

The Two Glasses.

There sat two glasses filled to the brim,
On a rich man's table, rim to rim,
One was ruddy and red as blood,
And one was clear as the crystal flood.

Tempting Food for Convalescents.

During and after most kinds of illness it is now the custom to give the most nourishing and digestible kinds of food. The day for "wisy-wasy" spoon food is fairly over, and beef juice, cream and eggs, and meat jelly are given when once tea and gruel would have been rigidly prescribed.

To prepare beef juice properly, as it is done in hospital practice, select a thick cut from the round, or, better still, from the inside of the shoulder. The butcher will probably understand if you ask him for the "bread and butter" piece. Cut off a piece long as large as a man's hand, broil it only half enough to thoroughly heat it and start the juices. Put it in a hot bowl, standing it in a pan of hot water to keep it from cooling.

A dish that trained nurses frequently give their charges is a raw beef sandwich; but it is never to be so named to the patient, who would very likely refuse it unless. Scrape very fine a piece of fresh uncooked tenderloin of beef. Cut two circles with a cake cutter from slices of thin bread, spread them lightly with butter and then with the scraped beef. Sprinkle on a little salt and pepper, lay the circles together and cut across each way to make four little pie shaped pieces. Serve on the prettiest plate you have with a little parsley or a few cresces for a garnish, and a cup of cocoa or tea (if allowed) to make it seem more like a regular meal. The patient will relish the delicate sandwich and never suspect that he has partaken of raw meat.

Of course the doctor must be asked for some rules to govern the patient's diet.
There are instances where a physician would object to the following preparation, but in many cases it is thought very desirable: Boil an egg for twenty minutes; then take out the yolk, which should be dry and mealy, and spread it upon a slice of well browned toast which has been very slightly battered. Have a cup of milk heating while the other things are being prepared, but do not let it boil. Salt it to the taste, and pour it over the toast, with the addition of a desert spoonful of cream, if this is allowed by the physician. Put a cover in a soup plate or small dish. Put a cover over it, set it in the oven for a few moments and serve, with a clean napkin on the water, and a fork and spoon as bright as the best silver polish can make them, and a tiny bit of currant jelly, if sweets are allowed, on an especially pretty glass or decorated china saucer. Nothing in the house is too nice or too pretty to serve to the invalid's fare on. A convalescent is very dainty (don't let us say "fussy") and eyes as well as palate should be catered to by those who cook for the sick.—American Agriculturist for November.

DRUNKENNESS

Or the Liquid Habit Positively Cured by Administering Dr. Haines' Golden Specific.
It can be given in a cup of coffee or tea without the knowledge of the person taking it; is absolutely harmless, and will effect a permanent and speedy cure, whether the patient is a moderate drinker of an alcoholic drink. It has been given in thousands of cases, and in every instance a perfect cure has followed. It never fails. The system once impregnated with the specific, it becomes an internal purgative for the liquid appetite to exist. For The treatment of many thousands of cases of those chronic weaknesses and distressing ailments peculiar to females, at the Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute, Buffalo, N. Y., has afforded a vast experience in wisely adapting and thoroughly testing remedies for the cure of women's peculiar ailments.

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is the outcome, or result, of this great and valuable experience. Thousands of testimonials, received from patients and our physicians who have tested it in the more aggravated and obstinate cases which had baffled their skill, prove it to be the most wonderful remedy ever devised for the relief and cure of suffering women. It is not recommended as a "quick-kill," but as the most perfect Specific for women's peculiar ailments.

As a powerful, invigorating tonic, it imparts strength to the whole system, and to the weak and languid, in particular. For overworked, "worn-out,"
"run-down," debilitated teachers, milliners, dressmakers, seamstresses, "housekeepers, nursing mothers, and feeble women generally, Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is the greatest earthly boon, being unequalled as an invigorating, cordial and restorative tonic.

As a soothing and strengthening remedy, Favorite Prescription is unequalled, and is invaluable in all cases of nervous excitability, irritability, exhaustion, prostration, hysteria, spasms and all other distressing nervous symptoms commonly attendant upon functional and organic disease of the womb. It induces refreshing sleep and relieves mental anxiety and dependency.

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is a legitimate medicine, carefully compounded by an experienced and skillful physician, and adapted to woman's delicate organization. It is purely vegetable in its composition and perfectly harmless. Its effects in any condition of the system. For morning sickness, or nausea, from whatever cause arising, weak stomach, indigestion, dyspepsia and kindred symptoms, its use, in small doses, will prove very beneficial.

"Favorite Prescription" is a positive cure for the most complicated and obstinate cases of leucorrhoea, excessive flowing, painful menstruation, unnatural suppressions, prolapsed, or falling of the womb, weak back,
"female weakness," antevulsion, retroversion, bearing-down sensations, chronic congestion, inflammation and ulceration of the womb, inflammation, pain and tenderness of the ovaries, accompanied with "internal heat."

As a regulator and promoter of functional action, at that critical period of change from girlhood to womanhood, "Favorite Prescription" is a perfectly safe remedial agent, and can produce only good results. It is equally efficacious and valuable in its effects when taken for those disorders and derangements incident to that later and most critical period, known as "The Change of Life."

"Favorite Prescription," when taken in connection with the use of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, and small laxative doses of Dr. Pierce's Purgative Peppermint Liver Pills, cures Liver, Kidney and Bladder diseases. Their combined use also removes blood taints, and abolishes cancerous and scrofulous humors from the system.

"Favorite Prescription" is the only medicine for women, sold by druggists, under a positive guarantee, from the manufacturers, that it will give satisfaction in every case, or money will be refunded. This guarantee has been printed on the bottle-wrapper, and faithfully carried out for many years.

Large bottles (100 doses) $1.00, or six bottles for $5.00. tenderness of the ovaries, accompanied with "internal heat."
