

Beards' Day Is Coming Up

After many months of careful and concentrated growing efforts, the numerous beards on Prince Edward Island are nearly ready to be judged to determine "The Best on the Island".

The long awaited judging of the woody outcrops which have been drawing comments for quite some time will take place in the Elementary School Auditorium in Kensington starting at 7:30 p.m. Saturday Evening. Those entering the competition, should however, be on hand by 7:00 p.m.

There will be three main classes consisting of the longest, the best groomed, and the most colorful beards. In addition to these, the judges, who will be from off the island to prevent any favoritism, will finally select the overall Champion Beard Grower of 1964. Prizes will be awarded to all winners.

It should also be mentioned that there is a penalty for appearing in Kensington during the jubilee in a beardless state. So licenses which permit you to be beardless will be obtainable during the jubilee.

Along with the beards will be a musical show presented by Eddie Mathers and his Jamboree which features the World Famous Group, "The Kensington Bees" - all for one admission fee, too.

Follow is a list of the event. Eddie Mathers Jamboree will be supplying the music for the big Saturday Night Street Dance.

Major Leagues Finishing Styles

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Tradition has it that the teams leading the major leagues after the July 4 schedule will go on to win the pennant.

Tradition has been followed two out of every three times since the modern era began in 1900.

Since the turn of the century, 42 of 83 American League teams in first place after the July 4 schedule have finished the season in the top spot, a 50.7 per centage.

The percentage is slightly lower in the National League, where 49 of 83 July 4 leaders have ended up flying pennants. Last year, the Los Angeles Dodgers led the National League by 2½ games and the New York Yankees led the American League by 4½ after July 4.

They wound up in the World Series.

Baltimore's Orioles will be leading the American League this season after Saturday's July 4 schedule. In the National, it will be either San Francisco or Philadelphia.
