

MR. AND MRS JOSEPH JACKSON

Montague Is Setting For This Very Pretty Wedding

Trinity United Church, Montague, was the setting for a pretty wedding when Rev. J.M. Fraser united in marriage Anna Isabel Moore, Union Road and Joseph Jackson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Alex Jackson, New Perth.

The bride who was given in marriage by her father looked very lovely in a ballroom length dress of white silk organza, featuring fitted surplice bodice and short sleeves. She wore a white feather headdress and carried a bouquet of pink and white carnations.

The bride was attended by her cousin, Miss Dorothy MacDonald, who wore a becoming dress of pale green flecked nylon organza and matching feather head-dress. Her bouquet was of yellow 'mums.

Mr. James Jackson, brother of the groom, acted as groomsman. The ushers were Mr. Charles Kennedy, uncle of the bride and Mr. Richard Jackson, brother of the groom.

The church was attractively decorated with bouquets of yellow and white 'mums and potted ferns. The guest pews were marked with white ribbon bows.

The soloist, Mrs. L.D. Johnson, sang very effectively "O Perfect Love", accompanied by Mrs. L.A. Johnston, church organist.

Mrs. Moore chose for her daughter's wedding a dress of royal blue silk with matching hat and corsage of white carnations.

The groom's mother wore a dress of brown figured silk with matching velvet hat. Her corsage was of white carnations.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at the bride's home for about forty guests. The dining-room table was centred with a three-tier wedding cake which was cut by the bride and groom.

Rev. J.M. Fraser proposed a toast to the bride to which the groom fittingly replied.

Prior to her marriage the bride was tendered a community shower at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Mellish when she received many useful gifts.

A post-nuptial shower was held in the A.D. MacKenzie Hall, when the ladies of Trinity Church showered Anna with a profusion of useful and beautiful gifts.

Woman Of The Year Is U.S. Dr. Helen Deane

"The Aiken B and P W name, Dr. Deane the Woman of the Year" is the caption for the following article from an American newspaper.

Dr. Helen Deane of SRP's Medical staff has been named "Business Woman of the Year" by the Aiken Business and Professional Women's club. The new Woman of the Year was announced at the club's meeting in Aiken's Commercial Hotel on Oct. 7.

She was presented with an engraved sterling silver tray and a corsage of miniature orchids. Dr. Deane was introduced at the meeting by Dr. Charles Whitaker, also of SRP's Medical staff.

A native of North Dakota, Dr. Deane holds an A.B. degree from Carleton College, Northfield, Minn. and an M.D. from the University of Minnesota. She has also done post graduate work at the American Medical Association in Vienna, Austria. She was employed by Du Pont at the Alabama Ordnance Plant, Childersburg, from 1942 until the end of World War II.

In 1946 she returned to the Company at Old Hickory, remaining there until 1949. She returned to the Company for the third time in June 1953 at SRP.

Dr. Deane is a member of the American Medical Association, and a life member of the American Medical Women's Association, the Medical Women's International Association and the American Medical Association of Vienna. She is also a member of the Association for the Advancement of Science and the

HAPPENINGS

One of the nicest of the holiday parties was that given by the well-known Prince Edward Island firm, Crockett and Storey, at the Queen Hotel on Monday evening.

Colonel F.J. and Mrs. Storey and Mr. and Mrs. H.G. MacWilliam received the guests. Following a short reception guests sat down to a full course banquet. Later in the recreation room of the Queen Hotel a singing and games were enjoyed.

Mrs. Lorne Unsworth is a patient in the Prince Edward Island Hospital. Her many friends will be pleased to hear that she is improving.

Chaplain W.B. Taylor of H.M.C.S. Cornwallis, N.S., Mrs. Taylor and son Christopher, have been spending the holiday season as guests of Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Rodd, Motel Charlottetown. The Taylor family will be returning to Cornwallis on January 2nd.

Dr. and Mrs. George Fisher with their children Bobby and Anne are visiting with Dr. Fisher's parents, Mr. and Mrs. F.A. Fisher, Frosty Hall, Sackville.

Mr. John Fisher, Toronto, has been in the Maritimes and with his brother Dr. George Fisher came over to the Island on Monday.

Dr. and Mrs. Lemuel Prowse entertained a few friends at their home Greenfield Avenue on Monday evening.

Mrs. Ramsay Auld is spending the holiday season with her son Dr. Benson Auld, Mrs. Auld and children in Halifax, N.S.

Mr. and Mrs. James B. Wilber, Halifax, and children Deborah and Robin have been Christmas guests of Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Rodd. They returned Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Rodd entertained at a buffet supper on Boxing Day at their home in Highfield in honor of their holiday guests.

Miss Marjorie MacLeod, Halifax, arrived this Wednesday by plane to spend a week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Leith MacLeod, Longworth Avenue.

Miss Lois Muttart, Miss Gayle MacWilliams and Miss Adelle Kays arrived home from Ottawa to spend the Christmas holidays with their parents and friends.

Miss Ruth MacPhail and Miss Joyce MacKinnon arrived home from McGill University in Montreal to spend the weekend with their parents and friends.

Miss Lois Muttart spend a very enjoyable weekend with Miss Mickey McGee of Charlottetown.

Mrs. G.A. Thompson, Montague, and Miss Etta Astropo, formerly of Los Angeles now residing at Fortune, P.E.I. spent Christmas with Mrs. Thompson's son George P. Thompson, 209 Prince Street.

Mrs. Stewart Ross, Flat River, and Mrs. Kenneth MacRae of Point Prim left Saturday to spend New Year's with relatives and friends in Quincy and Lynn, Mass.

Miss Nellie Buell, who is stationed at St. Johns, Quebec, spent her Christmas holidays at home with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Buell.

American Social Hygiene Association.

In July Dr. Deane attended the 8th Congress of the Medical Women's International Association in London as a delegate of the American Medical Women's Association. She also attended a conference on safety called by President Eisenhower at Miami in May.

Dr. Deane is an officer in the American Association of University Women and is state chairman of the Health and Safety Committee of the Business and Professional Women's club. She is active in Red Cross work, serving on the blood bank.

Of interest to Charlottetown citizens is the fact that Dr. Deane is the daughter of the late Mr. Frank Deane and her grandfather was the American Consul in Charlottetown at one time.

Dr. Deane and her daughter flew up to Prince Edward Island from South Carolina to spend a vacation recently with Mrs. G.S. (Lord) Wright. Dr. Deane and Mrs. Wright are cousins and there is a striking family resemblance. Dr. Deane was so thrilled to come back to Prince Edward Island which her father loved so dearly.

EARL OF ARRAN DIES

IDA BAILEY ALLEN

Irish Soda Bread Mix Makes American Debut

With Gaelic charm and grace, Irish soda bread was introduced to the United States during a recent late afternoon party at the Waldorf-Astoria in New York.

"The elegance of this debut was most refreshing" commented the Chef. "Pretty young colleens with blue eyes and raven black hair wearing shawls and wide green calico skirts greeted us and took our names on cards. They ushered us into the reception room and handed the cards to a butler in tails and wearing white gloves."

FORMAL INTRODUCTIONS "The butler, in turn, presented us to the first person in the receiving line, who introduced us to the next in line," he continued. "Quickly we met the hosts and their wives. And when we left, they were near the door, so one could say a proper thank you."

"This elegant formality, as many might call it, is really courtesy in action, Chef," I said, "and a procedure we can well follow at the large home, club, church and commercial receptions given in this country." Refreshments were simple and delightful.

There were drinks, of course.
