperance," Capt. Bourgoyne, from Halifax for the Magdalen Islands, is stranded at Chimney Corner, C. B., and will be a total wreck. Five of the crew were lost, and but very little of the cargo has been saved. The schr. "Active" while on the same voyage with a general cargo, went ashore at Margaree. The crew and cargo were saved. Another trader, whose name is unknown, is a wreck at Broad Cove. The crew were all lost and the cargo was only partly saved. The despatch also says that it is reported that another schooner, stranded at Mars Head, but there are no particulars. - He, Paper.
The Summerside Journal says - The Adeline, owned by Mr. Major Clarke, of this town, was lost in the last snow storm. We have not been able to ascertain the quarter of the straits where the sad event happened, but we learn from a telegraphic despatch that all the crew, and the vessel, were drowned. Mr. Daniel Campbell of Cape Traverse, was captain, and his father Mr. Neil Campbell of the same place was one of the hands on board at the time of the disaster. The body of one of the crew, D. McGinnis, has been found and buried. The whole crew belonged, we hear, to Cape Traverse. As there was no insurance on the Adeline, her loss falls wholly on the owner.
THE GALE AT ARCHAET - There was a hurricane from South East to West at Archaet, C. B., on the 16th and 17th inst. The schr. G. W. Lytle, of South P. E. I., received considerable damage to her bottom, and broke windlass, stanchion, and stern and stern-post. The schr. Megonia, lying at Mr. Isadore LeBlanc's wharf, broke from her moorings and put her jibboom through Mr. Maximian Forest's store. The brig. Catherine is ashore at Archaet West. - He, Chron.
We hear that a vessel named Chatham, No. 4, with green bottom, was picked up on the North Shore, near St. Peter's Bay, on Monday. There was no ballast or cargo aboard, and she appears to have turned completely over as some of the mast hoops are jammed under the rigging aloft on the mainmast. A stove and a homespun jacket with horn buttons on it were found in the vessel.
The new brigette Clava, launched in P. E. Island in September, was wrecked at Crow Island, Cape Canso, on the night of the 21st inst. She was on the voyage from Liverpool, C. B., to P. E. Island, with ballast and is probably a total loss. - He, Chron.
Schr. Ellen, 48 tons, of Cardigan, P. E. I., from Georgetown for Pictou, in ballast, is ashore at Cardigan. Not insured. It is expected she will be got off.
By telegram to Peake Bros. & Co., S. S. Prince Edward arrived at New Orleans, on the 24th inst., making the run in 11 days from Pictou.
Schr. Minnie Cronan, Fraser, of Halifax, is ashore at Tracadia, N. S. She was bound from that port to this Island.
Barquentine (Gen. Bowers), M. Tano, of Charlottetown, for Plymouth or orders, with 26,000 bushels of oats, by Peake Bros. & Co.
Brig Olga cleared on the 23rd inst., for Penarth for orders, with 20,500 bushels of oats by Peake Bros. & Co.
Barque Moseley cleared on the 25th inst., for Plymouth for orders, with 30,000 bushels of oats by Peake Bros. & Co.
Brig Lonic cleared on the 27th inst., for Queenstown for orders, with 20,000 bushels of oats by Peake Bros. & Co.
The Ship Duncan is reported to be again aground in the Straits of Canso. - Herald.
