

"Tactics."

Sir.—The famous "Bolger Road" near Eldon, is again in evidence. A prominent member of Parliament and a great engineer from Charlottetown were seen carefully staking the road on Monday last. What a spectacle? This is the third election that this road has done duty for. The road was purchased in 1893 another portion in 1897, and the remainder will likely be purchased this year and at next general election the road may be partially opened. Such are the tactics of the corruptionists.

TRAVELLER.

There is no joy in the world equal to the happiness of motherhood. A woman's health is her dearest possession. Good looks, good times, happiness, love and its continuance, depend on her health. Almost all the sickness of women is traceable directly or indirectly to some derangement of the organs distinctly feminine. Troubles of this kind are often neglected because a very natural and proper modesty keeps women away from physicians, whose insistence upon examinations and local treatment is generally as useless as it is common. Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription will do more for them than 99 doctors in 100. It will do more than the hundredth doctor can unless he prescribes it. It is a prescription of Dr. R. V. Pierce, who for 30 years has been chief consulting physician of the World's Dispensary and Invalids' Hotel, at Buffalo, N. Y.

Watch Attention

That will cause your watch to mark the hours and minutes exactly.

As you value your time piece, do not allow it to run on without attention from year to year. Such treatment will soon ruin the finest watch.

It's economy to have it examined at regular intervals. I am sure I can do it to your satisfaction.

Earncliffe Notes.

Sorry, boys, that that little plot of yours failed.

It is sad, but true, that the best laid plans of mice and men, Aft gang alee.

There is nothing in this world that some people love so much as the sound of the human voice—when that voice is their own.

"Absence makes the heart grow fonder"—so they say. One of our boys recently, while visiting a friend whom he had not seen for all of two days, gave her a demonstration of how true this saying was in his case. As a result of this demonstration he left his friend, as a memento of the visit, a broken rib.

While ploughing a piece of new land recently, Mr. Solomon Cavanagh, discovered what proved to be an interesting relic of by-gone days—a large axe that weighed in the vicinity of eight pounds. We imagine that a person tickling trees for a few days with eight pound axe, would be able to appreciate the feelings of the man with the nine pound hoe, who was bowed by the weight of centuries, and had on his back the burden of the world.

The farmers had many warnings last spring against sowing any kind of seed but large plump grain and were specially cautioned by those theorists not, on any account, to sow last summer's "injured" wheat. Amongst those who disregarded the latter warning was Mr. Wm. Nelson, one of China Point's most practical farmers, who sowed a few bushels of the condemned grain. When Mr. Nelson harvested his wheat crop some time ago, he had a good yield from the sowing of the "dead" wheat, as he had from the imported seed. Many of us would be interested in learning how our friends reconcile their "spring theories" with those facts—for facts are stubborn things.

Mr. E. J. Carrier, and his sister Miss Ethel E. Carrier, returned home on the 26th inst., from a very enjoyable visit with friends in Crapaud and vicinity. Mr. Roderick McKinnon, who has been very ill for some time, is slightly improved in health at present. Mr. James Pendergraft, of Tea Hill, and Mr. George Tweedy of North River, former residents of this place, spent a short while here recently visiting old friends and scenes of by-gone days. Mr. Neil W. McKinnon returned a few days ago, after a lengthy sojourn in North River. Mr. John Tweedy is exhibiting his fine flock of Cotswold sheep at the Halifax exhibition. The many Earncliffe friends of Mr. Harry Morris, of Charlottetown Royalty were pleased to have him revisit them this week. He has been the guest of Mr. Harry Tweedy during his stay in Earncliffe.
