THE LATEST INVENTION—A gasoline car, or coach, with a trailer came in on a flat car Thursday last, night and is attracting much attention, especially among rally way men. The coach which is fitted with flanged wheels is to be used on the Elmira Branch and will likely be operated between there and Souris. The body is of the same style as the ordinary railway coach, with the engine and hood outside. It is made to accommodate about fifteen passengers, including the driver, or chauffeur, and is built for narrow gauge service. The coach will likely prove a success during the summer months, but will have to be laid away during the winter.
