The Worse the Better

And On Campus...

Speak Easy

a non-credit course on effective speaking

A number of openings is still available for the Speak Easy courses in the second term.

Speak Easy is a short course, designed to help you achieve a more effective way of communicating, whether it is in the context of class discussions, seminar presentations or social interaction. This course is offered primarily for those individuals who have difficulty in speaking out, even in small groups. Emphasis will be on achieving self-confidence and development of potential; Speak Easy is not intended to be a high level course in public speaking or debating.
