LETTERS TO THE EDITOR.

White Weeds.

SIR,—In your paper of the 25th inst. I see the following: "We hope, therefore, that the owners of land in the vicinity of Charlottetown will at once unite to put down the white weed. It can be done, but not without intelligent, systematic, organized effort." Will you kindly outline to your interested readers how this happy state of affairs can be arrived at? I am one who has the most supreme contempt for the beautiful white weed, a bunch of which so many are wont to gather as an ornamental flower. In my boyhood days I have spent many an hour with others in carefully pulling them all out of a large field by the roots. It was not such a task in a grain field, but the memories of a hay field haunt me still. My father, after trying every known method, gave up the herculean task some twenty-five years ago, and to-day the old homestead has about the usual crop of daisies. The fields were pulled so many arduous out of are still white for the hay harvest, and the fields that had no white weeds then are almost as free from them to-day. I have made many inquiries as to how our island can be freed from these aesthetic flowers, and have never yet learned how they can be eradicated, but hope very soon to be informed on this important subject by you.

A FARMER'S SON.

England and New Zealand.

Lord Onslow, the departing Governor of New Zealand, recently made a rather significant speech. He referred to the growing trade between the "England of the Southern Seas" and the Mother Country.
Meat, wool and grain were being shipped in steadily increasing quantities, whilst English manufacturers were largely purchased in New Zealand in spite of a high duty, placed mainly for revenue purposes, and incidentally for protection. Lord Onslow was especially enthusiastic over the success and the results of the great Colonial Conference of 1877. He himself was then British Under-Secretary for War, and very truly observes that "only those who were present at the Colonial Conference can realize the importance of it, and how many difficulties it smoothed away, how many misunderstandings it dispersed, and how it set at rest friction between different parts of the Empire." The point, however, of his remarks was in reference to the trade question, and especially to that of preferential duties.

"Of all the proposals made in that Conference none were interesting than that of Mr. Hofmeyr, the representative of South Africa, when he submitted a proposal that England and the colonies should agree to a duty of 2 per cent. on all goods brought into their countries, and that the proceeds of Land duty should be applied to the purposes of their common defence. I am sorry to say that the proposal was not adopted."

The Governor then proceeded to point out that such a preferential policy, whatever the percentage, or to whatever use the proceeds might be put, would vastly increase colonial trade, and added that "there is an increasing disposition on the part of the English people to make some sacrifice for the benefit of the empire at large."

How Talmage Does It.

Many Americans abroad are exceedingly amused at their lack of skill in the use of the European languages, writes the Rev. T.
DeWitt Talmage in the August Ladies' Home Journal. After a vain attempt to make a Parisian waiter understand French they swear at him in English. But I have always remembered when travelling abroad the art of the physician who put all the remains of old prescriptions into one bottle—the oil, and the calomel, and the rhubarb, and the assafoetida—and when he found a patient with a "complication of diseases," he would shake up his old bottle and give him a dose. And so I have compounded a language for European travel. I generally take a little French, and a little German, and a little English, with a few snatches of Chinese and Chocwag, and when I find a stubborn case of waiter or landlady that will not understand, I simply shake up all the dialects and give him a dose. It is sure to strike somewhere. If you cannot make him understand, you at any rate give him a terrible scare.

I never had the anxiety of some in a strange land about getting things to eat. I like everything in all the round of diet except animated cheese and odoriferous codfish; always have a good appetite; never in my life missed a meal save once, when I could not get any, and knowing that "eine gerostete reinfleisch schiebe" means a beef-steak, "eine messer" a knife, and "eine gabel" a fork, and "eine serviette" a napkin, after that I feel perfectly reckless as to what I can or cannot get.

FOR OVER FIFTY YEARS Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup has been used by millions of mothers for their children while cutting teeth.
It relieves the little sufferer at once; it produces natural, quiet sleep by relieving the child from pain, and the little cherub awakes as "bright as a button." It is very pleasant to taste. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain, relieves wind, regulates the bowels, and is the best-known remedy for diarrhoea, whether arising from teething or other causes. Twenty-five cents a bottle.
Be sure and ask for "Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup," and take no other kind. jyl without clearance papers.

News Notes.

The French police claim to have discovered an anarchist plot to blow up the Bourse and the Palace of Justice.

It is expected that the Russian Government will authorize the export of rye and bran on August 1.

Retaliation with Canada might be a trifle annoying to people living along the border and a few vessel owners, but there is no easier way of teaching Canada than the increase reaches to the North to the South Pole on the American hemisphere. So says an United States exchange.

The Vienna Neue Freie Presse publishes secret Russian documents dated in 1881 and in 1886 showing payments of 702,000 francs in the first year and 300,000 francs in the second year by the Russian Government to Russian agents in Bulgaria and other Balkan States.

The Bulgarian Government's organ, Svoboda, publishes a communication from the Russian Legation at Bucharest to the Russian Foreign Office showing that every movement taken against Prince Ferdinand of Bulgaria is directed, paid for and instigated by Russia.

Although an unusually large quantity of Scotch coal has been brought to the Upper Provinces this season, the Cape Breton trade continues to increase.
Returns for May, June and July show an increase in the importation to the St. Lawrence ports of fifty thousand tons over the same period last year.

Higher Education of Women.

The ghost which questions whether woman will not lose her womanly qualities in the process of higher education will not down-write Mrs. Lyman Abbott in the August Ladies' Home Journal. It appears not only in the quiet and the shade of midnight, when ghosts have a right to appear, but it stalks abroad in open daylight. The innocent have always borne the penalty of the guilty, and the clamorous women who parade on public platforms, and who make themselves obnoxious in public conveyance, who give their families peace at home by going abroad with their debates, these are they who throw discredit on their innocent sisters. I wish I might picture the homes in which I am so happy as to be a welcome guest, where highest education for man and for woman combined to make highest happiness and highest usefulness. Woman may dwarf her best powers by cultivating only her emotions, she may do it by cultivating only her body, and, of course, she may do it by cultivating only her mind; but that is not higher education, and wherever a young woman has found a place where she may obtain knowledge, and also the other fruits which a perfected character should bear, she cannot be hurt by that parasite.

Flashes of Wisdom.

The more we love God the purer our lives will be.

Your enemy will not tell you where to dig for gold.

Do not make friends with a man who orders his wife around in public.

It takes a thinker to make another thinker think.

A smile unlocks the door, a frown bars the gate.

It is only when we are trusting God that we are capable of doing our best.

The day that a man marries a good wife he takes a big step toward Heaven.

If you always pray aloud in secret you will not find it hard to pray in public.

When a praying man leaves a community, he leaves a vacancy that is hard to fill.

When we remember that our words may influence people for eternity we ought to be very careful how we speak.

There are people who never give away any milk until after they skim it, and then they want credit for cream.

An old Scotch proverb says: "The hog never looks up to see who shakes down the acorns." Do you ask a blessing at your table?

Learn a verse of Scripture every day, and you will have something to talk about in prayer meeting whether you feel like it or not.

Blessed is the man who uses no tobacco, no liquors; spends his evenings at home, confrats no debts, and prays with his family.
"The end of that man is peace."—Ram's Horn.

TO GAIN the public confidence is essential to business success, and it can only be gained by a steady course of faithful dealing with them. It is by this course that Messrs.
Tackett & Son have secured the great success of their "Myrtle Navy" tobacco. This confidence is not only a source of business to the firm, but also a source of economy which the consumers get the benefit of. The merchant never loses a moment of time in examining the quality of the tobacco. The name fixes the quality as absolutely as the mint stamp fixes the value of the guinea. It is not even necessary for the commercial traveller's trunk to be burdened with a sample of "Myrtle Navy." All his customers know what it is, and know in an instant when it has been supplied. There is no room for any dispute about it. No waste of time or postage in writing complaints about it. These may look like trifles to the uninitiated, but they save money, and enable merchants to perform the work of distribution at the smallest possible cost. They are part of the reasons why the finest quality of tobacco grown can be sold at so cheap a price.

QUEBEC, July 23.—Seamen are beginning to get scarce at this port and bounties of from $5 to $10 are paid for each man shipped. The wages for the voyage to Europe are: Able seamen, £8 per month; ordinary seamen, £6, with half a month advance.

MAKES FRESH AND BLOOD.—When the system is all run down and there seems to be no hope of obtaining nourishment for the body by the ordinary process of food supply and digestion, when the body is sinking fast, then is the time to use Miller's Emulsion of pure Norwegian Cod Liver Oil. It always works wonders, because it is a flesh and blood maker and contains all the constituents for nourishment found in wheat, in fact, Miller's Emulsion is a perfect "staff of life," and has saved and cured thousands. In big bottles 50c. and $1 at Charlottetown drug stores.

MARCUS LITTLEFIELD.

Rheumatism of the Joints AND INHERITED HUMOR OF BLOOD

Banished by Skoda's,
AFTER PHYSICIANS HAD PRONOUNCED THEM INCURABLE!

MARCUS LITTLEFIELD LIVES AT WEST
WINTERPORT, N.S. A FARMER BY OCCU-PATION, HE ENJOYS THE RESPECT OF ALL WHO KNOW HIM. IN CONVERSATION WITH A REPRESENTATIVE OF THE SKODA DIS-COVERY CO., NOT LONG SINCE HE RE-LATED THE FOLLOWING STORY:

"Ever since I was born, I have been troubled at times, more or less, with a RHEUMATISM on my hands, face and neck.
For fifteen years it has been on the increase, I have been gradually failing in health, and for three years past it has ached and burned so badly, that all the way I could get any rest at night, was to bathe in strong caustic acid, and this only relieved me for a few hours.
In addition to this, eight months ago, RHEUMATISM in my neck and shoulders set in, drawing my shoulders so out of place, that for three weeks I did not have my clothes off. Physicians said I could never get well. I was unable to do any work, and was a great sufferer. I doctored with several Physicians, including Specialists in Boston, and took nearly all the advanced arsenicals and blood purifiers, but received no benefit whatsoever. I had given up all hopes, and my friends thought I could live but a few months. I began the use of SKODA'S DISCOVERY and TABLETS, according to directions, and also used SKODA'S PAIN-EXPELLER, and after a while After using THAN them but one week, there was a visible change in appearance. My skin that was literally covered with pimples and itchiness began to clear up. My appetite became good, less pain in my shoulders, and I gained rapidly. I have now used less than two courses of these REMEDIES, and my RHEUMATISM has entirely disappeared. SHOULDERS THAT WERE DRAWN OUT OF PLACE AND WHICH THE DOCTORS SAID COULD NEVER BE GOT BACK AGAIN ARE AS GOOD AS NEW AND IN PERFECT POSITION. My skin is free from blotches and pimples. I have gained weight, and I can go into the woods at sunrise, and chop cord wood until dark, and not get tired a thing. I could never do before in all my life, and am able to work all the time. My friends are all astonished at the result, and not more so than myself. They consider it almost miraculous."
