them out. That didn't seem to hurt his feelings any, he just flew up in a tree and sang. Mrs. Sunshine is very particular about her nests. They have got to be just so. She was even more particular than ever this year. First she brought some carefully selected straws to put in that crotch in the bush. They had to be extra good straws and they were. She worked them in a sort of ring that fitted down in that crotch close. Then she went fern hunting. Perhaps you have seen the brown soft, cotton that grows on the stems of ferns. That is what she was looking for and she knew just where to find it. Of course that cotton wouldn't stay in place unless something held it there so after she had brought some cotton she went hunting for caterpillars. Can you guess what she wanted with the caterpillars? She wanted silk. With those she bound that cotton in place. This was to be the perfect
