Many Tourists Believe Women With The R.C.M.P.

TORONTO (CP) — The RCMP may not know it yet, but many United States tourists think there are women on the famous force. When the tourists enter Ontario, they see attractive girls in red serge tunics, blue skirts and tam o'hanter hats.

"Ah ha!" they think. "Lady Mounties." Actually the girls are on the staff of the information branch of the Ontario department of travel and publicity. They are assigned to 15 reception centres in various parts of the province and are often university students working during summer vacation.

Since 1946 about 300 Ontario girls on the reception staff have greeted more than 8,000,000 visitors to the province. Some of the questions the girls

Still another thought Indians in Canada still are so wild they might make it unsafe to drive on the highways after night. All the motorists had to look out for is wild drivers.

Will Willie Mays Make It?

Willie Mays, New York's diamond-tinted sensation, looms as a shoo-in for major baseball's Player of the Year. Some have compared him with Tris Speaker and Joe DiMaggio. The Sporting News, bible of baseball, says "Willie makes it appear as if baseball were waiting all these years for him to catch up with it." In The Standard this week, Sports Editor Andy O'Brien provides an interesting picture-story about this fence-busting Giant.
