Death Wednesday Of Mrs. Lauchlin Bruce Of Milltown Cross

The death occurred at the King's County Hospital, on August 8th, of Mrs. Lauchlin Bruce, of Milltown Cross, in her 80th year, after a prolonged illness.

Mrs. Bruce was the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Angus MacDonald, of Grandview.

Besides her sorrowing husband she leaves to mourn her passing, one daughter, Christie, of Dayton, Ohio, and one son, Duncan, who is on the homestead.

It was with deep regret that friends in this vicinity learned of the death of this grand old lady, and the sympathy of the community is extended to the bereaved.

The funeral service will be held from her late residence today, with interment in Valleyfield cemetery.

IN MEMORIAM

In loving memory of a dear Wife and Mother, Nellie (Sencabaugh) Llewellyn, who passed away, August 8th, 1946.

Five years have passed, our hearts are sore, As time goes on we miss you more. We little knew that the day would bring The blow so hard, the shock so severe, To part with one we loved so dear.

Lovingly remembered by Husband, Melbourne, and children Ethyl, Louise, Brenda.

IN MEMORIAM

In loving memory of our daughter, Nellie Llewellyn, who departed this life, August 8th, 1946.

Tonight the stars are shining, On a grave not far away, Where they laid our darling, Nellie, Five years ago today.

May Heaven's winds blow softly, O'er that sad and hallowed spot, Where the one we love lies sleeping, And will never be forgot.

Sadly missed by her Father and Mother, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Sencabaugh.

This is Mrs. Bulpitt's first trip to the island, and she is very much impressed with it, especially the red soil, which is a characteristic of this island, and not found in her own state.

LADD AT TOUGHEST IN MIGHTY 'BRANDED' BIG SCALE WESTERN

Alan Ladd, who has slugged and gunned his way to national screen acclaim in more than a score of action-heavy starring vehicles, will soon be seen in a role that goggle-eyed previewers have described as one of the most red blooded Western characterizations that ever blazed from the screen.

In Paramount's "Branded," the Technicolor adventure drama which opens today at the Prince Edward Theatre, Ladd creates a gunslinger that makes most Western characters look like wispy cap pistol artists, and according to advance reports, he sets a high mark for future film badmen to shoot at.
