Dual Shorthorns

Sterling Wood and Son, Mt. Herbert and Keith Barrett, Belmont 16 were wagging a close battle for early honours in the Dual Purpose Shorthorn ring here yesterday afternoon as judging got underway.

One of the most interesting stories concerns the two-year-old bull, Elmwyck Good Morning, which won the senior and grand championship for Waldson MacPhee, Elmwood.

It was early on Feb. 2, 1962, and Mr. MacPhee had arisen early to find the morning was frosty and unusually cold.

He was on his way to catch a plane on Ontario to accept the Semper Trophy, which his herd had merited by achieving the highest average production for herds of that size in the previous year.

Mr. MacPhee also found something else that morning before he left home. When he entered the stable he found a new baby calf. The farm name was "Elmwyck Good Morning," "Elmwyck Good Morning." The youngster developed satisfactorily and took the grand championship for him yesterday afternoon.

One other unusual fact about the young sire is that his mother "Lily" was headed for the packing plant some years ago, when Mr. MacPhee purchased her for beef price. She's an "Excellent" class cow for whom the official classifier has been rated that she has been the foundation cow for other ways as well. She has been the mother of what national recognition two years ago.

Incidentally the Sterling Wood and Son herd won the Semper Trophy a year ago.
