A REWARDING MEDICAL CAREER IN THE RCAMC

Opportunities for a rewarding career are now available in the Royal Canadian Army Medical Corps. For over 50 years the RCAMC has been bringing good health to every Canadian soldier and caring for those who became sick or injured. Today it has developed into a great medical organization, complete with its own hospitals and training facilities.

For young men interested in serving alongside doctors and nurses the RCAMC offers many exciting and satisfying futures — as X-ray technicians, operating room assistants, physiotherapy aides, medical and laboratory assistants, to mention only a few of the possibilities. Pay is good and there are excellent advancement opportunities.

If you are between 17 and 23, single and physically fit, get full details right away by visiting, or mailing the attached coupon to your local Army Recruiting Station at:

ROYAL COMMISSION ON BANKING AND FINANCE

Submissions and Public Hearings

Public hearings will be held in Eastern Canada as follows:

Date	City	Place of Hearing
June 4 to 6,	Fredericton, N. B.	York County Court House.
June 7 and 8,	Ch'town, P. E. I.	Charlottetown Court House.
June 11 to 13,	Halifax, N. S.	Red Room, Province House.
June 14 to 16,	St. John's, Nfld.	Sir Robert Bond Auditorium, Confederation Bldg.

Hearings will start at 9.15 a.m. each day.

Briefs are invited from organizations, associations, and individuals wishing to submit information and proposals relating to the work of the Commission which has the following terms of reference:

(a) to enquire into and report upon the structure and methods of operation of the Canadian financial system, including the banking and monetary system and the institutions and processers involved in the flow of funds through the capital market; and

(b) to make recommendations

(i) for the improvement of the structure and operations of the financial system and, more particularly,

(ii) concerning the Bank Act, the Bank of Canada Act, the Quebec Savings Banks Act, and other relevant federal legislation.

Submissions (25 copies) should be in writing and should reach the Secretary not later than March 15, 1962.

While the Commission will endeavour to hear as many submissions as possible, it can give no undertaking that it will be feasible to give a public hearing to all those who submit briefs.

Further details relating to the submission of briefs and conduct of the hearings may be obtained by writing to:

The Secretary,
Royal Commission on Banking and Finance,
P. O. Box 1502,
Station "B",
Ottawa, Canada.

This is the second public announcement regarding submissions and public hearings. The original announcement appeared in this newspaper on December 15 and 16, 1961, respectively.
