John Ford's "The Quiet Man" Mailed As Screen Masterpiece

IRELAND SHARES HONORS WITH WAYNE AND O'HARA IN GREAT ROMANTIC HIT

A superb screen masterpiece which skillfully combines a powerful romantic theme with dynamic and roaring action, Republic's widely heralded John Ford production of the Maurice Walsh story, "The Quiet Man", reaches the screen of the Prince Edward Theatre today in a blaze of magnificent Technicolor as impressive mounting for the talents of its top-ranking stars, John Wayne, Maureen O'Hara and Barry Fitzgerald. The strongly etched characterizations of the cast, which also includes such notable players as Ward Bond, Victor McLaglen, Mildred Natwick, Francis Ford and a group of famous Abbey Theatre players, become an indelible imprint against the authentic background of Ireland where much of the picture was filmed. This is said to be the first American feature motion picture to be filmed on Eire's "wild and scenic" and picturesque countryside in color is a moving painting.

Man, portrayed by Wayne, finds nothing but turmoil from the moment of his arrival with the engagement featuring a momentous battle over the dowry of his Irish bride, portrayed by Miss O'Hara, with her ruthless relative, Victor McLaglen. Throughout the turbulent atmosphere flows the canny and comic romantic maneuverings of lovable Barry Fitzgerald in the role of the marriage broker. Riotous Climax A terrific battle, with no holds barred between Wayne and McLag-

The ship loaded a cargo here about seven years ago. It was taken in port by the parade pilot Temple Gotta Town and his assistant, Victor Rafuse. Loading operations are expected to be completed by Monday.

Coronation Day Plans For Geo'Town

*At a special meeting of the Mayor and Council and representatives of various organizations held in the Council Chambers on Saturday, May 23rd, plans were finalized for the Coronation Day observance at Georgetown.

His Worship Mayor Andrew MacNeill presided. It was decided that the parade would form up at the Town Hall at 1:30 p.m., with a Parade Marshal in charge. Two pipers and a standard bearer will lead the parade, which will include the Mayor and Town Council, Canadian Legion, Ladies' Auxiliary of the Canadian Legion, Boy Scouts, Reserve Army, school children and citizens.

The route of the parade, which will start at the Town Hall, is south on Kent Street to Richmond, thence west to West Street and along West Street to Water, then eastward on Water Street to Victoria Street, along the length of Victoria to Gordon Street, then west to Kent and return to the Town Hall. At the Hall, short speeches by several people, including the Mayor and clergymen, will be heard. At the conclusion of the speeches, several appropriate films will be shown, followed by a re-broadcast of the speech by Her Majesty. At the end of the address the children will be treated to ice cream by the Town.

The evening's programme will commence with a Boy Scout Council Fire in the Park at 8:30 p.m. The Council Fire will be a colorful and interesting ceremony and will conclude with a monster bonfire. Later in the evening a picture show will be held in the Town Hall, followed by a free dance. It is planned to decorate a section of several blocks of Kent Street, as well as the interior of the Town Hall. Coronation flags have been obtained and will be distributed to the school children. It is hoped that all citizens will decorate their homes and illuminate them on Coronation night.

*KING COLE TEA ALWAYS at flavour point.
