WANTED—Rain.

THE STANLEY sailed for North Bay this morning.

THE SEASIDE.—We understand that the Seaside Hotel, Rustico Beach, will close for the season September 11th.

MORE BLOSSOMS.—Strawberry blossoms are everywhere to be seen in Western Prince County—a result of the extraordinary dry weather.

THE RIFLE.—The Ottawa team arrived home last evening. A number of their friends met them at the station and congratulated them on their success.

SALVAGE CORPS.—The adjourned meeting of the Royal Salvage Corps will be held in their room to-morrow night at 8 o'clock sharp.—H. C. Wilson, Secy.

AN OWNER WANTED.—A letter postmarked Boston and addressed, "Miss O'Connell, Charlottetown, care of Police," can be obtained on application to the Marshal.

NEW BOOK.—Just published, "A Winter in Boston," by Nona. John Coombs, publisher. For sale by all booksellers. Price 25 cents each. sept patlw piolm grdim

EARLY SHIPMENTS.—Shipments of oats and Early Rose potatoes are being already made from Alberton. The Early Rose potato has completely matured, and is quite fit for shipment.

FASHION.—Rev. John Read will lecture in Cornwall Church on Thursday evening next. Subject, "Fashion." Hour, 7.30. This will be a pleasant drive from the city "under the harvest moon."

TO SUE THE CITY.—A Halifax paper publishes a sensational story alleging that some Americans are about to sue that city for five millions dollars for public lands in the city, which these people have an idea they are heirs to.

A TERRIBLE WARNING.—A Mr. Finley, a farmer living in the vicinity of Marshall, Mo., recently fired at a crow that was stealing eggs from his barn. He killed the bird, but the burning wad from his gun set the barn on fire, completely destroying it.

HOW THEY SETTLED IT.—George McGowan, an aged farmer, near Quebec, married Eliza Jane Pugh a few days ago. The peculiarity of the affair is that McGowan was sued by the bride some time ago for breach of promise, and a jury fixed the damages at $750.

HORSE KILLED.—A valuable young mare owned by Mr. John Joy, while being led along Great George Street to-day, became frightened. She reared and threw herself to the ground, her head coming in contact with the stone curbing, causing instant death.

"SOME years ago Ayer's Cherry Pectoral cured me of asthma after the best medical skill had failed to give me relief. A few weeks since, being much troubled with the disease, I was promptly relieved by the same remedy."—F. L. Hassler, Editor Argus, Table Rock, Neb.

SUFFERERS from indigestion, loss of appetite liver or kidney complaints, rheumatism or neuralgia, would do well to give Ayer's Sarsaparilla a trial. For all such disorders, no medicine is so effective as this, when faithfully and perseveringly used.

THE SEAL FISHERIES.—It is said that a number of Nova Scotia schooners are engaged in the Pacific seal fisheries. The schr. Annie C. Moore has done a fine business seal hunting in Behring sea. She has netted over $10,000 since February last. She is owned at North Sydney.

CORONER WANTED.—The people of Alberton are asking for the appointment of a Coroner resident in their village. No such officer is now to be found nearer than O'Leary, and Coroner Barclay, of that place, had to be sent for in the late two cases of accidental death which took place in the vicinity of Alberton. Let them have an officer.

BIG GUN COMPETITION.—The Island team, under command of Lt.-Col. F. S. Moore, left for Quebec this morning. The Georgetown and Montague teams arrived in the city last night. At the practice last evening the city team did the shift in the highly creditable time of five minutes. The St. John team's time is eight minutes, and they expect to do good work.

RAILWAY ACCIDENTS.—The record of train accidents in the United States includes 72 collisions, 68 derailments and 3 other accidents, a total of 143 accidents, in which 39 persons were killed and 147 injured. The comparison with the same month of previous years shows favorably in the total persons killed, but in passengers alone the reduction is not so encouraging.

ON THE SQUARE.—The Citizens' Band played well last evening; and the fountain was pleasing. But the absence of the electric lights was felt and remarked upon by the hundreds of citizens who thronged the avenues; and the forward girls and not less forward boys who pressed close to the wires in order that they might see and admire the bandmen in their handsome new uniforms bore hard upon the grass. Sergeant Beasley was present, however, and exerted himself to prevent the vandalism. The boys who refused to hold music books for the bandmen, (who are unprovided with music-stands,) displayed some of the spirit of "children of a larger growth" who are quite willing to enjoy to the fullest extent the advantages supplied by their more public-spirited fellow citizens, and yet refuse to subscribe a dollar or afford any aid whatever towards their maintenance. Such boys are not the most promising "sprigs" of the growing generation, and will probably develop into just such "children of a larger growth."

TEMPERANCE MEETING.—The public temperance meeting came off last night in McLeod's Hall, as previously announced. The chair was occupied by the W. P. M. Robt. B. Kay. The speakers of the evening were Rev. James Carruthers, Rev. John Read and Rev. J. A. Gordon, each of whom made excellent points on this old but ever new subject of temperance. License either high or low found better favor with the reverend gentlemen addressing the meeting. In Charlottetown we have a good temperance law adopted by the people at the polls. If the man whose sworn duty it is, evade their duty or will not enforce it, it is certainly not the fault of the law. Let the Scott Act be enforced for but one month, then will we be better able to give an intelligent answer to the question, "Is the Scott Act a failure?" In this important matter every citizen, every qualified cleric has a solemn duty to perform. Will we do our duty, or will we shrink it, as so many professing Christians do? Besides the addresses there were some very well rendered readings and music appropriate to the occasion.

SPECIAL DESPATCHES TO THE EXAMINER.

Searle Wins.

LONDON, Sept. 9.

The race on the Thames for £1,000 and the championship of the world, over a course 4 miles and 3 furlongs long, between William O'Connor, champion oarsman of the United States and Canada, and Henry E. Searle, the Australian, was rowed to-day and was won by Searle. At Hammer-smith Bridge, a mile and three-quarters from the start, Searle led by two lengths. He won by six lengths. Time, 22.42. Searle won the toss for position, and chose the Surrey side of the river. O'Connor had the best of the start, and led by half a length to the boathouse. There were occasional squalls of wind during the progress of the race and off Surrey the water was slightly lumpy. Otherwise the conditions were good. The betting during the forenoon was 21 to 20 on Searle and bets at these figures were taken rapidly; finally the odds changed to five to four against Searle. The start was made at 1.23, with O'Connor rowing at a terrific rate. Soon after the start O'Connor caught a crab and Searle overtook him and gained a lead. Both men rowed splendidly throughout the race. But O'Connor seemed to have been overtrained, however, for after the first mile had been rowed he tired very quickly. The course was well kept. The attendance was large.

After Valuable Property.

CINCINNATI, Ohio, Sept. 9.

The descendants of Benjamin Talbott, colored, have begun proceedings to recover 640 acres of land in the central portion of Loganport, Indiana. Talbott was a slave. He settled in Loganport fifty-three years ago, and bought 640 acres of land from the government, which he occupied until the passage of the fugitive slave law, when he abandoned the property and fled to Canada. He never returned to claim it, but his children have placed the matter in the hands of an attorney, who claim that they have a sure case against the city. The property is worth several millions.

The Great Strike.

LONDON, Sept. 9.

The directors of the dock companies refuse to depart from the terms offered by them to the strikers. On the other hand, however, additional wharfingers to-day signified their willingness to grant the demand of the men of six pence an hour. The fund for the benefit of the strikers is £1,500. The leaders of the strike conferred with Cardinal Manning this morning.
