LOCAL AND OTHER ITEMS

MOUNTING UP.—The civic debt of Halifax now amounts $3,163,576.

I. O. F.—Court Charlottetown, No 576 will meet to-night at 8 o'clock.

EXCURSION—The Sons of England of New Glasgow intend visiting Charlottetown to-morrow. It is probable that a game of base-ball will be arranged between their teams.

L. O. A.—A joint meeting of Lady Wallace, Young Britons and other lodges tonight in Euston Street Hall. Visitors Welcome.

ENJOYABLE.—The teachers of Grace Church Sunday School enjoyed a pleasant, although somewhat clouded, moonlight excursion on the tug Fred M. Batt.

RACING DATES.—There will be horse races held at Cymbria Park tomorrow, Aug. 14th. At Avondale, Lot 49, Aug. 18th; at North Tryon, August 19th; at Riverside Park, Tignish, September 14th and at Charlottetown, September 22-23.

A CHANCE.—A fine business stand at Emerald, owned by Mr. J. W. Hughes, consisting of store, dwelling house, barns, and four acres of land, is offered for private sale until 11th September next, after which date, if not sold, it will be put up at auction.

CUT WITH A RAZOR.—A Capt. J. N. Verge, proprietor of the Acadia House, Water Street, Halifax, was cut across the lower part of the left arm with a razor used by an infuriated cattleman aboard the steamer Siberian at Cunard's wharf, on Wednesday night.

GROWING POPULARITY.—The Plant line steamers carried during the month of July a larger number of passengers than in the corresponding month of any former year, which shows the increasing popularity of the steamers Halifax and Olivette with the travelling public.

MORE GOLD.—Local prospectors have struck a new Klondyke at Indian Harbor lake, five miles from Sherbrook, N. S., and great excitement prevails. Mining men pronounce this find to be the richest by far in Guysboro county and in consequence there is a great rush for areas.

A GOOD OPPORTUNITY.—We are asked to draw attention to the advertisement of Mr. F. W. Green, calling for a general agent for P. E. I. for Confederation Life. It is not often that the agency for such a company as this is going. Some of our wide-awake men should be after it. Mr. Green is at the Hotel Davies now for the purpose of selecting an appointee.

KENTVILLE RACES.—The races at Kentville, N. S., on Wednesday were well attended. In the 2.45 class there were seven entries. The race was won by Wilmont, first; Lady Rampart, second; Troublesome, third. In the 2.35 class six started. The race went to Pansy, first; Loafer, second; Andrew, third.

U. S. S. INDIANA.—The arrival of the U. S. battleship Indiana in Halifax has occasioned quite a flutter at that port. The captain has kindly permitted the public to inspect the vessel. Lieutenant-Governor Daly, Admiral Erskine and General Montgomery-Moore, have called upon, and had their calls returned by the captain of the Indiana, and invitations to the officers of the ship are coming from all quarters. The sailors of the U. S. battleship and the English Jack tars are fraternizing in a manner that would surprise Yankee jingoes.

Prince Edward Island Illustrated is for sale at all the Bookstores. Price 25c.

PHYSICIAN HEAL THYSELF.

SIR,—I note that your contemporary The Guardian is even more severe upon our Stipendary Magistrate than you are. If the Stipendiary Magistrate is at all in the mud in this matter (which I very much doubt) the editor of The Guardian is, himself, deep in the mire. He is the paid advocate of the Scott Act party, and he ought to have been true to its cause. Any one can see that the fixing of the Provincial election for the very day previous to that previously set apart for the Scott Act election was "death" to the cause of the friends of temperance. Yet the editor of The Guardian said never a word and has not yet attempted to explain his unfortunate lapse. "Physician heal thyself."
