You may never build a pyramid

It's a funny thing about building pyramids...getting the base on which to build is usually the toughest part of the job. But, the more blocks you lay safely in place—the easier it becomes. You run into the same situation in building savings. The way to save effectively, of course, is to save systematically—to build dollar by dollar—month by month—year by year.

It takes self-discipline to keep at it—and most people find that a bit difficult. But if you really want to save—and everyone does—Canada Savings Bonds are the one sure way to build that foundation. One firm decision—and saving becomes automatic. You can buy Canada Savings Bonds for cash, of course, but you can pay for them on convenient instalments over 12 months. That's the way to build savings—block by block. And every "block" is available to you as cash at a moment's notice without loss or discount—and in the meantime is earning you 3 3/4% interest each year.

A MILLION CANADIANS BUILD SAVINGS PYRAMIDS THIS WAY.
