

PROVINCIAL ELECTION!

Liberal-Conservative Candidates for the City:

HON. NEIL MCLEOD, PATRICK BLAKE, ESQ.

THE DAILY EXAMINER.

JUNE 5, 1886.

The Writ of Election.

The "Writ of Election" was issued today. Nomination is to be on Wednesday, the 23rd inst.; Election on Wednesday, the 30th. Her Majesty calls upon the people to elect "able and discreet men for business."

They are able and discreet men for business—and worthy a renewal of the confidence and support of their constituencies. We trust that they will find worthy colleagues as candidates for the suffrages of the electors, and that the Liberal-Conservative flag will again, on the 30th June, be borne by them to victory.

Confirmation.

HIS LORDSHIP BISHOP MACINTYRE accompanied by the Rev. Father Burke left here yesterday evening to administer Confirmation in the principal parishes of the diocese. Following are the places to be visited:—

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR.

Floral Exhibition.

A SUGGESTION.

SIR—As the time is approaching when the Commissioners of our Exhibition will meet for consultation as to their arrangements, I would like to call attention to the Floral Department. The taste for flowers has greatly developed during late years, and the show in this respect might readily be made a credit to our city.

Boston Markets.

BOSTON, June 2.

POTATOES—The market sustains a fairly steady tone on choice stock. Eastern Hebrons command 65 to 70c, and the best Houlton Rose are taken at 60 to 65c.

FISH—Receipts of new Mackerel continue very small, and most of the vessels of the Southern fleet are arriving home empty, not having seen any fish for about two weeks. Fifteen arrivals at Gloucester on Monday, with only 325 brls. Mackerel in all.

Sherford's Acid Phosphate.

INVALUABLE AS A TONIC.

DR. J. L. PRATT, Greenfield, Ill., says: "It is all that it claims to be—invaluable as a tonic in any case where an acid base is indicated."

TELEGRAPHIC NEWS.

[SPECIAL DESPATCHES TO THE EXAMINER.]

Gladstone Explains.

LONDON, June 5. Lord Salisbury has severely criticised Senator Blaine's Home Rule speech recently delivered at Portland, Me. Gladstone writes to the papers that he holds it to be indisputable, indeed elementary that a vote on the second reading of the Home Rule Bill affirms only the principle of establishing a Legislative body in Ireland to transact business relating solely and purely to Irish affairs as distinct from those of an Imperial character.

Further Reciprocity Wanted.

OTTAWA, June 5.

Hon. Mr. Chaplain has received a statement signed by seventy members of Parliament. The statement refers to the great importance of trade with the West Indies, and favors the conclusion of a reciprocity treaty between Canada and Jamaica. The Leeward Islands also desire the privileges of commercial reciprocity with Canada, and the statement sets forth that it is desirable that all barriers in the way of securing reciprocity treaties between Canada and Jamaica, and between Canada and any British West India colony, should be at once removed by application to the Colonial Office.

Pacificators Approaching.

WASHINGTON, D. C., June 5.

The North Atlantic squadron of the United States navy are under orders for sea. It will at once proceed east and receive further orders at Portland, Me. They will then, under orders from the Navy Department, visit the fishing grounds, and it is hoped that their presence will help to allay rather than increase existing complications and antagonisms.

Prospects Good at Souris.

SOURIS, June 5.

Mackerel are being caught here in large quantities. The American fishing fleet have not yet put in an appearance, but are hourly expected. The lobster fishing continues good.

Ministerial Speeches.

HALIFAX, June 5.

Hon. Mr. Thompson, Minister of Justice, and Hon. Mr. McLellan, Minister of Finance, are to address a mass meeting here to-night.

A Fruitless Cruise.

HALIFAX, June 5.

The cruiser Lansdowne has returned to Yarmouth. She failed to capture any Yankee intruders this trip.
