PLENTY OF SHAD.—St. John Gazette:—Many of the fishermen made large catches of shad last night. One boat owned by Robert Ferguson, of Fivazino, took 941 shad valued at $75. The run of mackerel last night was not so great as on the preceding night.

It is specially requested that all contributions from the country reach Charlottetown not later than Tuesday next. All accounts will positively be closed on Saturday, and nothing will be received after that date.—T. C. JAMES, treasurer. [A 31]

THE LAMB BUSINESS.—No lamb has been shipped to the American market as yet this season, the price obtainable here paying the butchers better than if they exported the meat. Very little country lamb is coming in yet, though. The wholesale price is from 8 to 9 cents per pound.—St. John Sun.

THE SOCIETY RACES.—The great annual race which will take place at the Sports Ground on Thursday, the 11th inst., should be well patronized. The grand stand will hold 600 people and the seating accommodation is excellent. Plenty of amusements will be supplied. For full details see advertisement.

Mrs. Carvell will give a picnic tea in Government House grounds from 5 to 8 o'clock this evening. Admiral Hopkins will entertain a party of gentlemen on board the flagship at dinner to-night. Mrs. L. H. Davies gives a ball at Riverside to-night.

"FOR WHY."—Many persons must have been struck with the awkward beginning of the line in the hundred psalm:—"For why? The Lord our God is good."

The truth is, popular ingenuity—represented in this case perhaps by the printer—has taken the liberty of changing the old word "for why," meaning "because," which gave good sense and translated the original, but which had fallen out of common use, into the modern "for why." Surely the restoration of the word might still be attempted before it is too late.—Chambers' Journal.

A VALUABLE TROPHY.—Mr. Wm. N. LePage has erected a handsome flagstaff at his residence, Government, and has secured through a relative the flag fluted by the yacht America at the time when she went across to England and secured the prize cup, which made her famous, which will be thrown to the breeze from the top of the staff. The flag contains 35 stars, the number of states in the Union at the time. It was secured from an uncle, Mr. Nelson Spratt, who was the designer of the yacht.—Gloucester Daily Times.

General Telegraphic News.

BOSTON, Aug. 7.—John Rowe, a resident of Dedham, died almost instantly at his breakfast table yesterday morning. A piece of food lodged in Mr. Rowe's throat, and before his wife, who was present, or others could render him aid, he had expired. That the accident was superinduced by a shock was the opinion of Drs. Chase and Hodgson, who were summoned.

BOSTON, Aug. 8.—Yard men, car cleaners and others employed by the Fitchburg railroad and by the Boston and Maine have complained of long hours of labor and of a number of other grievances. A few days ago both managements put more men to work, lessened the hours of labor heretofore required, without reducing the weekly wages.

NEW YORK, Aug. 8.—The ship New City, of St. John, N. B., from Taldil and Valparaiso, arrived here today. She reports June 20th at 2 p. m., sighted two immense ice islands, one judged to be 900 feet high; at 5 p. m. there were nine in sight; some very large ones were passed during the night; we sighted thirteen at daylight and counted nineteen from the masthead, one judged to be ten miles long and 150 feet high, flat on top. This ice-drift appeared to lie in the east and west direction, sixty miles north and south.

ROCKLAND, Me., Aug. 8.—An interview with a prominent stone cutter, and member of the Granite Cutters National Union, indicates that the cutters on a strike in this vicinity are becoming restless. The promised financial assistance, to which the men are entitled, is not forthcoming and only two weeks' money has been furnished since last May. Since then numerous letters from union workmen have been sent from Hurricane Island and elsewhere, but up to the first of last week they failed to secure funds from Secretary Dyer at Concord. Many men, especially those with families, are in need of funds, and unless aid comes at once the bottom must drop out of the strike, heretofore. At an early day the National union asked the members of the local unions here to accept the notes of the National Union, where upon men were at work. They were promised three dollars a week in addition to dues, to support the strike of the men heretofore, and complain that none of this money came back to them. They want to know where the National Union is sending it.

WOODSTOCK, Aug. 8.—A distressing accident occurred at Upper Woodstock this afternoon. William McPhee, a brakeman, while proceeding from the rear of the train to the engine on top of the box cars of the down freight, fell between the cars and was instantly killed by the train passing over him, severing his body at the waist.

BEVERIDGE, Aug. 8.—Dr. E. H. Legeere, M. P., died this morning at four o'clock at Grand Digue, after a somewhat lengthy illness. Deceased was twenty-seven years of age. He was one of the youngest members of the present parliament. He was first returned at the by-election in 1890 to fill the vacancy caused by the elevation of Judge Landry, but parliament was dissolved before the session, and he was obliged to enter upon a second contest before taking his seat. The deceased was a fluent speaker and very popular with his constituents.

ROME, Aug. 8.—At 4.30 yesterday 300 members of the Catholic societies assembled on Piazza Ricci to place laurels and flower wreaths at the foot of Columbus' statue. They formed a procession and moved along in a quiet and unostentatious manner, until a group of anti-clericals approached with hooting cries of "Down with the priests! Vive Giordano Bruno! Down with the Vatican!" The mob at the same time unfurled the Italian flag and began to shout the Garibaldi hymn amid great confusion. When the crowd reached the corso Vittorio Immanuel the police ordered them to disperse and arrested several anti-clericals. At Via Riforma an Italian flag was hanging in front of a window. The anti-clericals seized upon that emblem and swinging it in the air defied the others to take it. A free fight ensued with clubs and sticks. The banner carried by the Catholic societies, inscribed "Catholic Rome to Columbus," was torn to pieces. A strong force of police was unable to protect the emblem or disperse the mob. Later, a procession of one thousand or more paraded up and down the principal streets, halting before the newspaper offices and public buildings, shouting, "Viva" for the liberal press and "Down with the priests, the enemies of Italy—viva Umberto." A company of carabinieri has been drawn up in Piazza Colonna to prevent the mob entering.
