

Red Wings Beat Canadiens Sat.

By THE CANADIAN PRESS
The fired-up Toronto Maple Leafs gained a little ground Saturday in their dogged climb from the National Hockey League basement, winding up tied 3-3 with the second-place New York Rangers after blowing a 2-0 first-period edge.

Elsewhere in the NHL Saturday, the Detroit Red Wings looked more like the world champions of a few seasons back, rapping in six quick goals to beat the first-place Montreal Canadiens 2-1 at Montreal.

In the afternoon at Boston, the Bruins and the Chicago Black Hawks also finished in a dead heat 2-2, although Boston at one point held a 2-0 lead.

In the Toronto game, Dick Duff and Frank Mahovlich built the Leafs' early lead. Red Sullivan made 17 of six minutes later and New York despatched the team 2-0 on Camille Henry's second-period goal. Bob Pulford got the last Toronto goal with two minutes remaining in the second and Don Premeaux ruined the Toronto victory with the tying goal at less than two minutes of the final stanza.

Montreal, Bernie Geoffroy got the Hab's only goal late in the second period. Kennedy's odd shot struck the ice two feet in front of Jacques Plante and boomed into the net.

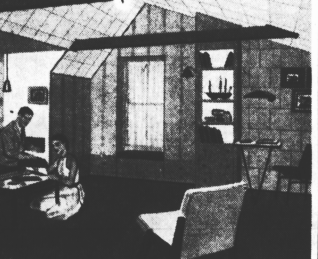

At Boston, Leo Labine and Allen Stanley sent the Bruins into a 2-0 lead in the first period but Bob Bailey batted in a rebound in the second to make it 2-1.

In the third period, rookie Bob Hull, 18, pounced on the puck in front of the Boston net after it struck Boston defenceman Doug Mohns and flipped it past Bruins netminder Don Simmons.

Chicago goalie Glenn Hall turned aside a dozen shots in the final two minutes as Boston tried desperately to score the winning margin.
