overwrought feelings are, in the language of Mrs. Hemans, such as

"Press the joy from out young hearts"

But resignation must take the place of sorrow when the inevitable decree goes forth that they are—GONE! To Mr. David Gabriel and the large party who accompany him we wish every success, and a safe, speedy and prosperous voyage to their destined haven.

The ploughing match advertised to take place at Keston, the property of John Thorne, Esq., came off, on Thursday the 23d inst, pursuant to notice—The morning proved rather unpropitious, notwithstanding which, eleven ploughs appeared on the ground—the land being laid off, the ploughs started, and it soon became apparent that very creditable specimens of ploughmanship would be exhibited. At the termination of the work, the judges, Messrs. Michael Bryenton, Laughlan Macdonald, and John Sutherland examined the work, and awarded the prizes as under—After which the spirited and hospitable proprietor invited the ploughmen and a large number of spectators to a substantial dinner, prepared in excellent style by Mrs. Thorne, and the evening passed by all present with the utmost hilarity and good humour. The subscribers to this match are entitled to the highest praise for the liberal contributions made by them to an undertaking fraught with the greatest importance to mankind.
