HAPPENINGS

There are four couples from this province who will be in Ithaca, New York, this autumn, where the husbands are taking post graduate studies at Cornell University. The couples are the following: Mr. and Mrs. James Nicholson (Betty Nesbitt); Mr. and Mrs. Lawson Drake (Eileen Jay, Mt. Stewart); Mr. and Mrs. Alan Douglas (Marjorie Hurst); Mr. and Mrs. Leith Thompson, (Joan Rogerson).

St. Andrew's Episcopal Church, Wellesley, will be the setting on Sunday, September 7th, at 4 o'clock for the wedding of June Louise Cousens and Mr. Chester William Storey. Miss Cousens is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Cousens and a granddaughter of Mrs. Nicholas William Cousens and the late Dr. Cousens. Mrs. Cousens will be an honored guest at her granddaughter's wedding.

The wedding reception will be given by Mr. and Mrs. Wyman Holmes, Jr., 201 Weston Road, Wellesley, for their niece and will be held at the Parish House of the Saint Andrew's Church.

Miss Gladys Arnold, Ottawa, information officer at the French Embassy, and Miss Edna F. Hunt, assistant librarian at the National Research Council, Ottawa, are on a tour of the Maritimes and in this province for a few days.

Mrs. Alphonus MacKinnon, Saugus, Mass., has been in the province to attend the funeral of her sister, Mrs. J.H. Wood (Mildred Steele). Mrs. MacKinnon will be returning shortly to the States. Mrs. MacKinnon's husband is a brother of Dr. Reginald MacKinnon, formerly of Alexandria, who for thirty years taught dental surgery at Harvard.

Two years ago Dr. MacKinnon suffered a very severe illness but his many friends will be pleased to know that his health is now improving. Dr. MacKinnon was also chief dental surgeon at the Quincy City Hospital where his younger brother Dr. George MacKinnon, is chief of staff.

Dr. Reginald MacKinnon was at one time president of the Harvard dental alumnae and the Rifle and Revolver club of Boston. He owns a very valuable collection of revolvers.

During his parents lifetime in Alexandria, Mr. and Mrs. Peter MacKinnon, Dr. Reginald used to visit the Island very often. His wife died several years ago and his two sons are at Boston, University. The MacKinnons are making plans to visit Prince Edward Island possibly before too long.

Mr. Sterling Walker was in Guernsey the week of August 24th. He writes that he never was in a more delightful place—except P.E.I. also he calls it the "Land of the Brehauts" as there are a great many people there by that name. Guernsey is a tourist centre but there seemed to be no Americans and Mr. Walker was the only Canadian at that time. The local press had written a story on his trip to the Guernsey and his wish to meet the Brehauts, his mother's people.

MARY HAWORTH

Secret Society Is Cause Of Great Worry To Wife

Dear Mary Haworth: I need advice in the worst way and am afraid to seek professional help. As you seem a fair judge of people, I would like your opinion. A short while ago my husband was initiated into an organization that I won't name. This organization doesn't include women, but has a sister organization, which husband and wife may join. The men's organization is supposed to be very proper; but I learned accidentally that my husband removed his clothing during the initiation. When confronted, he admitted as much; but, after talking with his brothers, he denied it.

CONJUGAL CRISIS
To me it looks as if they have something to hide — not letting wives join their group, whereas they join the wives' group. This has caused quite an emotional crisis in our home and I would like to know if I should try to forget it—hard as it seems—or take some action.

I am almost afraid to breathe a word, for fear my husband, or me, or one of our children may be harmed. Please help me if you can. P.S.: If you are man, just skip this, because you probably belong to the organization and would be prejudiced in the men's favor. — K.R.

Dear K.R.: Not being a man, naturally I don't know what goes on in secluded ceremonies, when men initiate other men into their secret societies. But at least I have no special bias in favor of these monkeyshines. As for what you have to worry about, I'll have to "dig" it by deduction, a la Sherlock Holmes.

Miss Barbara Irving, a popular September bride, has been entertained at several social functions recently. A community shower was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Irving, Cape Traverse in honor of their daughter Barbara. Many lovely gifts were received and a dainty lunch was served by the ladies present.

On Saturday evening Miss Judy MacKenzie a junior bridesmaid for the Waugh-Irving wedding entertained at a personal shower for Miss Irving at the home of her parents, Capt. and Mrs. Herbert MacKenzie. Tea was poured by Mrs. Marjorie Deighan.

On Friday evening Mr. and Mrs. Irving will entertain at their home following the rehearsal at the church.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert MacLellan, Detroit, are visiting friends and relatives on Prince Edward Island, after an absence of six years. They are guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. Hickey, Indian River, and Mr. and Mrs. J. Austin Trainor and Mrs. W.A. Ready, Charlottetown.

Mrs. Gertrude MacDonald, (Gallagher) of Fort Lauderdale, Florida, is the guest of her cousin, Mrs. W. Hickey, Indian River, and her uncle, Dr. A.A. MacDonald, Souris.

Dr. W.L. MacLellan and Mrs. MacLellan of West Roxbury, Mass. their son Donald and daughter Mary are spending their vacation at Indian River where they are guests of Mr. and Mrs. William Hickey.

Dr. Derrill I. McGuigan, who has been spending his holidays with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Emmett McGuigan, left yesterday for Trenton, New Jersey, where he will resume his duties as professor of psychology at Rider College. He was accompanied back by his mother, Mrs. Emmett McGuigan, who will visit relatives and friends in Boston and New York.

Miss Mildred Harrington is receiving congratulations on having obtained a Bachelor of Arts degree at the closing of the summer school of St. Mary's University on August 22nd.

Miss Harrington has now been promoted to the faculty of education where she will teach education 3 which is general methods on the secondary school level. She is also assistant supervisor of all practice teaching of the students who are studying for their bachelor of education degree.

Mrs. Effie Brehaut and Dorothy MacInnis returned home Monday evening, after an enjoyable seven-week visit with Dorothy's aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Keith Kelver and family of Plymouth, Indiana, U.S.A.

Miss Carol Carver and her friend Miss Helen Donaldson, returned to Toronto this week, having spent an enjoyable vacation, guests of Miss Carver's mother, Mrs. Hester Carver, Lyndale. This was Miss Donaldson's first visit to this province and she was delighted with the beauty of the Island and the friendliness of the people whom she met.

MR. AND MRS. W. I. DICKIESON

Young Couple United By Summertime Vows

A pretty summer wedding of widespread interest was solemnized on July 12, at 3:00 o'clock in Trinity United Church, Charlottetown, when (Betty) Joan Elizabeth, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roscoe MacDonald York, became the bride of Walter Ivan Dickieson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Dickieson, Malpeque, P.E.I.

Rev. G. Howard Christie performed the double ring ceremony. Mr. Royston F. Mugford was organist and accompanied "The Bride and Groom" by "The Wedding Prayer" before the ceremony & "I'll Walk Beside You" during the signing of the register. Baskets of summer flowers formed a beautiful background for the occasion. White satin bows with Carnations marked the guest pews.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, entered the church to the strains of the wedding March. The young bride looked charming in a floor length wedding dress of faint ice-blue undertone tulle illusion, with appliques of Chantilly-type lace, over bridal satin and net. The fitted empire lace bodice featured a sabrina neckline. The sleeves were short with lace manchettes ending in points over the hands. The bouffant skirt cascaded into a slight sweep.

Her finger-tip veil of tulle illusion fell softly from a satin coronet tiara with three clovers encrusted with sequins and pseudo pearls. She carried a white Sweetheart roses. Her only jewelry was pearl earrings, gift of the groom.

Miss Gladys MacDonald, Toronto, was maid of honour for her sister. She wore a ballerina length gown of yellow nylon over net and taffeta with matching bandeau and carried a nosegay of yellow roses mingled with red and white. The bridesmaids: Muriel MacDonald and Shirley Mann were in identical gowns of azure blue organza over net and taffeta with matching headpieces. They carried similar nosegays of pink and white carnations.

The little flower girl was Jane

Dyment from Moncton. She was dressed in a petal pink frock and wore a band of pink roses on her head with a velvet streamer. She carried mixed flowers of blue and pink.

Mr. Daroll Dickieson, Toronto, was best man for his brother. The ushers were Merrill MacDonald, Oshawa; and Athol Jenkins, Kingston, Ontario.

Mrs. MacDonald chose for her daughter's wedding a dress of blue peau de soie with white accessories and a corsage of rose carnations. The groom's mother was attired in a white and turquoise flowered orlon dress with white accessories and a rose corsage. Following the ceremony a reception was held for eighty guests at the Charlottetown Hotel. The bride's table was attractively decorated with mixed flowers in harmonizing tones, and centered with a three-tier wedding cake topped by a miniature bride and groom.

The toast to the bride was proposed by Mr. Earle Dyment, Moncton, and fittingly responded to by the groom, Mrs. Frank Campbell, Moncton, who was in charge of the guest book.

Out of town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Earle Dyment, Moncton; Miss Elaine Murray and Miss Alberta Rowe, of Toronto, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Campbell, Moncton; Mrs. George MacLeod, Winnipeg; and Mr. Alfred Dunbar, New York.

Following the reception the happy couple left amid showers of confetti and the well wishes of friends and relatives. For travelling the bride wore a powder blue box-suit with navy fleck and white accessories. Her corsage was pink roses. Their honeymoon was spent in P.E.I. Maine, Connecticut, Boston, New York City.

Mr. and Mrs. Dickieson will reside at 55 Dixon Avenue in Toronto. There the bride is employed as a school teacher with the Toronto Board of Education, and the groom as Credit Manager of the Fairweather branch of stores.

The bride and groom received many lovely and useful gifts from friends and relative and they were attended by showers in Toronto, York and Malpeque.

HOUSE IN UPROAR
NEW DELHI (Reuters) — Almost all opposition members walked out of the House of the People (Lower House) Wednesday amid scenes of uproar over food shortages in Uttar Pradesh state. There were cries of "shame—the food minister must resign—the entire government must resign," as about 50 members, including Socialists, Communist and Independents walked out.

ridicule, embarrassment, etc. In this 'separating the men from the boys'—which was the jungle idea, originally—some is employed. It isn't wilfully evilly pretty primitive practical joking or sadistic as a matter of policy. But, unfortunately, there is a streak of sadism in some people, and it may find morbid expression in these initiation exercises, now and again.

One last item: In certain primitive cultures, when the men get together, to celebrate manliness and take in new fellows, part of the ritual consists in raising a fearful racket behind the scenes, with noise-making gadgets to "scare the women" of the village. It's done in fun, because the women don't know, because "brotherhood" secrets aren't shared with them!

Maybe that's your situation in a nutshell. Possibly you are worrying about a sportive incident, best forgotten, that your husband can't explain or discuss to your satisfaction, without bringing the lodge down on his neck. For talking too much, in violation of secrecy rules. So why don't you stop trying to pry, and trust his judgment, if he indicates no crime was committed. M.H. (Mary Haworth) counsels through her column, not by mail or personal interview. Write her in care of this newspaper.

ELAYNE READY DONALD MacNALLY
ENGAGEMENT ANNOUNCED

Mrs. W.A. Ready wishes to announce the engagement of her daughter Margaret Elayne, to William Donald Joseph MacNally, son of Mrs. (Laurie) MacNally and the late Mr. Leigh MacNally of Charlottetown. Marriage to take place September 27th at St. Dunstan's Basilica at .30 a.m.

A Ch'town Girl Attends Canadian Hi-Y Assembly

Miss Carol Ann Hogan of the Charlottetown YMCA, who has been attending the eighth Canadian Hi-Y assembly which opened at Geneva Park, Ontario, August 26th, returned home September 1st. Geneva Park is a leadership training centre and there were 140 delegates from YMCA clubs for high school students.

Carol Ann is enrolled at Prince of Wales College and is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A.G. Hogan, North River Road. She tells us that the first speaker was the Rev. A.C. Forrest, editor of the United Church Observer. He based his remarks on the theme, "Survival."

Miss Hogan comments on Mr. Forrest's talk as follows: "Although survival has preoccupied mankind since time began, Rev.

Forrest urged us not just to survive, but to survive successfully. He spoke of the economic differences between North America and the Middle East. He cited the example of the young people of Israel in working for the survival of their cause. He concluded by saying that as long as millions continue to die in ignorance, disease, and poverty, we should be concerned with not if we survive, but if they survive."

Interesting features were the group and panel discussions as well as the many films shown. The young people also visited Niagara Falls and the Canadian National Exhibition. Miss Hogan was a splendid representative of the Island in this outstanding group of young Canadians.

MR. AND MRS. T. G. MACLEOD

Pretty Evening Wedding Is Solemnized At Marie

St. John's United Church, Marie was the scene of a pretty early evening wedding on July 26, when Miss Jean Eleanor Coffin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gordon E. Coffin, Morell, P.E.I. and Mr. Thomas Gordon MacLeod, son of Mr. and Mrs. Gordon T. MacLeod of West River Station, Nova Scotia, were united in marriage.

Rev. Anthony G.N. Ware performed the double ring ceremony. Mrs. Layton Coffin was organist and played appropriate nuptial music and accompanied Miss Barbara Coffin who sang "O Perfect Love" before the ceremony and "I'll Walk Beside You" during the signing of the register. The church was tastefully decorated with ferns and pretty summer flowers, which formed a beautiful background for the occasion. White satin bows centered with rosebuds marked the guest pews.

The winsome bride given in marriage by her father, looked lovely in a floor length gown of the slightly modified scooped neck with the Lo-Lo waist effect. The encircling fullness of the skirt was highlighted by lace appliques.

She carried a white Bible topped with a white orchid from which fell orange blossom streamers.

The bride was attended by her twin sister, Miss Lorraine Coffin, as maid of honor, Miss Miriam Coffin, sister of the bride and Miss Marilyn Sullivan as bridesmaids.

The attendants' identical ballerina length gowns in princess style were of turquoise and coral crystal charm, with matching hats.

The groom was attended by Mr. Gordon King. The ushers were Mr. Ross Matheson, friend of the groom and Mr. Leeland Anderson, cousin of the bride.

Mrs. Coffin chose for her daughter's wedding a dress of dior blue lace over taffeta with navy and white accessories. Her corsage was white carnations.

The groom's mother wore a navy sheath dress with navy and yellow accessories. Her corsage was yellow roses.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at the Church Hall, which was decorated with pink and white streamers. The Bride's table adorned with sweet peas and white tapers was centered with a four-tier wedding cake.

The toast to the bride, proposed by Rev. Mr. Ware, was fittingly responded to by the groom who in turn proposed a toast to the bridesmaids, to which the best man responded. Miss Shirley Ann

After the dinner the guests were invited to the bride's home where the many beautiful gifts were displayed and an enjoyable evening spent.

For a honeymoon trip to Val d'Or, Quebec, the bride changed to a pink chemise dress with matching hat and gloves. Her corsage was a white orchid. Mr. and Mrs. MacLeod will reside at 22 Foley Court, St. John, N.B. where the groom is a member of the staff of the Canadian Bank of Commerce.

ELEANOR DAVEY DARRELL HARTLING
ENGAGEMENT ANNOUNCED

Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Davey of Murray Harbour, Prince Edward Island, have announced the engagement of their youngest daughter, Eleanor Blanche, to Darrell William Hartling, youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Gordon Hartling of Halifax. The wedding will take place on Sunday, September 13 at 3 o'clock in Edgewood United Church, Halifax. — Photos by Crawshaw.

HUNT DANISH ARSONIST
COPENHAGEN (AP) — Somebody tried to set fire early Wednesday to Christiansborg Castle, seat of the Danish parliament. The damage was slight. Police said the blaze probably was the work of a firebug, perhaps a boy who wanted some excitement. The last week a 15-year-old has confessed setting fires to buildings in the provincial town of Vejle, and some police sources thought the Copenhagen arsonist might have been inspired by the arsonist.
