

ISLAND NEWS

Charlottetown and Queens County

The Guardian, Charlottetown, Sat. Aug. 11, 1962.

Break At Aspal Plant Results in Guilty Pleas

As the result of a break at the asphalt plant of Curran and Briggs at Milton on Aug. 8, two young men from Oyster Bed Bridge appeared before Magistrate James B. Johnston, QC, in Queen's county magistrate's court yesterday.

The two, Ernest Milton Doucette and James Fulton Ronald, pleaded guilty to separate charges of breaking and entering the plant and taking one electric rator, two grease guns, one bucket of grease and four sets of keys.

Both elected to be tried by magistrate and were remanded in custody until Wednesday, August 15.

Lloyd Francis Derrach, Clyde River, was sentenced to seven days in Queens county jail when he pleaded guilty to a charge of having the care and control of a motor vehicle while intoxicated.

Frank Birchman Gormley, Sherwood, appearing for sentence on a charge of assaulting a police officer, was fined $75 and costs of 15 days. He was also ordered to pay damages in the amount of $1,500 to the police officer's uniform.

One witness was heard in the case of Frederick Scott Coffin, Sherwood, charged with driving a motor vehicle while his ability was impaired by alcohol. The witness was Const. John Norton, Sherwood police officer.

David John Young, Charlottetown, was also fined $10 and costs of five days for parking on the highway when he was remanded to pay on the shoulder.

Way Cleared For Building

All obstacles to construction of the new Bank of Montreal building on Grafton street were removed yesterday. When the City Council met at 7 p.m. and approved in principle the reading of a by-law closing all alleyways between the present bank building and the store formerly occupied by the law firm of Holmes White Alan Scales.

It is expected the by-law will be given third and final reading at Monday's meeting of the Council which held a special session yesterday to give approval.

MINSTREL PAIR HAVE TROUBLES

TORONTO (CP) — One of Vancouver's two wandering minstrel troupes has turned up here — now he's waiting for his chum.

The story goes back to the 1961 Mariposa Folk Festival at Orillia, about 70 miles north of here.

Vancover's first and only knapsack and a guitar, hitchhiking to Seattle, met Denis Foster, a third-year student at the Vancouver School of Art.

This year he decided to try the trip again, this time with Denis Foster, a third-year student at the Vancouver School of Art.

But they became separated and Denis arrived here alone with the guitar he can't play.

The festival is this weekend and Denis is living in a coffee house that's closed for business — sleeping on the stage and guarding the guitar.

NEWSPAPER MAN KILLED

WINDSOR, ONT. (CP) — Joseph Andrew (Joe) Maske, 29, outdoor writer of the Windsor Star, was killed Friday when his car collided with a transport near here.

Mr. Maske joined the staff of the Star June 9, 1961, as a copy boy, was soon transferred to the editorial staff, and served as police reporter for several years.

PILGRIM'S ROAD

The road of Christian, title character of Pilgrim's Progress, was patterned after the Elstow Bedford road, familiar to John Bunyan.

CHANGES PLEA

Previously pleading not guilty to a charge of obstructing a police officer, Lester White, Little Sand, changed his plea to that of guilty and was remanded until Friday Aug. 17 for sentence. He is also represented by Mr. Holmes.

A charge of failing to stop at the scene of an accident was withdrawn at the request of the Crown, against Louis MacInnis, 19 Dorchester Street.

Another accused pleaded guilty to having the unlawful possession of intoxicating liquor in a place other than his residence.

Liberals In Queens Planning Several Nominating Meets

Liberal nominating conventions are expected in several districts of Queens County. It was learned yesterday from a party spokesman, although there were no details.

The party named provincial candidates in First and Second Prince recently for the election of Party Leader A.W. Matheson suggests will come within a week of the provincial election.

Other Charlottetown candidates also attended the Fredericton meetings were Miss Ethel J. Sullivan, Mrs. Thomas Cundy, and Mrs. F.W. Smith, who served as an Assembly page.

Frank Preston, Senator, Parkdale, formerly of Truro, N.S., was named to an assembly appointed president, Miss Marion Crockett of Truro.

Rebekahs Return Home

Mrs. J. G. Dennis, past president of the Rebekah Assembly of the Maritime Provinces of Canada, returned yesterday from Fredericton after attending annual sessions of the Rebekah Assembly.

Other Charlottetown ladies who also attended the Fredericton meetings were Miss Ethel J. Sullivan, Mrs. Thomas Cundy, and Mrs. F.W. Smith, who served as an Assembly page.

Frank Preston, Senator, Parkdale, formerly of Truro, N.S., was named to an assembly appointed president, Miss Marion Crockett of Truro.

Rebekahs Return Home

Mrs. J. G. Dennis, past president of the Rebekah Assembly of the Maritime Provinces of Canada, returned yesterday from Fredericton after attending annual sessions of the Rebekah Assembly.

Other Charlottetown ladies who also attended the Fredericton meetings were Miss Ethel J. Sullivan, Mrs. Thomas Cundy, and Mrs. F.W. Smith, who served as an Assembly page.

Frank Preston, Senator, Parkdale, formerly of Truro, N.S., was named to an assembly appointed president, Miss Marion Crockett of Truro.

MINSTREL PAIR HAVE TROUBLES

TORONTO (CP) — One of Vancouver's two wandering minstrel troupes has turned up here — now he's waiting for his chum.

The story goes back to the 1961 Mariposa Folk Festival at Orillia, about 70 miles north of here.

Vancover's first and only knapsack and a guitar, hitchhiking to Seattle, met Denis Foster, a third-year student at the Vancouver School of Art.

This year he decided to try the trip again, this time with Denis Foster, a third-year student at the Vancouver School of Art.

But they became separated and Denis arrived here alone with the guitar he can't play.

The festival is this weekend and Denis is living in a coffee house that's closed for business — sleeping on the stage and guarding the guitar.

Way Cleared For Building

All obstacles to construction of the new Bank of Montreal building on Grafton street were removed yesterday. When the City Council met at 7 p.m. and approved in principle the reading of a by-law closing all alleyways between the present bank building and the store formerly occupied by the law firm of Holmes White Alan Scales.

It is expected the by-law will be given third and final reading at Monday's meeting of the Council which held a special session yesterday to give approval.

MINSTREL PAIR HAVE TROUBLES

TORONTO (CP) — One of Vancouver's two wandering minstrel troupes has turned up here — now he's waiting for his chum.

The story goes back to the 1961 Mariposa Folk Festival at Orillia, about 70 miles north of here.

Vancover's first and only knapsack and a guitar, hitchhiking to Seattle, met Denis Foster, a third-year student at the Vancouver School of Art.

This year he decided to try the trip again, this time with Denis Foster, a third-year student at the Vancouver School of Art.

But they became separated and Denis arrived here alone with the guitar he can't play.

The festival is this weekend and Denis is living in a coffee house that's closed for business — sleeping on the stage and guarding the guitar.

MINSTREL PAIR HAVE TROUBLES

TORONTO (CP) — One of Vancouver's two wandering minstrel troupes has turned up here — now he's waiting for his chum.

The story goes back to the 1961 Mariposa Folk Festival at Orillia, about 70 miles north of here.

Vancover's first and only knapsack and a guitar, hitchhiking to Seattle, met Denis Foster, a third-year student at the Vancouver School of Art.

This year he decided to try the trip again, this time with Denis Foster, a third-year student at the Vancouver School of Art.

But they became separated and Denis arrived here alone with the guitar he can't play.

The festival is this weekend and Denis is living in a coffee house that's closed for business — sleeping on the stage and guarding the guitar.

MINSTREL PAIR HAVE TROUBLES

TORONTO (CP) — One of Vancouver's two wandering minstrel troupes has turned up here — now he's waiting for his chum.

The story goes back to the 1961 Mariposa Folk Festival at Orillia, about 70 miles north of here.

Vancover's first and only knapsack and a guitar, hitchhiking to Seattle, met Denis Foster, a third-year student at the Vancouver School of Art.

This year he decided to try the trip again, this time with Denis Foster, a third-year student at the Vancouver School of Art.

But they became separated and Denis arrived here alone with the guitar he can't play.

The festival is this weekend and Denis is living in a coffee house that's closed for business — sleeping on the stage and guarding the guitar.

MINSTREL PAIR HAVE TROUBLES

TORONTO (CP) — One of Vancouver's two wandering minstrel troupes has turned up here — now he's waiting for his chum.

The story goes back to the 1961 Mariposa Folk Festival at Orillia, about 70 miles north of here.

Vancover's first and only knapsack and a guitar, hitchhiking to Seattle, met Denis Foster, a third-year student at the Vancouver School of Art.

This year he decided to try the trip again, this time with Denis Foster, a third-year student at the Vancouver School of Art.

But they became separated and Denis arrived here alone with the guitar he can't play.

The festival is this weekend and Denis is living in a coffee house that's closed for business — sleeping on the stage and guarding the guitar.

MINSTREL PAIR HAVE TROUBLES

TORONTO (CP) — One of Vancouver's two wandering minstrel troupes has turned up here — now he's waiting for his chum.

The story goes back to the 1961 Mariposa Folk Festival at Orillia, about 70 miles north of here.

Vancover's first and only knapsack and a guitar, hitchhiking to Seattle, met Denis Foster, a third-year student at the Vancouver School of Art.

This year he decided to try the trip again, this time with Denis Foster, a third-year student at the Vancouver School of Art.

But they became separated and Denis arrived here alone with the guitar he can't play.

The festival is this weekend and Denis is living in a coffee house that's closed for business — sleeping on the stage and guarding the guitar.

MINSTREL PAIR HAVE TROUBLES

TORONTO (CP) — One of Vancouver's two wandering minstrel troupes has turned up here — now he's waiting for his chum.

The story goes back to the 1961 Mariposa Folk Festival at Orillia, about 70 miles north of here.

Vancover's first and only knapsack and a guitar, hitchhiking to Seattle, met Denis Foster, a third-year student at the Vancouver School of Art.

This year he decided to try the trip again, this time with Denis Foster, a third-year student at the Vancouver School of Art.

But they became separated and Denis arrived here alone with the guitar he can't play.

The festival is this weekend and Denis is living in a coffee house that's closed for business — sleeping on the stage and guarding the guitar.

MINSTREL PAIR HAVE TROUBLES

TORONTO (CP) — One of Vancouver's two wandering minstrel troupes has turned up here — now he's waiting for his chum.

The story goes back to the 1961 Mariposa Folk Festival at Orillia, about 70 miles north of here.

Vancover's first and only knapsack and a guitar, hitchhiking to Seattle, met Denis Foster, a third-year student at the Vancouver School of Art.

This year he decided to try the trip again, this time with Denis Foster, a third-year student at the Vancouver School of Art.

But they became separated and Denis arrived here alone with the guitar he can't play.

The festival is this weekend and Denis is living in a coffee house that's closed for business — sleeping on the stage and guarding the guitar.

Douglas Plans Move To Ottawa

REGINA (CP) — New Democratic Party leader T. C. Douglas said Friday he is planning to move to Ottawa in the middle of next week "to consolidate party administration."

He said the move has been planned for some time, but a delay was forced by the federal election campaign.

The move means Mr. and Mrs. Douglas will take up residence in Ottawa.

He said the move has been planned for some time, but a delay was forced by the federal election campaign.

The move means Mr. and Mrs. Douglas will take up residence in Ottawa.

Douglas Plans Move To Ottawa

REGINA (CP) — New Democratic Party leader T. C. Douglas said Friday he is planning to move to Ottawa in the middle of next week "to consolidate party administration."

He said the move has been planned for some time, but a delay was forced by the federal election campaign.

The move means Mr. and Mrs. Douglas will take up residence in Ottawa.

He said the move has been planned for some time, but a delay was forced by the federal election campaign.

The move means Mr. and Mrs. Douglas will take up residence in Ottawa.

Douglas Plans Move To Ottawa

REGINA (CP) — New Democratic Party leader T. C. Douglas said Friday he is planning to move to Ottawa in the middle of next week "to consolidate party administration."

He said the move has been planned for some time, but a delay was forced by the federal election campaign.

The move means Mr. and Mrs. Douglas will take up residence in Ottawa.

He said the move has been planned for some time, but a delay was forced by the federal election campaign.

The move means Mr. and Mrs. Douglas will take up residence in Ottawa.

Douglas Plans Move To Ottawa

REGINA (CP) — New Democratic Party leader T. C. Douglas said Friday he is planning to move to Ottawa in the middle of next week "to consolidate party administration."

He said the move has been planned for some time, but a delay was forced by the federal election campaign.

The move means Mr. and Mrs. Douglas will take up residence in Ottawa.

He said the move has been planned for some time, but a delay was forced by the federal election campaign.

The move means Mr. and Mrs. Douglas will take up residence in Ottawa.

Douglas Plans Move To Ottawa

REGINA (CP) — New Democratic Party leader T. C. Douglas said Friday he is planning to move to Ottawa in the middle of next week "to consolidate party administration."

He said the move has been planned for some time, but a delay was forced by the federal election campaign.

The move means Mr. and Mrs. Douglas will take up residence in Ottawa.

He said the move has been planned for some time, but a delay was forced by the federal election campaign.

The move means Mr. and Mrs. Douglas will take up residence in Ottawa.

Douglas Plans Move To Ottawa

REGINA (CP) — New Democratic Party leader T. C. Douglas said Friday he is planning to move to Ottawa in the middle of next week "to consolidate party administration."

He said the move has been planned for some time, but a delay was forced by the federal election campaign.

The move means Mr. and Mrs. Douglas will take up residence in Ottawa.

He said the move has been planned for some time, but a delay was forced by the federal election campaign.

The move means Mr. and Mrs. Douglas will take up residence in Ottawa.

Douglas Plans Move To Ottawa

REGINA (CP) — New Democratic Party leader T. C. Douglas said Friday he is planning to move to Ottawa in the middle of next week "to consolidate party administration."

He said the move has been planned for some time, but a delay was forced by the federal election campaign.

The move means Mr. and Mrs. Douglas will take up residence in Ottawa.

He said the move has been planned for some time, but a delay was forced by the federal election campaign.

The move means Mr. and Mrs. Douglas will take up residence in Ottawa.

Douglas Plans Move To Ottawa

REGINA (CP) — New Democratic Party leader T. C. Douglas said Friday he is planning to move to Ottawa in the middle of next week "to consolidate party administration."

He said the move has been planned for some time, but a delay was forced by the federal election campaign.

The move means Mr. and Mrs. Douglas will take up residence in Ottawa.

He said the move has been planned for some time, but a delay was forced by the federal election campaign.

The move means Mr. and Mrs. Douglas will take up residence in Ottawa.

Douglas Plans Move To Ottawa

REGINA (CP) — New Democratic Party leader T. C. Douglas said Friday he is planning to move to Ottawa in the middle of next week "to consolidate party administration."

He said the move has been planned for some time, but a delay was forced by the federal election campaign.

The move means Mr. and Mrs. Douglas will take up residence in Ottawa.

He said the move has been planned for some time, but a delay was forced by the federal election campaign.

The move means Mr. and Mrs. Douglas will take up residence in Ottawa.

Douglas Plans Move To Ottawa

REGINA (CP) — New Democratic Party leader T. C. Douglas said Friday he is planning to move to Ottawa in the middle of next week "to consolidate party administration."

He said the move has been planned for some time, but a delay was forced by the federal election campaign.

The move means Mr. and Mrs. Douglas will take up residence in Ottawa.

He said the move has been planned for some time, but a delay was forced by the federal election campaign.

The move means Mr. and Mrs. Douglas will take up residence in Ottawa.

Douglas Plans Move To Ottawa

REGINA (CP) — New Democratic Party leader T. C. Douglas said Friday he is planning to move to Ottawa in the middle of next week "to consolidate party administration."

He said the move has been planned for some time, but a delay was forced by the federal election campaign.

The move means Mr. and Mrs. Douglas will take up residence in Ottawa.

He said the move has been planned for some time, but a delay was forced by the federal election campaign.

The move means Mr. and Mrs. Douglas will take up residence in Ottawa.

Douglas Plans Move To Ottawa

REGINA (CP) — New Democratic Party leader T. C. Douglas said Friday he is planning to move to Ottawa in the middle of next week "to consolidate party administration."

He said the move has been planned for some time, but a delay was forced by the federal election campaign.

The move means Mr. and Mrs. Douglas will take up residence in Ottawa.

He said the move has been planned for some time, but a delay was forced by the federal election campaign.

The move means Mr. and Mrs. Douglas will take up residence in Ottawa.

Douglas Plans Move To Ottawa

STUDENT MILITIA WIN PRIZES

The first student militia program ever conducted in Prince Edward Island ended yesterday with a passing out parade and the presentation of prizes. Prizes donated by the commanding officer and the second in command for the militiamen of each troop who most consistently maintained soldierly conduct and bearing during the course were awarded to Tpr. John Richard Campbell, left, and Tpr. Robert David MacAuley, right. Approximately 40 students attended the course which began July 9.

STUDENT MILITIA WIN PRIZES

The first student militia program ever conducted in Prince Edward Island ended yesterday with a passing out parade and the presentation of prizes. Prizes donated by the commanding officer and the second in command for the militiamen of each troop who most consistently maintained soldierly conduct and bearing during the course were awarded to Tpr. John Richard Campbell, left, and Tpr. Robert David MacAuley, right. Approximately 40 students attended the course which began July 9.

STUDENT MILITIA WIN PRIZES

The first student militia program ever conducted in Prince Edward Island ended yesterday with a passing out parade and the presentation of prizes. Prizes donated by the commanding officer and the second in command for the militiamen of each troop who most consistently maintained soldierly conduct and bearing during the course were awarded to Tpr. John Richard Campbell, left, and Tpr. Robert David MacAuley, right. Approximately 40 students attended the course which began July 9.

STUDENT MILITIA WIN PRIZES

The first student militia program ever conducted in Prince Edward Island ended yesterday with a passing out parade and the presentation of prizes. Prizes donated by the commanding officer and the second in command for the militiamen of each troop who most consistently maintained soldierly conduct and bearing during the course were awarded to Tpr. John Richard Campbell, left, and Tpr. Robert David MacAuley, right. Approximately 40 students attended the course which began July 9.

STUDENT MILITIA WIN PRIZES

The first student militia program ever conducted in Prince Edward Island ended yesterday with a passing out parade and the presentation of prizes. Prizes donated by the commanding officer and the second in command for the militiamen of each troop who most consistently maintained soldierly conduct and bearing during the course were awarded to Tpr. John Richard Campbell, left, and Tpr. Robert David MacAuley, right. Approximately 40 students attended the course which began July 9.

STUDENT MILITIA WIN PRIZES

The first student militia program ever conducted in Prince Edward Island ended yesterday with a passing out parade and the presentation of prizes. Prizes donated by the commanding officer and the second in command for the militiamen of each troop who most consistently maintained soldierly conduct and bearing during the course were awarded to Tpr. John Richard Campbell, left, and Tpr. Robert David MacAuley, right. Approximately 40 students attended the course which began July 9.

STUDENT MILITIA WIN PRIZES

The first student militia program ever conducted in Prince Edward Island ended yesterday with a passing out parade and the presentation of prizes. Prizes donated by the commanding officer and the second in command for the militiamen of each troop who most consistently maintained soldierly conduct and bearing during the course were awarded to Tpr. John Richard Campbell, left, and Tpr. Robert David MacAuley, right. Approximately 40 students attended the course which began July 9.

STUDENT MILITIA WIN PRIZES

The first student militia program ever conducted in Prince Edward Island ended yesterday with a passing out parade and the presentation of prizes. Prizes donated by the commanding officer and the second in command for the militiamen of each troop who most consistently maintained soldierly conduct and bearing during the course were awarded to Tpr. John Richard Campbell, left, and Tpr. Robert David MacAuley, right. Approximately 40 students attended the course which began July 9.

STUDENT MILITIA WIN PRIZES

The first student militia program ever conducted in Prince Edward Island ended yesterday with a passing out parade and the presentation of prizes. Prizes donated by the commanding officer and the second in command for the militiamen of each troop who most consistently maintained soldierly conduct and bearing during the course were awarded to Tpr. John Richard Campbell, left, and Tpr. Robert David MacAuley, right. Approximately 40 students attended the course which began July 9.

STUDENT MILITIA WIN PRIZES

The first student militia program ever conducted in Prince Edward Island ended yesterday with a passing out parade and the presentation of prizes. Prizes donated by the commanding officer and the second in command for the militiamen of each troop who most consistently maintained soldierly conduct and bearing during the course were awarded to Tpr. John Richard Campbell, left, and Tpr. Robert David MacAuley, right. Approximately 40 students attended the course which began July 9.

STUDENT MILITIA WIN PRIZES

The first student militia program ever conducted in Prince Edward Island ended yesterday with a passing out parade and the presentation of prizes. Prizes donated by the commanding officer and the second in command for the militiamen of each troop who most consistently maintained soldierly conduct and bearing during the course were awarded to Tpr. John Richard Campbell, left, and Tpr. Robert David MacAuley, right. Approximately 40 students attended the course which began July 9.

STUDENT MILITIA WIN PRIZES

The first student militia program ever conducted in Prince Edward Island ended yesterday with a passing out parade and the presentation of prizes. Prizes donated by the commanding officer and the second in command for the militiamen of each troop who most consistently maintained soldierly conduct and bearing during the course were awarded to Tpr. John Richard Campbell, left, and Tpr. Robert David MacAuley, right. Approximately 40 students attended the course which began July 9.

STUDENT MILITIA WIN PRIZES

Welfare Plan Is Revised

City of Charlottetown employees have recently completed a change in their welfare plan to include a new, comprehensive service plan of Blue Cross-Blue Shield, effective Aug. 20.

This new program, sponsored by the P.E.I. Medical Society, provides complete service benefits for all surgical, obstetrical and medical care, including home and office call services, through participating general physicians. It provides full medical care anywhere in Canada for a maximum of $1,500 per illness.

The new program illustrates the positive and progressive approach of the medical society. It provides full medical care anywhere in Canada for a maximum of $1,500 per illness.

Welfare Plan Is Revised

City of Charlottetown employees have recently completed a change in their welfare plan to include a new, comprehensive service plan of Blue Cross-Blue Shield, effective Aug. 20.

This new program, sponsored by the P.E.I. Medical Society, provides complete service benefits for all surgical, obstetrical and medical care, including home and office call services, through participating general physicians. It provides full medical care anywhere in Canada for a maximum of $1,500 per illness.

The new program illustrates the positive and progressive approach of the medical society. It provides full medical care anywhere in Canada for a maximum of $1,500 per illness.

Welfare Plan Is Revised

City of Charlottetown employees have recently completed a change in their welfare plan to include a new, comprehensive service plan of Blue Cross-Blue Shield, effective Aug. 20.

This new program, sponsored by the P.E.I. Medical Society, provides complete service benefits for all surgical, obstetrical and medical care, including home and office call services, through participating general physicians. It provides full medical care anywhere in Canada for a maximum of $1,500 per illness.

The new program illustrates the positive and progressive approach of the medical society. It provides full medical care anywhere in Canada for a maximum of $1,500 per illness.

Welfare Plan Is Revised

City of Charlottetown employees have recently completed a change in their welfare plan to include a new, comprehensive service plan of Blue Cross-Blue Shield, effective Aug. 20.

This new program, sponsored by the P.E.I. Medical Society, provides complete service benefits for all surgical, obstetrical and medical care, including home and office call services, through participating general physicians. It provides full medical care anywhere in Canada for a maximum of $1,500 per illness.

The new program illustrates the positive and progressive approach of the medical society. It provides full medical care anywhere in Canada for a maximum of $1,500 per illness.

Welfare Plan Is Revised

City of Charlottetown employees have recently completed a change in their welfare plan to include a new, comprehensive service plan of Blue Cross-Blue Shield, effective Aug. 20.

This new program, sponsored by the P.E.I. Medical Society, provides complete service benefits for all surgical, obstetrical and medical care, including home and office call services, through participating general physicians. It provides full medical care anywhere in Canada for a maximum of $1,500 per illness.

The new program illustrates the positive and progressive approach of the medical society. It provides full medical care anywhere in Canada for a maximum of $1,500 per illness.

Welfare Plan Is Revised

City of Charlottetown employees have recently completed a change in their welfare plan to include a new, comprehensive service plan of Blue Cross-Blue Shield, effective Aug. 20.

This new program, sponsored by the P.E.I. Medical Society, provides complete service benefits for all surgical, obstetrical and medical care, including home and office call services, through participating general physicians. It provides full medical care anywhere in Canada for a maximum of $1,500 per illness.

The new program illustrates the positive and progressive approach of the medical society. It provides full medical care anywhere in Canada for a maximum of $1,500 per illness.

Welfare Plan Is Revised

City of Charlottetown employees have recently completed a change in their welfare plan to include a new, comprehensive service plan of Blue Cross-Blue Shield, effective Aug. 20.

This new program, sponsored by the P.E.I. Medical Society, provides complete service benefits for all surgical, obstetrical and medical care, including home and office call services, through participating general physicians. It provides full medical care anywhere in Canada for a maximum of $1,500 per illness.

The new program illustrates the positive and progressive approach of the medical society. It provides full medical care anywhere in Canada for a maximum of $1,500 per illness.

Welfare Plan Is Revised

City of Charlottetown employees have recently completed a change in their welfare plan to include a new, comprehensive service plan of Blue Cross-Blue Shield, effective Aug. 20.

This new program, sponsored by the P.E.I. Medical Society, provides complete service benefits for all surgical, obstetrical and medical care, including home and office call services, through participating general physicians. It provides full medical care anywhere in Canada for a maximum of $1,500 per illness.

The new program illustrates the positive and progressive approach of the medical society. It provides full medical care anywhere in Canada for a maximum of $1,500 per illness.

Welfare Plan Is Revised

City of Charlottetown employees have recently completed a change in their welfare plan to include a new, comprehensive service plan of Blue Cross-Blue Shield, effective Aug. 20.

This new program, sponsored by the P.E.I. Medical Society, provides complete service benefits for all surgical, obstetrical and medical care, including home and office call services, through participating general physicians. It provides full medical care anywhere in Canada for a maximum of $1,500 per illness.

The new program illustrates the positive and progressive approach of the medical society. It provides full medical care anywhere in Canada for a maximum of $1,500 per illness.

Welfare Plan Is Revised

City of Charlottetown employees have recently completed a change in their welfare plan to include a new, comprehensive service plan of Blue Cross-Blue Shield, effective Aug. 20.

This new program, sponsored by the P.E.I. Medical Society, provides complete service benefits for all surgical, obstetrical and medical care, including home and office call services, through participating general physicians. It provides full medical care anywhere in Canada for a maximum of $1,500 per illness.

The new program illustrates the positive and progressive approach of the medical society. It provides full medical care anywhere in Canada for a maximum of $1,500 per illness.

BBC Will Attend Home Week

BBC technicians, program planners, film cameramen and TV personalities will depart from Halifax for Charlottetown, P.E.I. The aim of this exodus is to gather the program material and conduct interviews for later telecast, during the Charlottetown Exhibition and Old Home Week celebrations, Aug. 15 to 18.

Headed this group will be the CBC's new one-camera videotape cruiser which will record programs for CBC-TV's "Country Calendar," "Gazette" and "Countrytime." The film crew will be shooting a documentary on harness racing in P.E.I. which will be seen in the near future on the 90-30 series.

Locations covered by the videotape cruiser will include Bunsbury Nursery, The Experimental Farm, the homebased of Parkerswell of York and the farm of Halloway Willard of Brackley as well as the major events of the celebration at the Exhibition.

TV personalities attending the celebrations will be Lloyd MacInnis, Ches Cooper, Peter Hamilton and Jack MacAndrew, who will drop in daily at the CBC booth located in the Exhibition Building. They will be available to chat with friends and answer questions about their respective TV programs.

The CBC Radio Farm Broadcast will also originate from the CBC booth which will be staffed by information services personnel.

BBC Will Attend Home Week

BBC technicians, program planners, film cameramen and TV personalities will depart from Halifax for Charlottetown, P.E.I. The aim of this exodus is to gather the program material and conduct interviews for later telecast, during the Charlottetown Exhibition and Old Home Week celebrations, Aug. 15 to 18.

Headed this group will be the CBC's new one-camera videotape cruiser which will record programs for CBC-TV's "Country Calendar," "Gazette" and "Countrytime." The film crew will be shooting a documentary on harness racing in P.E.I. which will be seen in the near future on the 90-30 series.

Locations covered by the videotape cruiser will include Bunsbury Nursery, The Experimental Farm, the homebased of Parkerswell of York and the farm of Halloway Willard of Brackley as well as the major events of the celebration at the Exhibition.

TV personalities attending the celebrations will be Lloyd MacInnis, Ches Cooper, Peter Hamilton and Jack MacAndrew, who will drop in daily at the CBC booth located in the Exhibition Building. They will be available to chat with friends and answer questions about their respective TV programs.

The CBC Radio Farm Broadcast will also originate from the CBC booth which will be staffed by information services personnel.

BBC Will Attend Home Week

BBC technicians, program planners, film cameramen and TV personalities will depart from Halifax for Charlottetown, P.E.I. The aim of this exodus is to gather the program material and conduct interviews for later telecast, during the Charlottetown Exhibition and Old Home Week celebrations, Aug. 15 to 18.

Headed this group will be the CBC's new one-camera videotape cruiser which will record programs for CBC-TV's "Country Calendar," "Gazette" and "Countrytime." The film crew will be shooting a documentary on harness racing in P.E.I. which will be seen in the near future on the 90-30 series.

Locations covered by the videotape cruiser will include Bunsbury Nursery, The Experimental Farm, the homebased of Parkerswell of York and the farm of Halloway Willard of Brackley as well as the major events of the celebration at the Exhibition.

TV personalities attending the celebrations will be Lloyd MacInnis, Ches Cooper, Peter Hamilton and Jack MacAndrew, who will drop in daily at the CBC booth located in the Exhibition Building. They will be available to chat with friends and answer questions about their respective TV programs.

The CBC Radio Farm Broadcast will also originate from the CBC booth which will be staffed by information services personnel.

BBC Will Attend Home Week

BBC technicians, program planners, film cameramen and TV personalities will depart from Halifax for Charlottetown, P.E.I. The aim of this exodus is to gather the program material and conduct interviews for later telecast, during the Charlottetown Exhibition and Old Home Week celebrations, Aug. 15 to 18.

Headed this group will be the CBC's new one-camera videotape cruiser which will record programs for CBC-TV's "Country Calendar," "Gazette" and "Countrytime." The film crew will be shooting a documentary on harness racing in P.E.I. which will be seen in the near future on the 90-30 series.

Locations covered by the videotape cruiser will include Bunsbury Nursery, The Experimental Farm, the home