PERSONALITIES.

John B. Duke, the millionaire cigarette maker, says that he never smoked cigarettes in his life.

Herbert Gladstone declares that the story recently published that his father had learned to ride a bicycle is a hoax. The tallest policeman in the world is said to be William O. Robinson of Knoxville, Ia., who is 7 feet 11 inches in height.

Albert Abeille, a brother of the man whom Edward Parker Deacon shot in Nice a few years ago, recently blew out his brains in Paris.

S. F. Smith, who was recently elected mayor of Davenport, Ia., is the eldest son of the late Dr. S. F. Smith, the author of "America."

Carmen Sylva has received the decoration for arts and science from the emperor of Austria. She is the first woman to win this distinction.

It is said in London that the young Duke of Manchester, whom rumor has reported engaged to so many different girls, will really wed the eldest daughter of William Waldorf Astor.

Norway's storking has voted a lump sum of 4,000 kroner ($1,080) each to Nansen's 12 companions and 3,000 kroner a year for five years to Captain Svendrup, who is to command the next expedition in the Fram, planned for 1898.

Coningsby Disraeli, Lord Beaconsfield's nephew and heir, has not fulfilled the promise of his political debut. He has cut no figures in the political world and is temporarily rescued from oblivion only by his marriage to a Miss Silva in London.

Miss Edie Ramage, the young English woman whose marriage to a Spaniard, Don Francisco de Paulo Osorio, was recently celebrated, posed as a child for Millais and was the original of his famous "Cherry Ripe," which has met with such universal admiration.

Sir John Bowring used to tell several stories about the peculiar conscientiousness of some of the Scotch voters. One of them said to him during a canvass, "If you don't believe in the Trinity and wish us to vote for you we must have 10 shillings a head instead of 5."

Pope Leo XIII recently received a summons from a notary in Syngos, Hungary, informing him that $10 had been left him by a priest named Anton Syurky and telling him to come and claim the bequest and to bring with him the official fee of 5 florins and 75 kreutzers.

Surveyor Welsh of the port of Kansas City ought to be a happy and contented man. Both he and his wife trace their ancestry back to the nobility of the old world, and Mr. Welsh is entitled to wear five coats of arms and Mrs. Welsh has inherited three. Moreover, they are the proud possessors of a sofa 125 years old.

STAGE GLINTS.

Lee Harrison has been engaged for "The Whirl of the Town."

"Secret Service" is booked for four weeks at the London Adelphi theater.

Charles Dickson may star next season under management of Edward Owings Towne.

Maud Edna Hall will go with Morosco's San Francisco company for the summer.

Wilton Lackaye and his company have commenced rehearsals of "The Royal Secret," to be presented next season.

Moriz Rosenthal, the pianist, who sailed for Europe recently, will return in the autumn for 100 concert appearances under the management of Henry Wolfsohn.

Herbert Gresham may retire from Augustin Daly's company at the end of the present season. Marie St. John retired recently and Edith Crane joined the company.

The New Zealand newspapers are full of enthusiastic praise of Cora Urquhart Potter, Kyrle Bellew and their company. Their tour on the island has been phenomenally successful.

Lillian Blauvelt, the American concert singer, has been engaged to sing the part of the Forest Bird in the Barreuth performance of "Siegfried." She will sail for Europe on June 2.

Laura Burt has been engaged to play the leading part in the forthcoming production of "The Widow Goldstein," which is to follow Chauncey Olcott at the Fourteenth Street theater, New York.

Mme. Modjeska, according to advices from Count Bozenta, is at her California ranch, greatly improved in health. She expects, if unable to play the whole of next season, to appear for a week or two weeks at a time.

HOMELY HINTS.

Window shopping is poverty's fair.

Stolen things are apt to be greased.

Grasping money makes woefully tired hands.

Honesty is the easiest sort of thing to counterfeit.

A willing cent goes farther than a sulky dollar.

Of all the animals, man is the only born ingrate.

Wisdom often aches to introduce parents to their children.

Adversity does not harden men. It takes prosperity to do that.

Most of us have some occasion to envy the man that can respect himself.

The trouble with the horn of plenty is that most folks neglect to plug up the small end.—New York Telegram.

Get the Best

The public are too intelligent to purchase a worthless article a second time, on the contrary they want the best! Physicians are virtually unanimous in saying Scott's Emulsion is the best form of Cod Liver Oil.
