THE DAILY EXAMINER.

JUNE 17, 1892.

Moral Obliquity.

REFERRING to the requirement of a two-third vote to change the basis of the Legislature to be established under the reserved bill, Mr. L. H. Davies is reported by Hansard to have said:

"The (Legislative) Council made the stipulation, which the hon. gentleman knows well is only morally and not legally binding, that the qualification of voters cannot be changed except by a two-thirds majority."

There is, evidently, something morally wrong in the drift of this quotation. Is it to be supposed that any Legislature of Prince Edward Island would deliberately violate a law which is only morally and not legally binding? Is it to be assumed that the representatives of our people—our legislators—are not morally bound, but are only to be restrained by the strong arm of a law which can be enforced? If Mr. Davies so supposes and assumes, he is either morally wrong himself, or he casts a black imputation upon the character of our legislators and upon the discrimination of those who choose them.

Or is it to be supposed that the Legislalature passed the two-thirds vote clause, knowing that it was only morally and not legally binding. If so, it reflects upon the intelligence as well as the morality of the majority led by Mr. Peters. Mr. Peters assured the House of Assembly, as well as the Legislative Councillors, that the two-thirds vote clause was legally as well as morally binding. Mr. Peters is a lawyer and must have known whereof he spoke; and if his friend Mr. Davies is right he deliberately deceived his followers and permitted the Legislative Councillors to sacrifice themselves on the strength of a stipulation which he knew to be worthless.

Mr. Peters may well cry, "save me from my friends." His strongest opponent—Mr. Donald Ferguson, himself—has not brought against Mr. Peters a more damaging accusation than this.

Toronto.

THE Toronto Globe states that "there are not lacking indications that after a period of comparative inaction, a resting time such as a man who has climbed up a difficult steep, or a city that has doubled its population in ten years is entitled to, Toronto is once more on the eve of a forward movement. The last period of activity was one of house-building, accompanied by a great excess of land speculation, and in many respects the advance was more apparent than real. Now there appears to be a desire to produce real, tangible wealth, to build factories and plant industries that will take away the reproach that Toronto is far behind in the industrial race. . . . . Another indication of the onward movement of the city is the adoption of the elecric railway system, which in a few weeks will be in operation. Delay under such circumstances is more easily forgiven than undue haste. Now that the system has been adopted, the most commendable diligence is being shown in pushing forward the work of conversion. The company will spend over a million dollars this year in rails and electric plant and the change of system generally, while the city will expend fully $500,000 on the permanent pavements to be laid on the principal streets. Several of these contracts will be let to-day, and the work will be done by relays of men working night and day." It is pleasing to have this assurance from the leading organ of Unrestricted Reciprocity and blue ruin. Toronto is one of Canada's commercial centres—a place which can only progress with the progress of the country. It has doubled its population in the last ten years; and is still, the Toronto Globe editorially says, prospering and going on to prosper.

Summer Travel.

THE tide of summer travel has already set towards Prince Edward Island. The weather of the States and Canada is hot, fares are low, and wealthy citizens are seeking or longing after our cooling breezes and pleasing landscapes. Persons residing as far south as Texas have arrived in this Island, and others are coming daily from other parts of the continent. There can be no doubt that many tourists will come to Prince Edward Island this season and that many more would come if only they could be certain of obtaining ample accommodation of the right kind.

Notes and Comments.

— Before the recent Dominion election the Globe thought that direct taxation would be the saving of Canada. Now that the Quebec Government is endeavoring to remedy the enormous deficit caused by a grit regime and is obliged to incur some direct taxation, the same organ presents a lamentable picture of the dreadful consequences. Such, the Empire remarks, is grit hypocrisy.

— Reports from all parts of this Province show that the crops are nearly without exception in first-class condition and remarkably well advanced for this season of the year. The recent rains and succeeding warm weather has been just what the farmer needed, and the general expression of that worthy class is therefore one of satisfaction with the outlook.

One splendid dinner set, William's Piano, valuable bedroom suits and stoves—all without reserve at the residence of Dr. Baynes on Monday next.

Methodist District.

The annual meeting of the P. E. Island District commenced at Alberton on Tuesday the 14th inst.

The ministerial session was called to order by the chairman, Rev. W. W. Brewer, at 7 o'clock p. m., and opened with the usual devotional exercises, Rev. E. Slackford leading in prayer.

The routine business of this session was disposed of before adjournment at a late hour in the evening. This business consists of the examination of ministerial character, the consideration of the cases of candidates and probationers for the ministry, a review of the spiritual state of the churches work, and the discussion of the best means to promote that work.

There was nothing alleged against the character or work of any minister in the district. There were no candidates for the Ministry. The case of only one probationer—A. D. McLeod—called for attention. Mr. McLeod has been attending for the three years past past the college at Sackville, N. B., where, as a student, he has taken a good position. He carried off at the late examinations the prize in theology.

On Wednesday the lay delegates were in attendance at 9 o'clock, a. m. The usual devotional exercises opened the meeting—Rev. W. Harrison and I. Oxenham, Esq., leading in prayer. The temporalities of the church for the past year passed under review and were tabulated with unwonted rapidity and with the usual amount of confusion prevailing.

At 7.30 in the evening a very interesting religious service was held. The church was well filled. The pulpit was occupied by the chairman of the district who preached a brilliant discourse delivered in his characteristically eloquent and impressive style. His text was John, 18—37, "Art thou a King then?" Rev. S. James and the pastor of the Alberton church assisted in the service.

A resolution to divide the Island into two districts was introduced, briefly discussed, and signally defeated, the only vote heard in its favor being that of its mover. An appeal from the Tryon Circuit occupied the District until after midnight Wednesday. The evidence therein being read the finding of the court in the case was unanimously confirmed.

Arrangements for the reception and entertainment of the district were thorough The Alberton friends could not have been kinder or more attentive to the delegates. The journey to and from the western metropolis was very pleasant in spite of the much complained of railway accommodation now afforded. The country is just now putting on the beauties of it summer garb, and to slowly pass through it, stopping long at every central station, enables the traveller all the more thoroughly to take in and appreciate those beauties. The next annual meetlng will be at Union Road.

Tabulated results of the year's work, certain important resolutions, names of delegates to conference, etc., not available at time of closing these notes, will appear later.

Probate Court.

The first case of proof of a will in solemn form since the appointment of Richard Reddin, Esq., as Judge of Probate, came before him this week. Capt. James Power, late of this city, died last fall leaving all his property to his wife, Margaret Ann Power. They had no children of their own. Mrs. Power died in March last. By her will several bequests were made, and the balance was left to Annie McGuiggan, a little niece of her husband, about six years of age, who had been living with them. The petitioner who seeks to set aside the will is Mrs. Mary Alice Wilson, who was brought up from infancy by Captain and Mrs. Power, and claims to be their adopted child. About two years ago she went to Boston and got married. A number of witnesses were examined. J. T. Mellish, Esq., conducted the case for the Executors, Capt. James Boudreau and Francis J. Hughes; and A. Peters, Esq., for Mrs. Wilson. The Judge reserved his decision until Monday next.

Personal.

Mr. J. A. Matheson, M. P. P., and Mrs. Matheson came to town last evening.

Rev. A. McLean Sinclair and Messrs. T. C. James and J. A. Lawson returned from the General Assembly last evening.

James Dewar, Esq., of Brudenell, was in town to-day. He reports that the Three Rivers cheese factory, established by the Dominion Government, will begin operations on Monday next.

Geo. M. Moore, of the Willis Piano and Organ Co., went to Charlottetown, P. E. I., Saturday. He is a general favorite here, being always cherry, obliging, witty and comical. Hope he won't stay away long.—Picton Standard.

IN GREAT DEMAND.—The rush for crystographs has commenced at the Diamond Bookstore. Everyone may beautify homes now.

FOR BOSTON.—The steamer Worcester, Captain Brown, sailed for Boston at 6 o'clock last evening with a large cargo made up mainly of lobsters and eggs, and the following passengers: John Jennings, Mrs. M'Gahy, Mrs. Mackenzie, James Bishop, Catherine McCarney, Angus Macdonald, L Macgarrigle, Paul McLean, M Gilfoil, Mrs. Cantello, Miss Vickerson, Miss Coady, Mary Power, Ellen Prunty, P S McPhee, Mrs Bruce, Sam Howe, Elizabeth Kelly, Miss Seeley, John D Gillis, Mr. Macintosh, D Macdonald, D Kehoe and John R Welsh.

DID YOU SEE THE BARGE?—There was lying at the Railway Wharf for some days past, a bran new whale back barge capable of carrying 400 tons of coal. Her present cargo is from her owners, the Glace Bay Mining Co. of Cape Breton. W. H. McGilvery is master. She was towed here by the steam tug C. M. Winch, Capt. Mutter, which always accompanies the barge. She sailed on return last evening. There are two other barges of the same size now under construction at Mahone Bay, N. S., and still the N. P is a failure. Capt. McGilvery is quite sanguine about the success of this new enterprise, and believes that coal can be carried in this way as cheaply, if not cheaper than by the ordinary mode.

FOR OVER FIFTY YEARS Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup has been used by millions of mothers for their children while cutting teeth. It relieves the little sufferer at once; it produces natural, quiet sleep by relieving the child from pain, and the little cherub awakes as "bright as a button." It is very pleasant to taste. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain, relieves wind, regulates the bowels, and is the best-known remedy for diarrhœa, whether arising from teething or other causes. Twenty-five cents a bottle. Be sure and ask for "Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup," and take no other kind. 1yr

Death of Capt. Stairs.

THE LIFE OF THE WELL KNOWN HALIGONIAN BROUGHT TO A CLOSE.

Captain Stairs, of whose recent death in Africa readers of THE EXAMINER have already been advised, was born at Halifax in 1863. He took his college course at Edinburgh and subsequently passed through the Royal Military College at Kingston, Ontario. After graduation he was employed two years in New Zealand in engineering work. He was given a commission in the Royal Engineers, attached to the School of Military Engineering at Chatham, England, and in 1887 joined the Emin Pasha relief expedition, under command of Stanley. With Stanley, on June 28th, 1887, he set out with an advance column to march through the forest of Lake Albert Nyanza. Lieut. Stairs was second in command, and his bravery and endurance excited the admiration of his countrymen and the world. On August 13, 1887, in a deadly engagement with the natives at Air Sibbs, Lieut. Stairs was wounded below the heart by a poisoned arrow, but the poison was dry, and after three weeks he recovered his health, although the wound was dangerous for months. On December 11th, in the Mazamboni country, a large host of the enemy attempted to stop the expedition as it neared the lake and Lieut. Stairs beat back the enemy with main force. He was left in charge of Fort Bodo, which he had erected in 1888 In February, 1889, he aided in the preparation for the final departure of the expedition. Lieut. Stairs ascended Ruwenzori to the height of 10,677 feet, where he took observations, of which he has given a valuable account in scientific journals On his return from Africa he revisited his native province and city. After receiving the appointment of adjutant at Woolwich from the British government, by permission of the imperial authorities he accepted a commission from the Belgian government to look after its interests in Central Africa, where he has been for some months.
