Important Announcement!

A Grand Treat for Subscribers to The Examiner.

THE GREATEST WORLD'S FAIR BOOK IS READY!

We take pleasure in announcing that we have made arrangements with the publishers of

to supply this celebrated work in Weekly Parts to our subscribers at the very low price of TEN CENTS per number. It will be issued in sixteen consecutive Weekly Parts, each containing sixteen to twenty magnificent Photographic Views and Historical Descriptions of the WORLD'S FAIR and the MIDWAY PLAISANCE, by the famous American Author, MR. J. W. BUEL. The Photographs are the finest that have ever been offered to the public. They constitute a splendid series of in NATURAL PHOTOGRAPH COLOR, embracing all the wonderful features of the World's Fair and its surroundings, and the famous MIDWAY PLAISANCE, with its curious and interesting character sketches of life in foreign countries and among wild and curious races of people.

IT IS The Greatest, The Grandest, The Most Beautiful, The Only Complete

History of the Fair that has been published. The Photographs, in natural colors, are while the historical descriptions give the work a value beyond all computation. The author spent nearly the whole summer at the Fair, preparing his notes and superintending the work of the corps of artists employed in taking views. These pictures are the finest in existence. They were taken by trained artists of more than national reputation, who knew how to secure the best results and the most favorable points of view. Their beauty and splendor will be a surprise to our readers. Nothing equal to them has ever been seen in pictorial representations; and the fact that they were obtained especially for THE MAGIC CITY, and will not be made common by promiscuous publication in other works, adds a hundredfold to their value.

There are other World's Fair Series being issued, cheap, unreliable, garbled affairs, but the price charged for them is no lower than for the magnificent "WHITE CITY" Series. You only need to compare the specimen of "MAGIC CITY" with other books to show you that the "MAGIC CITY" will sweep the field and over-run the business being done by these inferior World's Fair Series in the field now.

The Examiner Always Gets the Best!

Watch Our Advertising Column for the Announcement of the First Grand Portfolio of "THE MAGIC CITY."

THE AMERICAN

$8.00 Typewriter.

This is a well-made, practical machine, writing capitals, small letters, figures, and punctuation marks (71 in all) on full width paper, just like a $100 instrument. It is the first of its kind ever offered at a popular price for which the above claim can be truthfully made. It is not a toy, but a typewriter built for and capable of REAL WORK. While not as rapid as the large machines sometimes become in expert hands, it is still at least as rapid as the pen, and has the advantage of such simplicity that it can be understood and mastered almost at a glance. We cordially commend it to helpful parents and teachers everywhere.

Writes capitals, small letters, figures and marks—71 in all. Writes just like a $100 machine. No Shift Keys. No Ribbon. Prints from the type direct. Prints on flat surface. Writing always in sight. Corrections and insertions easily made. Takes any width of paper or envelope up to 8 1/2 inches.

Packed securely in handsome case and expressed to any address on receipt of price, $8.00, in registered letter, money order or certified check. We guarantee every machine, and are glad to answer all inquiries for further information as to this machine and also the "Yost."

THE CHEROKEE STRIP.

The government will fix no date for the grand rush to get out of the Cherokee strip.—Detroit Tribune.

The man who goes down to the strip to sell real estate instead of to mine them will make the most money.—Topska Journal.

All this to gain possession of land for which the settlers must pay from $2 to $5 per acre, and on which they must reside for five years before obtaining a title.—Chicago Dispatch.

It was not because the government was a bungler, but because a great many people were misled by the Cherokee agents turned out to be a big lunko game.—St. Louis Post-Dispatch.

A contest between dollars would be just as normal as the wild and brutal physical struggle lately witnessed. If the government has any more land to throw open, let it be sold.—Philadelphia Inquirer.

Swages alone could think that there was no better way of allotting something of value than appointing a day on which everybody having it was to be allowed to make a grand rush for it.—Rochester Union.

It is clear from the conditions attending the first move made toward the settlement of the Cherokee strip that many of the boomers will be worse off in a short time than they are now.—Baltimore American.

This is the way modern history is making itself in this continent, and as one glances back into the old order of evolution in the growth of commonwealths in the past seems strangely inanimate.—Boston Globe.

The scramble across the frontier—"every man for himself, and the devil take the hindmost"—was barbarous, though perhaps typical of methods largely characteristic of this rushing century of ours.—Boston Herald.

Secret marriages are in every country in Europe considered illegal.

The Greek church employs two rings in the marriage ceremony—one of gold, the other of silver.

A hundred years ago, when the bride had a fortune, the newspapers stated that fact and gave also the amount.

In Samoa the bride wears a wreath of flowers, a dress of coral netting, and has her face colored with kumala.

Wedding rings engraved with the device of a heart and two clasped hands have been found in Egyptian tombs dated B. C. 2000.

In most churches of England a ring is given to the bride at the altar, and is a pledge of the solemnity of the marriage.

The white ribbons and favors used at weddings—"only an emblem of the time when the bride's garters were cut up into its bits and distributed among the young men and women present for good luck."

In one country district of Germany "pay credits" were in vogue as late as the present century, each guest paying for his entertainment as much as he would at an ordinary dinner.

At the wedding of George III a happy air in their new home.

Queen Victoria has grown so lame that she has given up her habit of always standing after dinner in the gallery at Windsor and sits in an armchair. Those who are near her or may be speaking to her sit down also.

The latest report about the German emperor is to the effect that he proposes to be crowned in Berlin next year. In that event there will be a splendid ceremony, at which all the crowned heads of the fatherland and other royalties will be present.

Scanderberg, king of Albania, who lived in the fifteenth century, was reputed the strongest man of his time. He was a man of great stature, and the power of his arm was such that he thought nothing of cutting two men in halves with one single blow of his sword.

Natural Phenomena. In the Henry mountains in southern Utah is a mound covered with giant ferns. Perfect prisms of selenite 5 feet long are found there.

Mount Kinross, which rises precipitously 700 feet out of Mooschoed lake, Maine, is wholly composed of hornstone and is the largest mass of that mineral in the known world.

VASSALS OF VENUS.

William B. Hornblower says that he has seen his success in life to his habit of taking advantage of every opportunity that offered.

Occur Wilde is reported to have grown very big and fat and untidy as to appearance.

Joseph Pulitzer has purchased the Cunningham estate on Bay Shore harbor, Mont. Desert, containing seven acres, and will build a handsome cottage on it.

Mr. Eugene Higgins is the richest bachelor in New York. He is said to be worth $2,000,000, and Ward McAllister says he is probably the most luxurious unmarried man in America.

Alvinza Hayward, the retired San Francisco millionaire, was in youth a farmer's "black boy" in northern New York and received, at $1,000 and a "freedom suit" as his start in life.

The sole survivor of General Fremont's famous expedition is General W. F. Swaney, who was a boy clerk at Sutter's Fort in 1845, and was the youngest officer on General Fremont's staff.

Dr. Frederick Andros of Mitchell, S. D., claims to be the first authorized practitioner of medicine not only in Dubuque, but also in the immediate region west of the Mississippi river to the Pacific and north of the Missouri river.

Judge Robert S. Hedlin of Alabama, who served in the First South and Forty-fifth congresses, boasts that his expenses during the 13 months of his two terms were not over $20 a month, and that he returned to his home with $2,000 out of his two years' salary.

The richest man in the island of St. Christopher is Joaquin Ferrara, who went there a banished Portuguese boy of 16 and began working for a sailing day. Now he is 51 years old and owns $1,000,000 worth of real estate on the island. It is said that he can neither read nor write.

Lord Rothschild sets an example to less fortunate financiers in business regularity. He most frequently travels to town by the Great Eastern train at 8 a. m. in the morning, leaving Euston at 9:35 and reaches his desk comfortably by 10. He is therefore breakfasting quite as early as the majority of his clerks.

PULPIT AND PEW.

Church vestmenters are still sold to the highest bidder in some parts of England.

The Rev. Dr. John R. Paxton of New York, whose health has been critically impaired the last few months, has returned to his pulpit.

Chaplain Milburn speaks slowly in mellow and resonant tones, and his diction is eloquent. Though the religious preacher is 70 years old, he is an active, self-reliant man.

Dr. Lyman Abbott has issued a new tract, "The Sermon," which has been at work for three years. The work contains 600 hymns and will be used by Plymouth church.

The religious census of Australia, just completed, shows a total population of 3,000,000. The population of the United States is 70,000,000. The population of the British Empire is 350,000,000.

HOUSEHOLD HINTS.

When corks are too large to go into a bottle, throw them into hot water a few minutes, and they will soften.

Never scrub oilcloth, but wash it with a soft rag. Use neither hot nor very cold, but lukewarm water, and no soap.

Greasy juices are said to be a great clarifier of skins and remover of freckles as it is a cleanser of linen from fruit and wine stains.

When the most of walnuts has become too dry, let the kernels stand in milk and water over night. They will then be as fresh as when new.

Insects may be destroyed with hot alum. Put in hot water and let it boil until the alum is dissolved. Apply hot with a brush, and all creeping things are instantly destroyed without danger to human life or injury to property.

Flower and Tree. Experiments have shown that the common sunflower extracts 15 ounces of water in 24 hours.

Catarrh, Heart Failure, Paralysis of the Throat

"I thank God and Hood's Sarsaparilla for Perfect Health."

"Gentlemen: For the benefit of suffering humanity I wish to state a few facts: For several years I have suffered from catarrh and heart failure, gaining so bad I could not work and could scarcely walk. I had a very bad spell of paralysis of the throat some time ago. My throat seemed closed and I could not swallow. The doctors said it was caused by heart failure, and gave medicine which I took according to directions, but it did not seem to do me any good. My wife urged me to try Hood's Sarsaparilla, and I did so. Mr. Joseph C. Smith, who had been cured of his throat trouble, had been entirely cured by Hood's Sarsaparilla. After taking with me some, I concluded to try Hood's Sarsaparilla. When I had taken two bottles I felt very much better. I have continued taking it, and am now feeling excellent. I thank God, and but was entirely cured by Hood's Sarsaparilla. After taking with me some, I concluded to try Hood's Sarsaparilla. When I had taken two bottles I felt very much better. I have continued taking it, and am now feeling excellent. I thank God, and Hood's Sarsaparilla and my wife for my restoration to perfect health." HARVEY REED, Laceyville, O.

Hood's Sarsaparilla is a pure, healthy, and reliable medicine, and is the best for all kinds of blood diseases.
