Anglican Rector Fired

Rt. Rev. A. Beverley

Rev. H.A. Cox

Rev. H. Garbutt

Centre of a religious controversy for several months, Rev. H.W. Garbutt, rector of St. Barnabas' Anglican church in Toronto, has been removed from his parish after eight years of ministry, by Rt. Rev. A.R. Beverley, Anglican bishop of Toronto. A special synod commission investigated by Bishop Beverley to investigate the situation unanimously agreed to Rev. Garbutt's removal, citing that the minister "feels no responsibility to his parishioners, and has refused to minister to some of those who are opposed to him and is quite content that they should depart from his jurisdiction." Rev. Hubert Cox has been temporarily assigned to take over the deposed minister's duties.
