Doubles Marathon Is Feature At Wimbledon Tennis Tournament

WIMBLEDON, England, July 6 (CP)—The longest doubles match the All-England Lawn Tennis Club courts ever saw stole the spotlight today. After four hours and five minutes, Budge Patty and young Tony Trabert of the United States finally overcame Frank Sedgman and Ken McGregor of Australia, 6-4, 31-29, 7-9, 6-2.

The crowd deserted the women's singles on the centre court, where Louis Brough and Mrs. Margaret Dupont won the all-American semi-finals, to jam the neighbouring court where the marathon was running.

Some of the spectators were offering prized reserved centre-court seats for standing room at the lesser arena.

Those who couldn't make a trade saw Miss Brough, the defending champion from Beverly Hills, Calif., score a surprisingly easy 6-4, 6-3 victory over Doris Hart of Jacksonville, Fla., and Mrs. Dupont, American titlist from Wilmington, Del., win a struggle from Mrs. Pat Todd, of La Jolla, Calif., 6-6, 4-6, 8-6.

Miss Brough and Mrs. Dupont, long-time doubles partners, will battle it out Saturday for the Wimbledon crown for the second successive year.

Junior Baseball Game Tonight

It will be a battle for sole possession of the City Junior Baseball League leadership at Memorial Field tonight when the Victorias and Knights of Columbus tangle there in a scheduled tilt commencing at 5:45.

Both squads have won and lost to each other in previous league play and are at present deadlocked with three wins and two losses each for the top spot in the league standing.

With the competition narrowing down to a keener edge day by day in the three-team loop, tonight's clash is expected to come up with some real action that is likely to produce one of the hottest games of the season to date.

Horseshoe Club

The special feature in Brighton Horseshoe Club activities tonight will be a challenge doubles match between Andrew Martin and Jack McCourt, the challengers, and Rennie Larter and Joey Brown, the doubles team that captured the "B" group doubles title there on Wednesday night. The match will get underway there at seven o'clock.

A meeting of all club members will be held following the play at eight o'clock to talk over and arrange plans for another tournament for both the A and B groups.

Yankees Snatch 5-4 Win From Athletics

By STEVE ROBERTSON
The Yankees may be slipping but they had enough power yesterday to snatch a 5-4 victory over Philadelphia Athletic with two out in the last of the ninth.

The game at New York was tied 4-4 when Gene Woodling got an infield hit off relief pitcher Lou Brissie and scored on Yogi Berra's double.

Brissie came in for the final inning after lefty Bob Shantz had gone the first eight. Ed Ford, rookie southpaw making his first start as a major-leaguer, lasted seven frames and Tom Ferrick, who hurled the final two innings, was credited with the victory.

The loss was Brissie's 13th, high for the majors. The victory was Ferrick's first since joining New York three weeks ago.

Shantz was removed for a pinch-hitter in the Philadelphia ninth and Brissie came on. The hard-luck pitcher got two out quickly and then a bad break. Woodling tapper a simple grounder to Pete Suder at first base.

Suder fielded the ball but Brissie could not get to first in time to take the throw ahead of Woodling. Berra then doubled and Woodling beat the relay to the plate.

including three home runs, off a trio of Giant hurlers. Sheldon Jones was the starter and loser, with Montie Kennedy and Clint Hartung following him.

Bob Miller, sensational rookie righthander of the Phils, started and posted his eighth victory against no defeats. He needed help, however, from Jim Konstanty, after being knocked out of the box in the sixth.

Split Series
Chicago Cubs routed Bill Werle with a three-run uprising in the eighth, and defeated Pittsburgh Pirates 4-2 at Chicago. The Cubs split the two-game series.

Mickey Owen opened the rally with a single and Phil Cavaretta doubled. After Hank Sauer was purposely passed, Murray Dickson relieved Werle. Andy Panfko singled two across. A walk and Roy Smalley's double counted another.

Paul Miner scattered five hits for his second victory of the season. The only run off Werle previous to the eighth was Sauer's 16th homer.

Sweep Series
Cleveland Indians completed a sweep of a two-game series by beating Chicago White Sox 5-2.

Early Wynn struck out 11 and gave only four hits in winning his eighth, his fifth in a row. His single in the fourth scored Roberto Avila and his double in the sixth scored Jim Hegan.

The victory kept the Tribe one game back of the second-place Yankees.

Homers Help
TWO-RUN HOMERS BY Ed Miksis and Gil Hodges paced Brooklyn Dodgers to an 8-3 victory over Boston Braves in a night game at Brooklyn. Lefty Freshner went all the way for Brooklyn and led his 10th victory. Del Crandall and Bob Elliott homered in the second inning for Boston.

Miksis, subbing for the injured Jackie Robinson, and Roy Campanella, who broke a 19-for-0 hitless streak led a 16-hit attack on Warren Spahn and Evers Bickford with three hits each.

Robinson missed a Brooklyn game for the first time since June 2, 1948 and ended a streak of 340 consecutive games.

Get Three Homers
Philadelphia Phillies advanced to within half a game of first place in the National League by overpowering New York Giants, 9-6.

Heavy Entry List For Track, Field Meet

TORONTO, July 6 (CP)—Nearly 250 track and field stars will show their stuff here Friday and Saturday in the Canadian Junior championships. They are coming from nearly all parts of the country.

The teenagers, from midgets to juniors, will sprint, hurdle, vault and jump over the east-end Pantry Park from early tomorrow until the 45-event concludes Saturday evening. Experts predict they'll crack at least 18 Canadian records.

The entry list is top-heavy with Ontario athletes but out-of-Ontario entrants, particularly from Quebec, are expected to come up with their share of winners on the program.

Nova Scotia has two entries—Dick Carmichael of Yarmouth in the mile and three-mile events, and Bob McAdam of Halifax in the hop, step and jump; broad jump and high jump.

Manitoba is represented by Lionel Orlikow of Winnipeg, Provincial juvenile champion in the 100- and 220-yard dashes. Bill Clark of Kamask, juvenile sprinter, and Saskatchewan's miler Doug Kile are Saskatchewan's entries, while Alberta is pinning its hopes on Gordon Dickson of Claresholm in the junior mile.

British Columbia has five entries—Alice Whitty, Alice Folz, Luella Law, Anne Reid and Jackie Barri. All 15-year-olds, they arrived by plane today from Vancouver.

Good Time Wins Pacing Derby

WESTBURY, N. Y., July 6 (AP)—The favored Good Time from the Good Time Stable of Bill Carey won the $25,000 national invitation pacing derby tonight at Roosevelt Raceway.

Frank Ervin of Aiken, S. C., brought the 1949 "Harness Horse of the Year" home in a snappy 2:02 1-5 for the one-mile event.

Scottish Pence, second choice of a crowd estimated at 18,000, finished second, two lengths back. Scottish Pence, winner of eight out of nine starts this year, is owned by the Castleton Farm, Lexington, Ky.

In third place, another length away, came Grattan McKiyo, from the stable of Mrs. Ben F. Owen, Omaha, Neb., with Indiar Land, owned by William W. Erving, Haledon, N. J., fourth.

Ten of the world's fastest side-wheelers started the race, which had a net value of $11,250 to the winner.

Good Time, a smallish four-year-old bay son of Hal Dale-On Time, returned $5.90, $3.10 and $2.50. Scottish Pence paid $3.10 and $2.60 and Grattan McKiyo $3.70.

Dr. Stanton, owned and driven by Lindy Fraser of Forest, Ont., and only Canadian horse in the race, was seventh. The nine-year-old bay gelding was fourth in the event last year.

Duchemin Takes Lead In Golf Tourney

SYDNEY, N. S., July 6 (CP)—Rohan D. Duchemin, Sydney newspaper man, broke clear of a tie and took first place in the Nova Scotia golf tournament at the nearby Lingan Club today.

Showing the same kind of golf that lifted him into a first-place tie with Pud Carter of Dartmouth's Brightwood Club yesterday, Duchemin took the last nine holes one under par to leave his rival six strokes behind. The four-day tournament ends tomorrow.

Carter struck up in fourth place tonight. Big Neesh Ross, Lingan, was two strokes behind Duchemin and Eddie Crowell, Halifax, defending champion, trailed by three strokes.

Duchemin, an executive of the Sydney Post-Record and former drugist, Ross and Crowell each carded 76, while Carter, suffering an attack of indigestion, had an 81.

King's Co. Baseball League Is Organized

A meeting was held in Cardigan, June 30th, at which a six team ball league was organized of teams interested in baseball in King's County. Areas represented were Souris, St. Peter's, Morell, Georgetown, Peakes and Cardigan. An executive was elected comprised of President, J. A. Macdonald, Cardigan; Vice President, Father P. Murnaghan, Souris; Secretary Treasurer, Ebbie Devine, Peakes and one member from each team. By-laws to govern league play were adopted and a schedule of games drawn up to cover play till early in August. Play-offs will then be run off to decide which team will compete for the Island championship.

Those interested in baseball in King's County are looking forward to one of the best years for the game to date.

Given below is the regular schedule of games to be played. Play-offs will be announced later by the league executive.

Big Day For Octogenarian Horse Owner

GOSHEN, N. Y., July 6 (AP)—W. N. Reynolds, an octogenarian from Winston-Salem, N. C., found this a memorable day at Historic Track. One of his pacers and one of his trotters came home first and a horse named after him also won on the Grand Circuit program.

Reynolds' two-year-old pacer, Tar Heel, driven by Ralph Baldwin, captured the $10,000 Goshen Cup in two straight heats. His brown mare, Lorraine, won the Middle-town Chamber of Commerce trot, driven by Dell Miller.

Uncle Will, owned by George H. Tipling of Cleveland and named after Reynolds (he is known as Uncle Will in harness race circles), won the classified trot.

Fight Fans Should See First Class Card At The Ch'Town Forum Tonight

Local fight fans should get their all of smart boxing at the Forum tonight when Cobby McCloskey of Charlottetown and Dartmouth, Island heavyweight champion, pits his skill and prowess against Roger Whyntott, ex-Canadian middleweight boxing champion, in a feature 10-round, middleweight scrap of a four-bout boxing card. The first bout is scheduled to start at 8:30.

Whyntott, a veteran of some 130 fights, hails from Mahone Bay, N. S., and is an aggressive, shifty boxer who packs plenty of power in both hands, using a two-way style that makes him a dangerous opponent at all times.

But he will be meeting a worthy adversary tonight in the person of Cobby McCloskey, whom local fans a week or two ago saw take a 10-round decision from George "Big Boy" Peterson for the Island heavyweight title in a very decisive manner, despite the fact that he gave away some 32 pounds in weight. McCloskey is also an aggressive and hard punching fighter who is capable of dishing it out as well as taking it. He is clever and hard to hit, which should make an action-filled encounter.

Both boys wound up their training schedule at the Forum yesterday, where they have been working out daily all this week, and from all reports are both in the peak of condition for tonight's battle, and are both confident that they will be on the winning end of the match.

Whyntott is expected to weigh-in at about 152 and McCloskey at about 155.

This is only part of the night's card, however. Three other smart bouts are scheduled for the public's entertainment.

Buddy Lund, Island lightweight champion, will lay his title on the line against Carl "Beau Jack" MacDonald, one of the most prominent lightweights in the Province, in a six-round, semi-final title match.

Both boys are well-known here for their boxing ability, and also for their match as opponents. These boys have been seen in action against one another before, and it has always been a tussle to remember although Lund has managed to hold the edge on the encounters by a narrow margin.

Two other well-known local boxers, Bobby Gallant and Duck Traylor will clash in the main preliminary. Both are up-and-coming lightweights and are expected to pit on a bruising scrap, while Billy Rix and Austin Connolly, two young gamblers in the featherweight division, will meet in the curtain-raiser that is expected to get the star-studded card off to a rousing start. The preliminaries will be four-round contests.

Rees Heads Pack Into Final British Golf Round

TROON, Scotland, July 6 (CP)—Dai Rees, a Welshman with a putter that worked like a fairy's wand, led the pack into the final half of the British open golf championship today with a two-round score of 71-68-139.

Totals of 148 or less qualified 35 players from all over the world for tomorrow's two 18-hole rounds. The winner after that will take over the crown now worn by South Africa's Bobby Locke.

Locke, still favored to retain his title, is in third position, two strokes off Rees' pace, with rounds of 69 and 72 for a 141. W. J. Branch of Britain is in second place with a 71-69-140.

Three Britons are bunched together in fourth place with 142 and Johnny Bullis of Pittsburgh leads the American contingent in a four-way tie for seventh place with 143.
