IN THIS CORNER

Continued from page 6 night, there was one man in particular who would have liked to have been present. He was Gahanag's owner, Dr. George Bishop, former of Charlottetown and now in Lexington, Kentucky.

R. C. A. F And C. & B.

Continued from page 6 and Des Trainor singled but both died on the base paths. Left fielder Kenny Wilson scored M.C.A.'s lone run in the third inning.

Cannon, first baseman of the Summerside Juniors, paced the winners' attack with three singles in four trips to the plate.

From the first until the eighth inning it was still anyone's ball game but the visitors cracked it wide open in the last frame.

Four of the Summerside runs in the last inning were unearned. Green and Purcell scoring with the only earned tallies.

Lorne Hennessey and Irving MacKinnon pulled off the best defensive plays of the contest.
