Rev. J.F. Coghlan Is Transferred

Rev. J.F. Coghlan C.Ss.R., who has been attached to the staff of The Church of the Most Holy Redeemer since 1953 has been transferred to Toronto and will leave Wednesday to take up his new duties in the Ontario capital.

Father Coghlan expressed regret at leaving Charlottetown in general and Holy Redeemer Parish in particular where he served so faithfully and zealously for the past six years. However transfers are nothing new to this Redemptorist Father who has served in all ten provinces of Canada during his priestly life.

Father Coghlan came to Charlottetown from Quebec City where he had served as rector of Saint Patrick's Parish from 1947 to 1953. Possessed of great organizational ability, Father Coghlan was considered one of the Redemptorist Order's finest administrators. However, as a missionary, his priestly duties brought him in contact with many congregations throughout the country and in this field he was considered equally as capable.

Parishoners of Holy Redeemer Parish will honor Father Coghlan tonight at a parish function in the community room of The Community Centre. The affair will commence at 8.30.

Very Rev. C.H. Moreau, C.Ss.R., who has been parish rector since 1956, has been re-appointed for another three-year term.

Joining the staff of Holy Redeemer will be Rev. Francis Cunerty C.Ss.R. and Rev. Raymond Fitzgerald C.Ss.R. Father Cunerty has been rector of Assumption Parish in Toronto and Father Fitzgerald comes directly from Sudbury, Ontario.

County Court Hears Evidence In Ch'town Resident's Case

In Queens County Magistrate's Court, Friday afternoon, a resident of Charlottetown, was arraigned before Magistrate Gilbert A. Gaudet Q.C., on the charge of driving whilst his abilities were impaired by alcohol, to which he pleaded not guilty.

Evidence disclosed that the car operated by the accused had been in collision with another vehicle on the Trans Canada Highway west of Hazelbrook. Damage was estimated to be in the vicinity of $100.

The driver of the other vehicle, an air force officer, stated that after the accused had climbed out of his own car he appeared to be dazed and in an unsteady condition with a strong odor of alcohol coming from his breath.

The evidence was substantially coroborated by another air force officer, who was a passenger in the car of the first witness. In his evidence he added that the speech of the accused was both slurred and incoherent.

After the crown, represented by John P. Nicholson, had indicated that they had two more witnesses to call, the case was adjourned until Friday, May 15th Allison Gillis is counsel for the accused.

A south shore fisherman convicted on the charge of leaving shore with lines, bouys and lobster traps before the termination of a closed season, was fined $5 and costs or 5 days.

Residents of Parkdale, North Wiltshire, Central Royalty and Dunstaffnage, all convicted of the possession of intoxicating liquor in a place other than their residences, were each fined $20 and costs or 30 days.

A resident of Central Bedeque charged with operating a truck with a combined weight totally in excess of the weight allowed under the current weight restrictions, was given a fine of $25 and costs or 15 days.

For operating a motor vehicle with defective equipment (lights, steering etc.) an Oyster Bed Bridge resident was fined $5 and costs, or five days. A similar fine was imposed upon a Winsloe man for failing to stop at a stop sign.

Mother's Book

Four men were discussing the various translations of the Bible. One liked the King James version because of its music, rhythm and beauty. Another liked the Revised Version, claiming that it represented more nearly the sense of the original Hebrew and Greek. A third liked Moffatt's translation because of its modern vocabulary. The fourth man said, "I always liked my mother's translation. She translated it into life and it was the most beautiful translation I ever read!"

Mother's Day is a good time to remind ourselves what makes indviiduals and nations great. John Whittier expressed a great truth simply and beautifully when he wrote:

"We search the world for truth; we cull
The good, the true, the beautiful,
From graven stone and written scroll,
And all old flower-fields of the soul;
And, weary seekers of the best,
We come back laden from our quest,
To find that all the sages said
Is in the Book our Mothers read."

It is this "Book of our Mothers", that the Bible Society has undertaken to give to every man in his own tongue . . . knowing that it will be translated into life by those whose hearts are touched by its truths we share when we contribute to the Society and we also benefit when we purchase material at The Bible House, the profits of which are used to maintain and extend the work.
