MRS. CHARLES WESLEY SHELDON
(Inserted by the family)

Another link with the past was severed in the death of Mrs. Charles Wesley Sheldon of Millview in the Prince Edward Island Hospital on Wednesday, January 19, 1966 at the age of 90 years. The late Mrs. Sheldon was the former Josephine Ann MacMillan, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Alexander MacMillan of Belfast.

Following the death of her husband in 1937, Mrs. Sheldon resided with her son Ralph on the homestead farm until about ten years ago when she went to live with her daughter, Marie and her husband Irving Tweedy at Vernon River. Besides her son Ralph and her daughter Marie, she leaves to mourn her passing another daughter, Leslie Jenkins of Malden, Mass., widow of the late Percy W. Jenkins and two brothers, Austin MacMillan now of Charlottetown and Ambrose MacMillan of South Portland, Maine and a host of friends and neighbours.

Mrs. Sheldon was a brilliant conversationalist and kept herself well informed on public affairs. She enjoyed nothing better than having her many friends and particularly her pastors, past and present visit her. She was a devout member of Vernon River United Church.

The funeral service was held on Saturday, January 22nd at Vernon River United Church and was conducted by her minister, Rev. W.E. Grant assisted by a former minister, Rev. T.R. Goudge. The hymns sung were "The Lord's My Shepherd" and "Abide With Me". Mr. Lloyd Martin sang with great feeling "In The Land Where We Never Grow Old."

The pallbearers were Milton Smith, Theodore Crane, Edison Storey, George Jenkins, Stewart MacPherson and Alphonus McInyre. The flowerbearers were Lloyd Furness, Lorin Drake, Norman Ings, Wilbur MacKenzie, Fred Jenkins, and Harold Robertson.

Interment was in the United Church Cemetery at Vernon River.
