IN MEMORIAM

FRANK J. SHEA

—There passed peacefully away on Thursday, March 5th, Francis J. Shea, a highly respected resident of St. Louis. He was in his 75th year.

Born in Waterford, P. E. I., he was the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Angus Shea. In his youth he operated a farm and when the fox ranching boom began in 1912, he became one of the pioneers in this industry in which he was most successful.

For many years he was also engaged in the lobster canning business, having operated canneries at Pleasant View and Miminegash.

In 1931, he moved to St. Louis where he operated a merchandise and produce business, in which he was engaged at the time of his death.

The deceased had always enjoyed good health until a few weeks prior to his death when he entered hospital and was told that nothing could be done for his condition. His resignation to the Divine Will was most edifying. He returned home and calmly prepared for the end, tenderly cared for by his son Frankie and his wife, and fortified by the last rites of the Roman Catholic Church of which he was a faithful member.

In his varied occupations he came in contact with a large number of people by whom he was admired and respected.

Of a jovial and friendly disposition, his hospitable home was the scene of many happy gatherings of family and friends.

His wife, the former Catherine Ready, of Tignish, predeceased him three years ago. Nine children, six daughters and three sons are left to mourn their loss. They are: Cora, Mrs. Harris Callaghan, Ebbfleet; Patricia, Mrs. Frank Ellsworth, Bridgeport, Conn.; Ada, Mrs. Bernard Slowey, Bridgeport, Conn.; Clara, Mrs. John Praught, Ottawa, Ont.; Eva, Mrs. Arthur Bernard, St. Catharines, Ont.; Freda, Mrs. Leigh O'Brien, Alberton; Chester Shea, Waterford, Dr. Wilbert Shea, Alberton and Frank, Jr., at home. Surviving also is one sister, Rev. Sister Coemas of St. Paul, Minn., and one brother, Peter, residing in the United States.

His funeral, one of the largest ever seen in Palmer Road Church, was held on Monday, March 9th, with solemn High Mass celebrated by his pastor, Rev. Patrick Walsh, with his nephews, Rev. Claude Shea and Rev. Howard Shea, as deacon and sub-deacon.

The pall bearers were, Howard Dunbar, Edward Millman, W. B. McLellan, Peter Burke, Ray Shea and Ferdinand Brown. The beautiful floral tributes and numerous Mass Cards and the large number who came to pay their respects and attend his funeral, bore mute testimony of the esteem in which the deceased was held. R. I. P.
