Halifax Atlantics In 6-2 Victory Over Ch'town Islanders

HALIFAX, Jan. 11 —(CP) — League-leading Halifax Atlantics downed Charlottetown Islanders 6-2 Saturday in a Maritime Major Hockey League game which saw little of the fire the two teams have shown in recent clashes on Halifax ice.

After Billy Goold's tally, only one in the opening frame, Atlantics coasted along to add two more in the second and three in the third.

Charlottetown's markers came from Chuck Holdaway, who combined with Lyle Wiseman and Tommy Powers midway in the second period, and Buck Whitlock on a team play with Gary Gordon and Larry Travis 40 seconds before the end of the game.

Halifax scoring was evenly distributed. Frank King and Kenny Lauffman notched goals in the second period and Hugh Campbell, Bob Bowness and Peanuts McLaughlin scored in the final session.

Goold scored while McLaughlin was sitting out a minor and Mike Brklacich was in the bin when Lauffman got his marker.

Islanders had almost as many scoring chances as Atlantics but had difficulty beating goalie Roy McMeekin. He stopped 29 tries while Al Millar was turning aside 28.

Lineups:
Charlottetown — Goal, Millar; defence, Travis, McLagan, Brklacich, Gustaveson; forwards, Whitlock, Hurst, Gordon, Wiseman, Beaudry, Pawlyshyn, Clements, Holdaway, Powers.

Halifax — Goal, McMeekin, defence, Lepine, McLaughlin, Bloom, Hayes; forwards, King, Bowness, Campbell, Watson, Ford, Lauffman, McPhee, Goold, Hollett.

Tennis Player Selected Woman Athlete Of Year

(By John Chandler)

NEW YORK, Jan. 11 (AP) — Maureen (Little Mo) Connolly, the little brown-eyed blonde package of dynamite who is the world's best woman tennis player, was chosen female "Athlete of the Year" for 1952 today for the second successive year.

As were her tennis successes at Wimbledon and the U. S. nationals at Forest Hills and elsewhere decisive, the 18-year-old San Diego, Calif., registered an overwhelming victory in the 22nd Associated Press year-end poll.

Now in Australia, where she seeks another championship, Maureen received 109 of the 153 votes from a poll of U. S. sports writers and sportscasters. On a 3-2-1 point basis, she rolled up 384 points.

This was far ahead of Pat McCormick of Los Angeles, U. S. Olympic diving star who won two gold medals last summer in Helsinki for taking the women's springboard title, and the women's low board championship. She received 82 points.

Third was Florence Chadwick with 38 points the only woman ever to swim the English Channel both ways and conquer the tricky 21-mile Catalina Channel.

Babe Didrikson Zaharias, a leading professional women's golfer for years and winner of the "Female Athlete" honor five times, was fourth with 33 points.

Fifth with 42 points was Marion Ladewig of Grand Rapids, Mich., who last month won the women's all-star bowling championship for the fourth consecutive year. Skier Andrea Mead Lawrence was sixth with 41 points. The Rutland, Vt., skier, holder of the U. S. national slalom title, captured two gold medals at the 1952 Oslo Winter Olympics.

Minor Hockey League Results

In Saturday night's hockey programme at the Forum, Minor League officials ran off six successful and, with one exception, closely contested games. Following are the results:

Bantams

Braves 2, Bisons 1; Braves goals scored by Currie (2); Goal for Bisons by Scotty Stewart.

Whirlwinds 1, Bombers 0; Whirlwinds goal scored by Sterling Pasher.

Hawks 1, Flyers 0; Hawks awarded game when it was learned that Flyers used a goaltender from another team; D. MacCormack credited with the goal.

Eagles 5, Bruins 0; Eagles scorers were McCabe (3), Lund and Vail.

Rangers 4, Royals 3; Rangers goals scored by Alan MacKenzie (3), Lavers 1; Royals goals scored by Trainor (2) and Walsh.

Midgets

The Braves walloped the Beavers 10-0 in the only midget game played. The Beavers played without the services of their goalie. Braves goals were scored by Crabbs (5), Praught (2), Sentner (2) and Harper 1.

The officials were John Davies, John Richard, Jack Kane and Art Perry.

Following the games an hour's work-out was held for all juveniles. Next week a league comprising three teams will get underway in this bracket for all boys who were over 16 years of age and under 18 on July 31. Any boys of this age who are not getting any hockey can get into this league by phoning the Physical Fitness Department.

Playoff Dates Are Announced

OTTAWA, Jan. 11 — (CP) — W. B. George, president of the Canadian Amateur Hockey Association, today announced playoff dates for Canadian major, senior and junior hockey championships.

He also announced that the best-of-seven game final for the Allan Cup, senior championship trophy, will start in the east April 23.

The best-of-seven major series for the Alexander Cup will get under way in the Maritimes April 20 between champions of the Maritime Major and Quebec Senior Hockey Leagues. Maritimes games will be played April 20 and 22 with a third game April 23 if points are split in the first two games.

If only two Maritime games are needed, dates of the Quebec series will be April 25 or 26, April 27 or 28, April 29 or 30, May 2 or 3 and May 4 or 5. If three Maritime games are needed, the Quebec series will be April 26 or 27, 28 or 29, 30 or May 1 and May 2 or 3.

Expect Lively Game With Atlantics Here Tonight

The League leading Halifax Atlantics, whom Murph Chamberlain still describes as the cry-baby champions of the Maritime Major Hockey League will be back in town tonight to meet the Islanders in a Maritime Major Hockey League game.

The Egg-Men will take to the ice 12 points ahead of the second place Islanders. Dugger McNeill's crew added an extra two points in Halifax Saturday night by defeating the Islanders 6-2.

This game was a quietly played affair so unlike the previous meetings between the two teams on Halifax ice. It could be the lull before the storm and it could be that the scene of the bitter battles will change from Halifax to Charlottetown.

The Islanders will move into tonight's game without the services of defenseman Orval Lavell. He is a patient in hospital suffering from a relapse of the 'flu.

C.A.H.A. Meeting Held At Ottawa Over Week-End

OTTAWA, Jan. 11 — (CP) — Whether United States clubs playing hockey in Canadian leagues may enter playdowns for Canadian championship trophies will be left for the annual meeting of the Canadian Amateur Hockey Association to decide.

However, the semi-annual meeting of amateur hockey's governing body voted unanimously during the week-end to allow one U. S. club—Spokane, Wash., Flyers—to enter playdowns for the Allan Cup this year. Future policy will be set at the annual meeting in Montreal May 11-14.

Flyers can have a place in this year's playdowns for the senior Canadian hockey trophy if they win the British Columbia championship. The CAHA's B. C. branch already has granted Flyers permission to play for the Savage Cup, the B. C. senior championship trophy.

The meeting also arranged dates for playoff series for the Memorial, Allan and Alexander Cups, emblems of junior, senior and major hockey championship respectively.

The CAHA also gave its Maritime branch 10 days to iron out a dispute with the Manitoba branch over two players which Manitoba claimed were stolen from its Flin Flon member.

The dispute involved Herb Shiller, playing with Glace Bay, N.S., and Bill Tyshko, playing with Sydney, N. S. The CAHA ruled that the Maritime senior group with which they are playing has Juntil Jan. 20 to purchase their services from Flin Flon or return the players to the Manitoba club.

Harry Foxton of Portage La Prairie, Manitoba branch president, said the two forwards were graduates of Flin Flon junior ranks and that the Flin Flon senior club has first call on their services.

Walter Lawlor of Charlottetown, Maritime branch president, successfully proposed the 10-day waiting period during which Shiller and Tyshko may play in the Maritimes. The CAHA also adopted his proposal that the two Maritime clubs may sign two more players if they can't buy Shiller and Tyshko from Flin Flon.

In other business, the CAHA:

1. Extended to Feb. 15 from Jan. 15 the date by which National Hockey League clubs may recall players to their ranks from clubs in leagues under CAHA jurisdiction. W. B. George of Kemptville, Ont., CAHA president, explained that the extension was sought by NHL president Clarence Campbell as a result of the number of injuries suffered this season by NHL clubs.

2. Approved the decision of its executive and representatives of the Maritime Major Hockey League and Quebec Senior Hockey League that clubs in the two loops may not take on extra players for Alexander Cup playdowns.

3. Voted to approve a tour of Japan by a Canadian hockey team next season if the Japanese Skating Association asks the CAHA to pick a club. Late last year the CAHA vetoed arrangements made by a Sudbury, Ont., group to send a team on tour in Japan.

4. Re-affirmed its ruling that players awaiting re-instatements as amateurs must not play hockey until reinstated and that approval of the CAHA president and the NHL must be transmitted to the CAHA branch where the reinstated player wishes to play amateur hockey.

5. Confirmed its earlier decision that Canada will stand with the United States in not taking part in the world hockey championships at Zurich, Switzeralnd March 6-15.

Canadiens And Leafs Win Saturday Games

MONTREAL, Jan. 11 — (CP) — Montreal Canadiens defeated Chicago Black Hawks 5-2 Saturday night in a rousing, bruising game productive of everything from major and misconduct penalties to lusty squawks over rulings and goals.

The crowd of 14,207 was in an uproar almost throughout the wild and woolly battle.

TORONTO 3, BOSTON 1

TORONTO, Jan. 11 — (CP) — A veteran and a rookie combined to give Toronto Maple Leafs a 3-1 National Hockey League victory over Boston Bruins Saturday night.

Leftwinger Harry Watson, in his 10th N. H. L. season, scored two goals while rightwinger Eric Nesterenko, playing his first game as a full-fledged professional, came through with Toronto's third marker, Real Chevrefils scored for Boston.

The Leafs, minus five of their regulars, led 2-1 at the end of the first period and widened the gap to 3-1 in the second.

The 13,118 fans who turned out in expectation of fireworks were not disappointed. Although there were no wholesale brawls, body contact was in evidence throughout and three fistic encounters livened the rather one-sided proceedings.

Millionaires Collect 2-All Tie With Miners In Game At Glace Bay

GLACE BAY, N. S., Jan. 11 — (CP) — Brilliant goaltending by Nick Pidsodny helped the vastly outplayed Sydney Millionaires to a 2-2 overtime tie Saturday night in Maritime Major Hockey League game here.

The veteran netminder bore down on a barrage of shots from every corner of the ice and turned aside 52 while his teammates landed only 25 drives on Don Lockhart at the other end.

Seven of Pidsodny's stops came in a torrid overtime session while Miners tried desperately to break the deadlock. They kept the puck in the Sydney zone and allowed only a single shot on Lockhart.

Eddie Marineau evened the count just past the mid-way mark of the third period after Pop Backor had put Miners out in front. Johnny Raynak and Ronnie Rowe matched tallies in the first and second.

Rowe's goal came as Freddie Weaver and Don Keller were sitting out minors after a second-period clash. Another difference of opinion brought minors to Johnny Horeck and Lloyd Hinchberger earlier in the same session.

Lineups:
Sydney — Goal, Pidsodny; defence, Weaver, Tyshko, McIntyre, Whalen; forwards, Horeck, Hill, Hildebrand, McDonagh, Morrow, Rowe, Pirie, Birukow, Marineau.

N.Y. Rangers Shut Out Montreal Canadiens 7-0

NEW YORK, Jan. 11 — (AP) — New Yorkers looked like anything but the National Hockey League's last-place team tonight as they drubbed Montreal Canadiens 7-0.

The Rangers took advantage of three penalties in posting their first victory of the season over the Montrealers.

A crowd of 12,506 whooped it up as the Rangers dominated the play. They outchecked their more highly-regarded opponents in running up their largest score of the season. The shutout was the first of the season for rookie goalie, Lorne (Gump) Worsley.
