

BREADALBANE

Mrs. Frederick Kilton, of Charlotteville and formerly of Hamshire, recently celebrated her ninety-seventh birthday. Burgess Newton, Meadowbank and Mrs. and Mr. Stephen Ackland, Cornwall were visitors to Breadalbane recently.

Mrs. Hammond Newton, one of Breadalbane's youthful octogenarians, is recovering from her recent indisposition.

Mrs. Cyrus Martin, Charlotteville, recently visited Mrs. Hugh F. Mackay, Breadalbane.

Miss Mary Inman, Crapaud, is a guest of Miss Muriel Haslam, Hazelton.

Mrs. Reggie Haslam is visiting in Halifax where she is the guest of Mrs. Gordon Squires.

Mr. and Mrs. Stirling Campbell are receiving congratulations on receiving a beautiful silver tray as a prize for their flowers during the Rural Beautification Contest. They, and also Mrs. Kenneth Graham and Mrs. Alex J. MacDonald were guests at the Rural Beautification dinner at the Charlotteville Hotel.

James Craig (Jr.) who is employed in Summerside visited his parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Craig, during the weekend.

Young Canada Book Week which brings to the attention of the young people the wonderful opportunity they have of matching ideas with the great men and women of history, of travelling without expense, to far away lands, or of supplementing and improving their regular studies was celebrated in Breadalbane, with two library parties, one for the junior children on Thursday, and one for the senior pupils on Friday. Games, contests, a story and singing were enjoyed. The librarian provided a treat.

On Saturday evening the parents of the teen to twenty "agers" were invited to the library to look at a box of books which were written by Dr. Alfred L. Murray of Chambersburg, Pennsylvania; a former Breadalbane boy and donated by him to the Breadalbane Library. These books were in memory of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Major C. Murray.

On Tuesday evening, November 20, Rev. E. M. E. Wheelock, district secretary of The Canadian Bible Society, conducted a meeting in the Breadalbane Christian Church. Mr. Wheelock gave an outline of the wonderful work of the Bible Societies. "The Scriptures have now been published in eleven hundred and sixty-five languages," he stated. An interesting feature of the evening was a film which followed.

Livingstone's footsteps through Africa, and showing the development of the work of the gospel since the day of this great missionary.

During a brief business session, Mr. Wheelock expressed appreciation for the interest which the late president of the Breadalbane Branch, Mr. Hedley Woodside, had shown in the Bible Society. Mr. William Graham was appointed to succeed Mr. Woodside as president. Mrs. Marie Zimmerman was organist for the meeting.

Mrs. John Hickox who recently underwent surgery in the Prince County Hospital, Summerside, is now convalescing at her home.

Mrs. Bert Eisses, Glenholme, Nova Scotia, who has been spending several weeks with her mother, Mrs. Aart Van Ewyk, has returned to her home.

Miss Carol Matheson returned to her duties as nurse-in-training at the Prince Edward Island Hospital.

Mrs. Penroy Murray presided. Mrs. Allan Hickox was deputized of the Maritime Christian Bible College. The president read a missionary lesson entitled "In the Congo" written by Guy Humphreys. Mrs. Eldon Hickox was the organist and accompanied Mrs. May and Mary Hickox who sang "Hark Tis the Shepherd's Voice." Mrs. Caylor Matheson invited the members to her home for the December meeting. Lunch was served by the hostess.

Mr. Kenneth Norris, principal of The Maritime Christian Bible College, was the guest speaker at the evening service in Breadalbane Christian Church on Sunday evening, November 25. Mrs. Norris sang "The Christ of the Cross" Allan Hickox (Sr.) was the organist.

Where the Mountains of Mourne sweep down to the sea, 20 peaks may be seen in a 15-by-15-mile area.

which was held Monday, Dec. 10.

Miss Nancy Hartman, returned to her home in Georgetown recently after spending several months in Orillia, Ont.
